Explanation of Agency Authority

The Wisconsin Employment Peace Act, the Municipal Employment Relations Act, the State Employment Labor Relations Act and the University of Wisconsin System Faculty and Academic Staff Labor Relations Act all require that the Commission adopt administrative rules to regulate various proceedings.

Plain Language Analysis

The Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission has reviewed its rules concerning procedures in the administration of the following portions of ch. 111, Stats., for the purposes of correcting errors in its comprehensive 2006 rules review and revision, amending or creating new rules concerning changes to Subchapters I, IV and V, and creating new rules concerning the newly-created Subchapter VI. Those Subchapters consist of the following Acts:

Subchapter I -- the (Wisconsin) Employment Peace Act (WEPA)
Subchapter IV -- the Municipal Employment Relations Act (MERA)
Subchapter V -- the State Employment Labor Relations Act (SELRA)
Subchapter VI -- the University of Wisconsin System Faculty and Academic Staff Labor Relations Act (FASLRA)

OVERALL OBJECTIVES

The overall objectives of the proposed rules are:

- correcting errors/omissions made during the comprehensive 2006 rules review/revision
- conforming to changes in WEPA, MERA and SELRA
- establishing procedures concerning the newly-created FAFSRA.
- removing internal inconsistencies

CHANGES COMMON TO ALL OR MANY CHAPTERS

Chs. ERC 60-68 concerning the newly-enacted FAFSRA replicate the corresponding chapters in the SELRA rules in chs. 20-28. Accordingly, as in the 2006 review/revision, an effort has been made, wherever possible, to maintain parallelism among the chapters concerning parallel subject areas under WEPA, MERA, SELRA and FASLRA. To avoid unnecessary repetition, references to parallel provisions elsewhere in the rules have been utilized instead of repeating parallel text. In general, MERA rules have been referenced in the WEPA, SELRA and FASLRA chapters instead of repeating the parallel text. References to the hearing procedures in ch. ERC 18 have been utilized extensively throughout the rules.

Numerous references to "practice and procedures" have been changed to "practice and procedure" so that the usage of that phrase is uniform throughout the rules.

CHANGES SPECIFIC TO PARTICULAR CHAPTERS

Giving effect to revisions of the definitions of fair share and maintenance of membership agreements in s. 111.02 (7m) and (9m), Stats., respectively, s. ERC 8.01 and the title of ch. ERC 8 have been revised to make that existing chapter regarding fair share and maintenance of membership referenda applicable to a s. 111.02 (7) (a), Stats., employer of day care providers.

Correcting an error in s. ERC 12.02 (6) (b) 4., that section regarding the contents of a complaint case notice of hearing has been revised so that it conforms with the existing requirement in s. ERC 12.03 (1) that each respondent shall file an answer.

Correcting an error in s. ERC 50.04 (4), a new second sentence has been added paralleling the second sentence of s. ERC 13.04 (4).

Under the newly-enacted ss. 111.935, Stats., the new ch. ERC 29 provides a procedure by which a labor organization can attain certification as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of research assistants (newly-defined in s. 111.81 (17m), Stats.), by means of a WERC administrative determination based on employee-signed authorization cards, in lieu of a secret ballot election. The new ch. ERC 29 has been generally patterned after the representation election procedures in ch. ERC 13. However, because there is no other Wisconsin labor relations provision for an authorization card majority based determination of representative, the new chapter includes a variety of new and unique elements:

- The new procedure has been structured as a separate chapter onto itself, rather than included in the SELRA representation elections chapter, ch. ERC 23.

- Consistent with the language of s. 111.935, Stats., that once a card majority is determined "the collective bargaining unit is established", the new procedure is made available only with regard to bargaining units that are currently unrepresented (e.g., Section title, s. ERC 29.01)

- The new procedure is an optional alternative to a secret ballot election, not a preclusive replacement of the secret ballot election procedure. (e.g., s. ERC 29.01; see also, s. ERC 29.07 (4)).

