Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill repeals reductions to state aid paid to 1) school districts for per pupil payments made under the Milwaukee Parental Choice Program, the Racine Parental Choice Program, the Wisconsin Parental Choice Program, and the Special Needs Scholarship Program; and 2) independent charter schools authorized by the Office of Educational Opportunity in the UW System, the chancellor of an institution in the UW System other than UW–Milwaukee or UW–Parkside, a technical college district board other than the Milwaukee Area Technical College district board, the county executive of Waukesha County, the College of Menominee Nation, or the Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwa Community College (new charter school authorizer). The bill also provides a one-time recurring revenue limit adjustment for school districts that is equal to 25 percent of the impact on a school district's levy that occurs due to the changes in the bill, including removing parental choice pupils and independent charter school pupils and shared costs associated with reductions for payments made for those pupils from the general state formula.

The Racine and Wisconsin Parental Choice Programs and the Special Needs Scholarship Program

Under current law, per pupil payments to private schools participating in the RPCP, WPCP, and SNSP are paid from sum sufficient appropriations, ensuring that full payments are made to private schools for pupils participating in each of the programs. Current law also requires the Department of Public Instruction to reduce each school district's equalization aid by an amount equal to the total per pupil payments paid to private schools participating in the RPCP, WPCP, and SNSP that are attributable to pupils residing in that school district. If a school district does not receive equalization aid sufficient to cover the aid reduction, the balance is reduced from other state aid received by the school district. These aid reductions are deposited into the general fund. In general, these reductions reimburse the general fund for per pupil payments made under the RPCP, WPCP, and SNSP. Under current law, pupils who participated in the RPCP or WPCP before the 2015-16 school year are not included for purposes of the equalization aid reduction.

The bill eliminates reductions to equalization aid for per pupil payments made under the RPCP, WPCP, and SNSP beginning in the 2024-25 school year.

Under current law, a pupil participating in the RPCP, WPCP, or SNSP for whom a per pupil payment was made in the previous school year is included in the pupil's resident school district's membership for purposes of calculating general state aids. A school district's membership in the previous school year is a factor used to calculate equalization aid. Current law also allows a school district to increase its revenue limit by the amount of the aid reduction described above.

The bill repeals both of these provisions. Under the bill, beginning in the 2024-25 school year, a pupil participating in the RPCP, WPCP, or SNSP is not included in the pupil's resident school district membership and there is no longer a school district revenue limit adjustment for the aid reduction described above.

The Milwaukee Parental Choice Program

Under current law, payments to private schools participating in the MPCP are paid from a sum sufficient appropriation, ensuring that full payments are made to private schools for all pupils participating in the MPCP. Current law also requires DPI to reduce the general state aid for Milwaukee Public Schools by a percentage of the amount paid to private schools participating in the MPCP and deposit the reduction into the general fund. Under revenue limits, MPS may levy property taxes to make up for the amount of general aid lost due to this reduction.

Current law describes the amount of the reduction in two parts. In the 2023-24 school year, the first part of the reduction to the general state aid for MPS is 3.2 percent of the total per pupil payments made to private schools participating in the MPCP. Under current law, this part of the reduction is reduced by 3.2 percentage points each school year until the 2024-25 school year, at which time there is no reduction. The bill eliminates this aspect of the reduction to the general state aid for MPS.

The second part of the MPS general state aid reduction under current law is equal to 6.6 percent of the total per pupil payments made to private schools participating in the MPCP. However, current law requires DPI to provide additional state aid, known as first class city school levy aid, to the City of Milwaukee and requires the City of Milwaukee to pay the amount received to the school board. In other words, the school board receives the amount of the reduction through first class city school levy aid. The bill does not eliminate this reduction or the first class city school levy aid.

Independent charter schools

Under current law, per pupil payments to an independent charter school authorized by a new charter school authorizer are paid from sum sufficient appropriations, ensuring that full payments are made to independent charter schools. Current law also requires DPI to reduce each school district's equalization aid by an amount equal to the total per pupil payments paid to these independent charter schools that are attributable to pupils residing in that school district. If a school district does not receive equalization aid sufficient to cover the aid reduction, the balance is reduced from other state aid received by the school district. These aid reductions are deposited into the general fund. In general, these reductions reimburse the general fund for per pupil payments made to independent charter schools that are authorized by new charter school authorizers.

The bill eliminates reductions to equalization aid for per pupil payments made to these independent charter schools beginning in the 2024-25 school year. The 2021-23 biennial budget eliminated reductions to equalization aid for payments made to independent charter schools authorized by the City of Milwaukee, the chancellor of UW-Milwaukee, the chancellor of UW-Parkside, or the Milwaukee Area Technical College district board (legacy charter school authorizers).

Under current law, a pupil for whom a per pupil payment was made to an independent charter school authorized by a new charter school authorizer in the previous school year is included in the pupil's resident school district's membership for purposes of calculating general state aids. A school district's membership in the previous school year is a factor used to calculate equalization aid. Additionally, under current law, pupils attending an independent charter school authorized by a new charter school authorizer are included in their resident school district's pupil count for purposes of calculating revenue limits.

The bill repeals both of these provisions. Under the bill, beginning in the 2024-25 school year, a pupil attending an independent charter school authorized by a new charter school authorizer is not included in the pupil's resident school district membership and is not counted as enrolled in the pupil's resident school district for purposes of revenue limits.

School district revenue limit adjustment

The bill creates a school district revenue limit adjustment that increases a school district's limit for the 2024-25 school year by an amount equal to 25 percent of the levy impact of the changes discussed above for each school district. The revenue limit adjustment is a recurring revenue limit adjustment, which means the increase is included in the base for determining a school district's revenue limit for the next school year.
