2023 Wisconsin Act 100
[2023 Senate Bill 971]

Office of Literacy

BACKGROUND

2023 Act 20 created an Office of Literacy, known as the “Wisconsin Reading Center,” in the Department of Public Instruction to carry out responsibilities relating to early literacy outcomes. Under the act, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction must nominate a director for the office and the nomination is subject to Senate confirmation.

2023 ACT 100

2023 Act 100 creates an appropriation for the Office of Literacy and the programs it is required to oversee. Additionally, the act specifies that the director of the Office of Literacy is assigned to Executive Salary Group 3 under s. 20.923 (4) (c), Stats.