- A labor organization is permitted to file both a petition under the new procedure and a petition for secret ballot election regarding the same bargaining unit. (s. ERC 29.02 (5) (b))

- The processing of a petition filed under the new procedure will take precedence over the processing of a petition for secret ballot election regarding the same bargaining unit filed by the same labor organization or by a competing labor organization. (s. ERC 29.07 (4)).

- Specific time and content standards for authorization card validity are included, along with a model authorization card. A petition must be supported by authorization cards signed within one year of the filing of the petition, by a majority of the employees employed in the bargaining unit during the payroll period when the petition was filed or employed in the bargaining unit on such other date or dates as the commission, for good cause, may establish. To be valid, authorization cards must substantially conform to the model card or otherwise include: the employee's name, campus and department; the name of labor organization; the employee's signature and the date of signature. The card must also contain statements reflecting that the research assistant favors establishment of a bargaining unit of research assistants exclusively represented for collective bargaining by the labor organization and understands that such representation may be based upon a majority of authorization cards, and that the card was signed freely and without coercion. Once signed, authorization cards are in effect for one year and not revocable. However, signing a card does not prevent the employee from signing another such card supporting representation by another labor organization. (s. ERC 29.04 (2), 29.02 (3)).

- Specific provisions govern the effect of the filing of a competing labor organization's petition for card-based certification regarding the same bargaining unit as to which another labor organization's earlier such petition is pending. If the petitions are filed within 10 days of one another, both will be processed and a secret ballot election will be conducted in the unlikely event that both petitions are determined to have majority card support. A petition filed more than 10 days after the filing of an earlier petition regarding the same unit, will not be processed until the processing of the earlier petition is completed, and then only if the earlier petition is dismissed. (s. ERC 29.07 (3)).

- Gives certification based on authorization card majority the same effect as a certification based on secret ballot election. (s. ERC 29.07 (5)).

- Provides for WERC release of the numbers of bargaining unit employees and of valid cards counted. (s. ERC 29.04 (2) (b)).

- Specifies that post-determination objections procedures are available regarding objections to the conduct of the WERC's administrative determination as to the existence of an authorization card majority or to conduct affecting the results of the WERC's determination. (s. ERC 29.05).

- Prohibits disclosure of the cards or the names of employees signing cards unless objections cannot be fairly resolved without such disclosure. (s. ERC 29.06 (1)).

In response to the 2009 Act 28 repeal of the Qualified Economic Offer and replacement of special provisions regarding bargaining units of school district professional employees with special provisions regarding bargaining units of all school district employees, the title and scope of ch. ERC 32 has been expanded to include disputes involving school district employees, and the references to arbitral criteria in s. ERC 32.15 (8) have been modified accordingly. The title and scope of ERC 33 and 33 Appendix have also been revised. As a result, ch. ERC 32 will be the chapter generally applicable as regards municipal sector disputes that do not involve law enforcement or fire-fighting personnel, with chs. ERC 33 and 33 Appendix applying only to petitions concerning school district professional employee collective bargaining agreements covering periods ending June 30, 2009. (ss. ERC 32.01 and 33.01, ch. ERC 33 Appendix caption)

Chapter ERC 40 regarding the ad hoc roster and ch. ERC 50 regarding labor-management cooperation services have been updated to include references to the newly-enacted FASLRA. (ss. ERC 40.01 and 50.01).

New chs. ERC 60-68 have been created to provide procedures relating to the newly-enacted FASLRA. Because FASLRA essentially replicated SELRA in many respects, the new chapters replicate the corresponding existing chs. ERC 30-38 concerning SELRA procedures.

In response to the 2009 Act 28 repeal of the Qualified Economic Offer and replacement of special provisions regarding bargaining units of school district professional employees with special provisions regarding bargaining units of all school district employees, the title and scope of ch. ERC 32 has been expanded to include disputes involving school district employees, and the references to arbitral criteria in s. ERC 32.15 (8) have been modified accordingly. The title and scope of ERC 33 and 33 Appendix have also been revised. As a result, ch. ERC 32 will be the chapter generally applicable as regards municipal sector disputes that do not involve law enforcement or fire-fighting personnel, with chs. ERC 33 and 33 Appendix applying only to petitions concerning school district professional employee collective bargaining agreements covering periods ending June 30, 2009. (ss. ERC 32.01 and 33.01, ch. ERC 33 Appendix caption)
Chapters ERC 40 regarding the ad hoc roster and 50 regarding labor-management cooperation services have been updated to include references to the newly-enacted FASLRA. (ss. ERC 40.01 and 50.01).

