ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED RULES

1. Statutes Interpreted.

Sections 101.02 (1), 145.02 (3) and (4), 145.20, and 145.245 (7) (c), Stats.

2. Statutory Authority.

Sections 101.02 (1), 145.02 (3) and (4), 145.20, and 145.245 (7) (c), Stats.

3. Related Statute or Rule.

Sections 59.70 (5), 145.135, 145.19, and 145.24, Stats.

4. Explanation of Agency Authority.

Under s. 145.02, Stats., the Department of Commerce has the responsibility of safeguarding public health and the waters of the state relative to the construction, installation and maintenance of plumbing. One mechanism of the Department to fulfill this responsibility has been the promulgation of rules under chapters Comm 81 to 87 establishing standards for the design, installation, inspection and maintenance of private onsite wastewater treatment systems, POWTS and for administration of the Private Onsite Wastewater Treatment System Replacement or Rehabilitation Financial Assistance Program.

Section 145.20 (5), Stats., directs the Department to establish a maintenance program for POWTS. This section was established as part of 2005 Wisconsin Act 347.

Section 145.245 (7) (c), Stats., directs the Department to revise grant funding tables when certain thresholds are exceeded.

5. Summary of Proposed Rules.

The proposed rule revisions are intended to update and clarify the existing rules governing the design, installation, inspection and maintenance for POWTS. The significant revisions proposed include:

- Section Comm 2.66 is amended to clarify fees charged for review of revisions of product submittals related to POWTS methods, technologies or site constructed components.
- Section Comm 5.36 (1) is amended to clarify what activities a POWTS Maintainer may perform.
- Chapter Comm 81 is amended to include a definition for "occasional occupancy". This is relative to maintenance intervals for POWTS.
- Section Comm 82.40 (8) (b) 2., is amended relating to terminology.
- Changes to ch. Comm 83 include numerous minor clarifications and additional administrative requirements and terminology.
- Additional administrative requirements include the implementation of a POWTS inventory and a maintenance reporting program as required by 2005 Wisconsin Act 347. Clarifications include delineation of governmental unit decision making authority and POWTS owner responsibilities.
- Changes to ch. Comm 84 include minor clarifications.
- Changes to ch. Comm 85 clarify language relating to processing of site and soil evaluation information.
- Changes to ch. Comm 87 revise the grant funding tables as required by s. 145.245 (7) (c), Stats.

6. Summary of, and Comparison with Existing or Proposed Federal Regulations.

There are two existing federal regulations that address some of the activities that are regulated by this rule (Chapter Comm 83).

40 CFR 144.80(e) addresses Class V Wells also known as Shallow Injection Wells. Specifically, 40 CFR 144.3, defines "Sanitary Waste" as including domestic wastewater. Chapter Comm 83 addresses treatment and dispersal of domestic wastewater. Also, 40 CFR 144.3, defines "Wells or Injection Wells" as including certain septic systems. Class V regulations specifically address "Large Capacity Septic Systems" which are defined as systems receiving sanitary wastes from multiple dwellings or from non-residential establishments where the system has a capacity to serve 20 or more person per day. These systems are "authorized by rule" provided they meet two minimum federal requirements. 1. The owner or operator submits basic inventory information. 2. The injectate (wastewater) cannot endanger underground sources of drinking water. Chapter Comm 83, Wis. Adm. Code, addresses Private Onsite Wastewater Treatment Systems (POWTS) which include septic systems that serve all structures residential and non-residential regardless of capacity. Owner information is required as part of the permitting process. Section 145.13, Wis. Stats., requires that chapter Comm 83, Wis. Adm. Code, comply with the provisions of chapter 160, Wis. Stats. Chapter NR 140, Wis. Adm. Code, contains a list of substances that have preventative action limits and enforcement standards. This list is more specific than the current federal regulations. Chapter Comm 83, Wis. Adm. Code, incorporates the applicable provisions of chapter 160, Wis. Stats., and chapter NR 140, Wis. Adm. Code.

40 CFR Part 122 addresses National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permits. Chapter Comm 83, Wis. Adm. Code, addresses large POWTS systems which are covered by Wisconsin Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (WPDES) permits that are issued by the Department of Natural Resources. The WPDES permit process is modeled after the NPDES permit process.

There are no proposed federal regulations that would address activities that are regulated by this rule making project.

7. Comparison with Rules in Adjacent States.

An internet search of the State of Illinois website revealed that the Illinois Private Sewage Code was last revised in 2003. Illinois Environmental Protection Agency regulates surface discharge (greater than 1,500 gpd) and "experimental" systems. Illinois Department of Public Health regulates surface discharging systems (less than 1,500 gpd) and all other systems that discharge below ground surface. The rule does not include requirements for maintenance reporting programs.

An internet search of the State of Iowa website revealed that the Iowa Onsite Wastewater Treatment and Disposal Code was last revised in 2003. In Iowa local boards of health have primary responsibility for onsite systems. The Iowa Department of Natural Resources has responsibility for systems that serve more than 15 people. The rule does not include requirements for maintenance reporting programs.

An internet search of the State of Michigan website revealed that Michigan does not have a statewide onsite sewage system code. Michigan Department of Environmental Quality under the authority of Part 22 Groundwater Quality Rules established the 1994 version of 'The Michigan Criteria for Subsurface Sewage Disposal. These criteria are used by the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality and by 44 local health departments that develop their own rules to regulate single and two family systems. The Michigan Criteria do not include requirements for maintenance reporting programs.

An internet search of the State of Minnesota website revealed that Minnesota Rules Chapter 7080, Individual Sewage Treatment Systems (ISTS) was last revised in 1999. Counties/Local Governments issue permits for systems with less than 10,000 gpd flows. Minnesota Pollution Control Agency issues permits for systems with greater than 10,000 gpd flows. Local rules may include a maintenance reporting requirement.

8. Summary of Factual Data and Analytical Methodologies.

The primary methodology for updating the POWTS rules, primarily chapters Comm 81 and 87, has been a review and assessment of the current rules by an advisory council. The members of the council represent many stakeholders involved in the POWTS industry, including designers, contractors, regulators, academics and manufacturers. (A listing of the council members is provided at the end of this analysis.)

The Department utilizes advisory councils to gather information on potential impacts in complying with the both the technical and administrative requirements of the codes. A responsibility of council members is to bring forth concerns their respective organizations may have with the requirements, including concerns regarding economic impacts. (Copies of the council meetings summaries are on file in the Safety and Building Division.)

9. Analysis and Supporting Documents Used to Determine Effect on Small Business or in Preparation of Economic Impact Report.

The Department believes that the proposed rules would have a minimal additional impact on small business in light of the following:

The current chapter Comm 83 contains inspection, maintenance, servicing and reporting requirements for POWTS. Contractors involved in providing inspection, maintenance, servicing and reporting services will not have additional requirements to meet based on the proposed code revisions. The department does not believe that the proposed rules will increase the effect on small businesses over that imposed by the 2005 Wisconsin Act 347.

An economic impact report has not been required pursuant to s. 227.137, Stats.
