The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Study Committee on Child Placement and Support. Under current law, family support is an alternative that combines the component parts of child support and maintenance in a single obligation, and is based upon the same criteria that apply to orders for child support and maintenance. Family support payments are treated for federal and state tax purposes as maintenance payments, so that the family support payment amount is deductible to the payor-spouse, and taxable to the recipient-spouse. However, under s. 11051 of the federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, maintenance payments are no longer deductible by the payor-spouse and are not included in income to the recipient-spouse. This change will apply to any divorce or separation instrument executed after December 31, 2018. Divorce and separation instruments modified after the December 31, 2018, effective date will be subject to prior law unless the modification expressly provides that the modified agreement be governed by the new law.

The bill provides that no new family support orders may be issued beginning on the bill's effective date. Family support orders issued before the bill's effective date would remain in effect and be subject to all provisions in current law that apply to family support orders, including provisions relating to calculating interest and the duties of the Department of Children and Families regarding application of payments received.