New chs. ERC 60-68 have been created to provide procedures relating to the newly-enacted FASLRA. Because FASLRA essentially replicated SELRA in all respects, the new chapters replicate the corresponding existing chs. ERC 30-38 concerning SELRA procedures.

ACCESS TO REVISED FORMS

The Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission is modifying, as needed, its existing forms and its website table of forms to accommodate the changes reflected in these proposed rules. The modified forms and form table can be obtained through the Commission's website at <http://werc.wi.gov>, by mail at P.O. Box 7870 Madison, Wisconsin 53707-7870, by fax at (608) 266-6930, by telephone at (608) 266-1381 or in person at 1457 East Washington Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin.

NEED FOR PROPOSED RULES

These proposed rules are needed to: (1) correct errors/omissions/internal inconsistencies made during the WERC's comprehensive 2006 rules review/revision; (2) conform to changes in WEPA, MERA and SELRA, including the repeal of the MERA Qualified Economic Offer provisions, and the establishment of UW-research assistant bargaining unit representation based on an authorization card majority in lieu of a secret ballot election; (3) establish procedures for the general and specific administration of the newly created FAFSRA which are consistent and parallel with the procedures for administration of all statutes administered by the Commission relating to complaint, election, unit clarification, declaratory ruling, grievance arbitration, fact-finding, mediation and union security proceedings.

BASIS AND PURPOSE OF PROPOSED RULES

These proposed rules seek to give effect to recent changes in WEPA, MERA and SELRA and to the recent creation of FAFSRA in ways that promote the ability of parties to easily and effectively use the services of the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission and thereby enhance the Commission's ability to fulfill its statutory purpose of seeking and improving labor peace among unions, employers and employees in Wisconsin.

ERC 29.03 Withdrawal of petition. Any petition may be withdrawn at any time prior to the issuance of a final order based on it, by motion granted by the commission. A motion to withdraw shall be granted unless withdrawal would result in an injustice to any party.

ERC 29.04 Commission action on petition. (1) SERVICE OF PETITION. Upon receipt of a petition, the commission shall serve a copy of the petition on all interested parties identified in the petition.

(2) DETERMINATION OF AUTHORIZATION CARD MAJORITY. (a) The commission shall determine whether the authorization cards, signed within one year of the filing of the petition, are sufficient to constitute a majority of the employees in the bargaining unit involved.

(b) Furnishing of employee list by employer. The employer involved shall, within 14 days, furnish in writing to the commission a list containing the names of the employees, in alphabetical order, employed in the collective bargaining unit involved during the payroll period which includes the date the petition was filed. For good cause shown, the commission may extend the time for furnishing a list of employees or establish a different date or dates when an employee must have been employed to be included on the list.

(c) Determination. The commission shall determine the sufficiency of the authorization cards upon the receipt from the employer of the names of the employees in the bargaining unit. Except as provided in s. ERC 29.06 (1), no party, other than the party submitting the authorization cards to the commission, may receive a copy of, or examine, the authorization cards. The commission shall inform all parties as to its determination whether the authorization cards are sufficient to constitute a majority of the employees in the bargaining unit involved. The commission shall also provide all parties with a tally specifying the number of employees in the collective bargaining unit, the total number of cards submitted in support of the petition, and the number of valid authorization cards.

ERC 29.05 Objections to determination. (1) FILING; FORM; COPIES. Within 8 days after the commission's issuance of its determination and tally, any party may file with the commission objections to the conduct of the determination or to conduct affecting the results of the determination. Objections shall be in writing and shall include the signature or a facsimile of the signature of the party or representative filing the objections. The objections shall contain a brief statement of facts upon which the objections are based. A statement of objections is not filed unless it contains the required signature or signature facsimile and unless and until it has been actually received by the commission at its Madison office during normal business hours specified in s. ERC 10.06 (1). The objections shall be transmitted to the commission as set forth in s. ERC 10.06 (1). If the objections are filed in paper form, a total of two copies of the objections shall be included.

