2023 SENATE BILL 1110

April 11, 2024 - Introduced by Senators L. JOHNSON, SPREITZER and LARSON, cosponsored by Representatives MADISON, HAYWOOD, BALDEH, DRAKE, MOORE OMOKUNDE, MYERS, STUBBS, CLANCY and BARE. Referred to Committee on Labor, Regulatory Reform, Veterans and Military Affairs.

AN ACT relating to: study of guaranteed employment grant program and making an appropriation.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires the Department of Workforce Development to study the creation of a job guarantee and full employment grant program. Under the program, DWD and municipalities provide grants to public and nonprofit employers in the care economy to provide certain job opportunities in positions covered by a collective bargaining unit to individuals with disabilities, heads of households with incomes that are 150 percent or less than the federal poverty line, individuals who have been unemployed for extended periods, individuals who were previously incarcerated, and individuals between 18 and 24 years old. The bill requires DWD to submit a report with the findings and recommendations.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Nonstatutory provisions.

SENATE BILL 1110SECTION 1

(1) JOB GUARANTEE AND FULL EMPLOYMENT GRANT STUDY. The department of workforce development shall conduct a study of the requirements to create a grant program administered by the department of workforce development or a municipality to award grants to public and nonprofit entities in the care economy to create and offer guaranteed jobs in positions that are covered by a collective bargaining agreement, for at least 100 days of 8 hours per day at a pay rate of $20 per hour. In this subsection, “care economy” means job sectors that prioritize care for people, communities, and the environment, and includes health care, child care, elder and disability care, social services, public transportation, sustainability, conservation or climate change mitigation, public infrastructure, education, public and social housing, and criminal legal reform. The study shall determine the number of positions required, the cost, the number of individuals who would be eligible for a position under the grant program, paid training strategies for jobs offered under the program, and strategies to create pathways to and opportunities for full-time employment. Eligible employers would be able to use grant money to create and offer jobs in 25-day increments to any of the following:

(a) Individuals between 18 and 24 years old.

(b) Individuals with a disability.

(c) Heads of households whose household income is 150 percent or less of the nonfarm federal poverty line for the continental United States, as defined in 42 USC 9902 (2).

(d) Individuals who have been unemployed and searching for a job for 27 weeks or more, or who have been unemployed for 3 of the preceding 5 years, except that employers of such individuals would no longer be eligible for a grant under the program for individuals who have been employed by the same employer for more than 12 consecutive months.

(e) Individuals who were previously incarcerated.

(2) JOB GUARANTEE AND FULL EMPLOYMENT REPORT. No later than 18 months after the effective date of this subsection, the department of workforce development shall submit a report with its written findings and recommendations resulting from the study under sub. (1) to the governor and to the chief clerk of each house of the legislature for distribution to the appropriate standing committees in the manner provided under s. 13.172 (3).

SECTION 2. Fiscal changes.

(1) JOB GUARANTEE AND FULL EMPLOYMENT GRANT STUDY. In the schedule under s. 20.005 (3) for the appropriation to the department of workforce development under s. 20.445 (1) (a), the dollar amount for fiscal year 2023-24 is increased by $250,000 to conduct the study under SECTION 1 (1) of this act and to create the report under SECTION 1 (2) of this act.
