FINAL REGULATORY FLEXIBILITY ANALYSIS

Department of Commerce

CL	EARINGHOUSE RULE NO.: 09-063
RL	JLE NO.: Chapter Comm 100
RE	LATING TO:Economic Development Tax Credit Program
	Final regulatory flexibility analysis not required. (Statement of determination required.)
1.	Reason for including or failing to include the following methods for reducing impact of the rule on small businesses: Less stringent compliance or reporting requirements; less stringent schedules or deadlines for compliance or reporting requirements; simplification of compliance or reporting requirements; establishment of performance standards to replace design or operational standards; exemption from any or all requirements.
	Less stringent requirements are not proposed for small businesses because the directing legislation, 2009 Wisconsin Act 2, does not provide such flexibility.
2.	Issues raised by small businesses during hearings, changes in proposed rules as a result of comments by small businesses and reasons for rejecting any alternatives suggested by small businesses.

No issues were raised.

3.	Nature and estimated cost of preparation of any reports by small businesses.
	The reporting addressed in the rules is substantially similar to reporting that the Department currently requires in conjunction with administering economic development tax credits – and therefore is not expected to impose any significant new costs on small businesses.
4.	Nature and estimated cost of other measures and investments required of small businesses.
	The rules are not expected to impose significant costs on small businesses for other measures because the rules address submittal of documentation, and other activities, only by applicants that choose to pursue tax credits for economic development.
E	Additional cost to appear of administrating or enforcing a value which includes any of the matheds in 4
5.	Additional cost to agency of administering or enforcing a rule which includes any of the methods in 1. for reducing impact on small businesses.