(2) SERVICE ON OTHER PARTIES. The party filing objections shall, at the same time, serve each of the other parties with a copy as set forth in s. ERC 10.07.

ERC 29.06 Commission action on objections. (1) HEARING. If the objections potentially affect the determination outcome and raise a substantial question which cannot be resolved without a hearing, the commission may issue and serve a notice of hearing concerning the issues to be resolved. Practice and procedure for hearings on objections shall be as set forth in ss. ERC 18.06 to 18.08, except that authorization cards submitted in support of the petition shall not be disclosed to anyone other than the petitioner unless one or more objections cannot be fairly resolved without such disclosure.

(2) AFTER HEARING. (a) As soon as possible after submission of the case, the commission shall, in writing, either sustain or overrule each objection.

(b) If the commission's resolution of the objections affects the previously issued determination or tally, the commission shall issue a revised determination and tally.

(c) If the commission overrules all objections, it shall promptly issue a certification of the results of the determination as provided in s. ERC 29.07.

ERC 29.07 Certification of results of determination. (1) WHEN ISSUED. If no timely objections are filed, or after disposition of any timely-filed objections, the commission shall issue a certification of the results of its determination based on authorization cards.

(2) CONTENTS. The certification shall either certify the petitioner as exclusive representative of the bargaining unit involved or dismiss the petition.

(3) EFFECT OF COMPETING PETITION. (a) Petitions filed 10 or fewer days later. If one or more competing petitions for certification by authorization card majority regarding the same bargaining unit are filed within 10 days of the filing of a petition, each of the petitions will be processed. If more than one of the petitions would support the certification of a representative, then the commission shall direct a secret ballot election to determine the representation of the bargaining unit involved.

(b) Petitions filed more than 10 days later. If a competing petition for certification by authorization card majority is filed more than ten days after the filing of a petition regarding the same bargaining unit, the later-filed petition will be processed only if and when the earlier-filed petition is dismissed. If the earlier-filed petition results in certification of a representative, the later-filed petition will be dismissed without being processed.

(4) EFFECT ON PENDING PETITION FOR ELECTION. The processing of a petition for certification by authorization card majority shall take precedence over the processing of a petition for an election regarding the same bargaining unit. If a petition for certification by authorization card majority is filed during the pendency of a petition for election regarding the same bargaining unit, the processing of the election petition shall be held in abeyance until the processing of the petition for certification by authorization card majority has been completed. If the petition for certification by authorization card majority results in the certification of a representative, the petition for election will be dismissed.

(5) EFFECT OF CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVE. A certification of representative based on authorization card majority shall have the same effect as provided in s. 111.83 (1), Stats., for a certification of representative based on a secret ballot election. A representative certified based on authorization card majority shall be subject to a change or discontinuance of representation as provided in s. 111.83 (6), Stats., for a representative certified on the basis of a secret ballot election.

ERC 29.08 Petition for rehearing. Any person aggrieved by a final order of the commission may, within 20 days after service of the order, file a written petition for rehearing which shall specify in detail the grounds for the relief sought and supporting authorities. If, at the time of the exchange of final offers or during any additional time permitted by the investigator, no objection is raised that either final offer contains a proposal relating to a non-mandatory subject of bargaining, the commission or investigator shall serve the parties ~~by~~ as set forth in s. ERC 10.07, a written notice that the investigation is closed. The commission or investigator shall not close the investigation until the commission or investigator is satisfied that neither party, having knowledge of the content of the final offer of the other party, would amend any proposal contained in its final offer and that both final offers conform to the requirements of s. ERC 32.10 (2). If a party fails to submit a single ultimate final offer within the time prescribed by the commission or investigator, the commission or investigator shall close the investigation based on the last written position of the party. SUMMARY OF PUBLIC COMMENTS AND WERC RESPONSES

COMMENTS OFFERED DURING PUBLIC HEARING AT WERC MADISON OFFICE ON MARCH 11, 2010
Timothy Hawks , Legal Counsel for AFT-Wisconsin
The portion of ERC 29.02 (3) (b) requiring the statutory bargaining unit description to be included on the authorization card should be eliminated. The unit description would unnecessarily add to the contents of the card without a significant purpose being served by doing so.	We have adopted this suggestion. However, we have added a requirement that the card specify the employee's campus as well as the employee's department. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b), (3) (b) 1., and (3) (c))
The portions of ERC 29.02 (3) (g) requiring specification of the time and place the worker signs the card should be eliminated. Those requirements are likely to be intimidating to potential signatories,	We have adopted this suggestion. We have removed all requirements for specification of the time or place of signature. We are persuaded that thereby unnecessarily discouraging them from signing cards. The time and place information would not be helpful in resolving claims of fraud, nor would that information serve any other useful purpose.	the limited value that information would have in the event of a dispute regarding card validity is outweighed by the potentially chilling effect the requirement would have on employees being solicited. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) and (c))

The rules should include a model card that labor organizations could pattern their cards after to be certain that their cards are consistent with the requirements of ch. 29.	We have adopted this suggestion by adding a model card. The model card is described as an optional alternative to any other card that meets the enumerated requirements. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) and (c))
Norman Holsinger -- AFT Senior Representative
WERC should streamline the authorization card requirements and include a model card, along the lines of the following card used in Massachusetts:	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
WRITTEN MAJORITY AUTHORIZATION CARD I, (PRINT OR TYPE FULL NAME) _____, designate (PRINT OR TYPE OF NAME OF EMPLOYEE ORGANIZATION) _____ as my representative for the purposes of collective bargaining. I certify that this designation is my free act and deed and is given without consideration. (SIGNATURE) _____ (DATE) _____	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
The provision affirming workers' rights to sign cards for more than one labor organization should be eliminated. That provision seems inherently inconsistent with the concept of exclusivity of the named organization's status. In effect, it disorganizes the workers being organized.	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
Burdening the card with unnecessary information requirements and textual content is likely to make the employee feel uncomfortable about signing the card even if the employee favors union representation by the named labor organization.	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
Peter Rickman , Co-President, Teaching Assistants' Association, AFT #3220

WERC has commendably used other states' experience in fashioning ch. ERC 29. However, some of the content requirements for authorization cards go beyond the norms reflected in other states' rules, and are unnecessary, onerous, distracting and potentially intimidating to workers.	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
Authorization cards should be as simple as possible to avoid having their contents and requirements distract from the merits of discussions about unionization between organizers and workers. Unnecessary card content requirements are inherently intimidating and coercive of workers. Required inclusion of various unnecessary statements as to the worker's understandings, conveys the idea that signing a card is somehow unusual or potentially harmful to the worker's interests, and that a worker would be well advised to err on the side of caution by not signing.	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
Requiring the time and location of signature is onerous, unnecessary and intimidating. No other states have such requirements. If those requirements become a part of the Wisconsin rules, some workers are likely to choose not to sign a card because of fear that they could later be criticized or disciplined for engaging in union-related activities at the workplace and/or during the employee's work hours. If intended to prevent fraud, those requirements are unnecessarily duplicative of other protections elsewhere in the rules, and would not serve that purpose in any event.	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
C. J. Tolani -- AFT-WI Representative and UW-Milwaukee graduate student
Time and place of signature requirements should be eliminated. Requiring time and place of signature will intimidate workers fearful of employer reprisals for discussing union business on work time or employer premises, and thereby cause employees not to sign cards. That potential harm to worker free choice outweighs any useful purpose served by those requirements.	(see responses to Timothy Hawks' public hearing and written comments)
Requiring that the worker's name be printed would	We have adopted this suggestion.

be a useful improvement.	(see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) 1.)
WRITTEN COMMENTS RECEIVED BY WERC
Timothy Hawks -- March 15, 2010 written comments on behalf of AFT-Wisconsin and two of its affiliates, the Teaching Assistants' Association and the Milwaukee Graduate Assistants' Association.
Delete the last sentence of Section 29.02(3)(b) which reads: "The statement shall include the statutory definition of the bargaining unit involved." The requirement may not be necessary as there is little room for confusion among the three bargaining units described by the statute. The elimination of this sentence simplifies the card.	(see responses above to Timothy Hawks' public hearing comments)
Delete the phrase in Section 29.02(3)(e) which reads: " ... , but that signing the card does not prevent the research assistant from signing another such card supporting representation by another labor organization." As AFT National Representative Norm Holsinger testified, this statement undercuts the "exclusive" representational status of a labor organization. It tends to "disorganize" the bargaining unit.	We have removed the requirement that the authorization card include information regarding how long the card remains effective, that it may not be revoked and that signing one organization's card does not prevent the employee from signing that supporting another labor organization. However, we have retained the substance of those provisions elsewhere in s. ERC 29.02 (3). We prefer a procedure that allows an employee to sign cards supporting more than one labor organization, rather than attempting to develop procedures for revocation of cards and of counting only the earliest or latest as valid. We think it is possible that an employee might favor having either of two organizations as the exclusive representative of the bargaining unit involved. Honoring those preferences is not inconsistent with the notion that, if any organization attains representative status, that status would be as the exclusive representative of the bargaining unit. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (d) and (e))

Delete the phrase in Section 29.02(3)(g) which reads: " ... , time and place (building/street address and city)". During the course of discussion at the hearing the AFT witnesses noted that they did not object to identification of the city as the place of signature, but that a detailed specification of the "time" and the "building/street address" of the person asked to sign the card would have the consequence of chilling participation in the. process, intimidating in its detail, for little practical benefit in terms of establishing the authenticity of the signature.	(see responses above to Timothy Hawks' public hearing comments)
Add an example of an acceptable card as part of the rules. An example of a card used in Massachusetts and identified by that Board as acceptable may be found at http://www.mass.gov/Elwd/docs/dlr/forns/written_majority_authorization_card.pdf.	(see responses above to Timothy Hawks' public hearing comments)
Written comments of Kurt Kobelt, Director, Legal Department, Wisconsin Education Association Council, Madison -- dated February 12, 2010
Please accept this as WEAC's comments in response to the notice of proposed rule changes scheduled for a public hearing on March 11, 2010, which also solicited written comments.
We question whether it is necessary to establish an entirely new ERC 34 which largely incorporates ERC 32 by reference. It would be more appropriate to make modest changes to ERC 32 to reflect application to school district employees.	We have adopted this suggestion. We have adjusted ch. ERC 32 (title) and ss. ERC 32.01 and 32.15 (8) as needed to accommodate the broadened scope of ch. ERC 32.
With respect to ERC 33, we are aware of only a small number of open contracts that have expired before July 1, 2009. It would be appropriate to insert some sunset language indicating the chapter is no longer operative by some date certain, e.g., two years and the proceed to remove it. Otherwise, this chapter will remain on the books long after it has any application.	We have not adopted this suggestion at this time. We do not believe we have the statutory authority to establish a date after which the open contracts that would have expired before July 1, 2009, must be entered into. When it becomes clear that there are no such open contracts, the Commission would be amenable to

	repeal of ch. ERC 33.
The proposed card check procedures also depart from well-established procedures for verifying authorization cards in the private sector under the NLRA in several respects. Private sector authorization cards typically utilize the language set forth in ERC 29.02(3)(a) and (b) but not (c) and (d). The NLRB can order recognition based upon such authorization cards alone under Gissell where egregious employer misconduct makes a fair rerun election impossible to conduct. In these cases, the NLRB does not require any showing that employees were aware that the card may be used to achieve recognition without an election as proposed under (c). Nor is there any requirement of a showing that the card be signed freely and without coercion for the card to be used to impose a bargaining obligation. We see no reason why these rather paternalistic requirements should be imposed here.	We have not removed the requirement of a statement that the card has been signed freely and without coercion. We consider that requirement to be an appropriate means of promoting free choice by employees. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) 3. and (3) (c)) Regarding the objection to requiring a card statement about the use that may be made of the card, we have required that cards contain a statement that reads, "I understand that such representation may be based upon a majority of authorization cards without an election." We think that language promotes informed employee choice by simply conveying the card majority concept free of additional potentially confusing legal terminology. (see ss. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) 3. and (3) (c)) We have removed the requirement that the authorization card include information regarding how long the card remains effective, that it may not be revoked and that signing one organization's card does not prevent the employee from signing that supporting another labor organization. However, we have retained the substance of those provisions elsewhere in s. ERC 29.02 (3). (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (d) and (e))

Written comments of Alan N. Crist, UW-System Associate Vice President for Human Resources and Workforce Diversity -- submitted March 22, 2010
UW System's comments are as follows:
The proposed rules would require research assistants' authorization cards to include the statutory definition of the bargaining unit involved. AFT views this requirement as unnecessary. The UW System believes this requirement should be retained.	We have not adopted this change, but we have added a requirement that the authorization card identify not only the employee's department but also the employee's campus. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b), and (3) (b) 1., and (3) (c))
The proposed rules would require research assistants' authorization cards to include the date, time and place of signature. AFT opposes including time and place of signature on the card. The UW System concurs with AFT's comments; time and place of signature are unnecessary.	We have adopted this suggestion. We have removed all requirements for specification of the time or place of signature. We are persuaded that the limited value that information would have in the event of a dispute regarding card validity is outweighed by the potentially chilling effect the requirement would have on employees being solicited. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) and (c))
Under the proposed rules, signing an authorization card does not prevent a research assistant from signing another card supporting representation by another labor organization. AFT opposes this requirement. The UW System believes that this requirement should be retained to protect research assistants' freedom to choose their collective bargaining representatives. Signing one card should not constrain research assistants' ability to change their mind on the issue of representation.	We have retained the objected to concept in the rules, but we have removed the provision that required it to be set forth on the authorization card. (see s. ERC 29.02 (b), (d) and (e))
AFT supports inclusion of a model authorization card in the rules. The UW System supports this proposal.	We have adopted this suggestion by adding a model card. The model card is described as an optional alternative to any other card that meets the enumerated requirements. (see s.

	ERC 29.02 (3) (b) and (c))
A March 9, 2010 Associated Press article states that WEAC has objected to including a statement on the authorization card making the research assistant aware that the authorization card may be used to support a petition for certification based on an authorization card majority without a secret ballot election being conducted. The UW System objects to removing this requirement. The certification of a labor organization as the research assistants' representative based on a card majority is new and unique in state labor relations. As a result, there is likely to be some confusion about the effect of signing a card. It is imperative that individuals asked to sign cards fully understand how their authorization can be used.	Regarding requiring a card statement about the use that may be made of the card, we have required that cards contain a statement that reads, "I understand that such representation may be based upon a majority of authorization cards without an election." We think that language promotes informed employee choice by simply conveying the card majority concept free of additional potentially confusing legal terminology. (see ss. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) 3. and (3) (c))
ERC 29.04 (2) (a) requires the employer to furnish a list containing the names of the employees employed in the bargaining unit during the "payroll period which includes the date the petition was filed." While this language works well for annual employees, it is not suitable for employee groups that work on both a 9-month and 12-month basis. The number of research assistants on the payroll during the summer months (June, July and August) is substantially lower than the number employed during the academic year. Using a list of research assistants employed in the summer will disenfranchise those research assistants who work only during the academic year. We respectfully propose the following change to ERC 29.04 (2) (a). The employer involved shall, within 14 calendar days or other period established by the commission, furnish in writing to the commission a list containing the names of the employees, in alphabetical order, employed in the collective bargaining unit involved during the payroll period which includes the date the petition was filed unless the petition is submitted outside the nine-month academic year i.e., summer months (June, July, and August). If the	We have not adopted the specific language proposed, but we have added language stating that, for good cause shown, the commission may establish a different date or dates when an employee must have been employed to be included on the list than the default standard of "during the payroll period which includes the date the petition was filed." (see s. ERC 29.04 (2) (b)) .

petition is submitted after the last day of one academic year and before the first day of the next academic year, the employer will furnish a list containing the names of the employees, in alphabetical order, employed in the collective bargaining unit involved during the last payroll period of the prior academic year. The period of time for furnishing a list of employees may be extended by the commission for good cause shown.
ERC 61.05 refers to ERC 11.05 for the Commission pre-hearing action on petition procedures. ERC 11.05 is not as specific as ERC 29.04 (2) (a) regarding the time period for furnishing the list that determines the bargaining unit members eligible to vote. As with research assistants, the number of faculty and academic staff on the payroll in the summer is substantially lower than those on payroll during the academic year. Using a list of faculty and academic staff on the payroll in the summer will disenfranchise those faculty and academic staff who work only during the academic year. We respectfully request that ERC 61.05 be modified with the language below to include a specific procedure for furnishing the employee list. Notwithstanding ERC 61.05, the employer involved shall, within 14 calendar days or other period established by the commission, furnish in writing to the commission a list containing the names of the employees, in alphabetical order,	We have not adopted this suggestion. It is true that we have included in the unique ch. ERC 29 card majority procedures some more specific default provisions regarding the time period for furnishing the list and the standard for determining when an employee must have been employed to be included on the list. However, we find it more appropriate to apply to FAFSRA elections the less specific s. ERC 11.05 (2) (a) provisions that are applicable to all elections conducted under MERA, SELRA and WEPA. Maintaining the administrative flexibility afforded by those less specific standards is preferable to adopting the more specific standards proposed in the comment.

If the petition is submitted after the last day of one academic year and before the first day of the next academic year, the employer will furnish a list containing the names of the employees, in alphabetical order, employed in the collective bargaining unit involved during the last payroll period of the prior academic year. The period of time for furnishing a list of employees may be extended by the commission for good cause shown.
Timothy Hawks -- supplemental written comments dated 3-26-10
I write on behalf of AFT-Wisconsin, the Teaching Assistants' Association and the Milwaukee Graduate Assistants Association to respond to the comments made by Al Crist, Associate Vice President for Human Resources. Please know that the labor organizations agree with Mr. Crist's remarks except as follows:

The UW System argues that the requirement that the cards include the "statutory definition of the bargaining unit involved" be retained but offers no reason for doing so. The labor organizations repeat that they are interested in keeping the cards as simple and direct as possible. The Research Assistants in anyone of the three bargaining units affected by this legislation can be reasonably expected to know which one they are in; It is self-evident. Under the proposed rules, signing an authorization card does not prevent a Research Assistant from signing another card supporting representation by another labor organization. AFT opposes this requirement.	We have adopted this suggestion. However, we have added a requirement that the card specify the employee's campus as well as the employee's department. (see s. ERC 29.02 (3) (b), (3) (b) 1., and (3) (c))

The UW System 'believes that the rule specifically allowing RA's to sign cards for more than one bargaining agent should be retained to protect research assistants' freedom to choose their collective bargaining representatives. The labor organizations agree with UW's reasoning, but insist that the 'freedom' is exercised when a Research Assistant signs a card. In any event, if the WERC permits the proposed rule to stand, then further clarification is appropriate. Does the first organization receive notice of the second signature? Will the signature "count" for both organizations? Is there a limit on the number of cards an RA may sign?

We have retained the objected to concept, but we have removed the requirement that it be set forth on the authorization card. We prefer a procedure that allows an employee to sign cards supporting more than one labor organization, rather than attempting to develop procedures for revocation of cards and of counting only the earliest or latest as valid. We think it is possible that an employee might favor having either of two organizations as the exclusive representative of the bargaining unit involved. Honoring those preferences is not inconsistent with the notion that, if any organization attains representative status, that status would be as the exclusive representative of the bargaining unit.

In response to the requests for further clarification: No, the first organization does not receive notification of WERC's receipt of a second signature. Yes, the signature will count for both organizations. No, there is no limit on the number of cards a research assistant may sign.

The University writes, in response to WEAC's position opposing inclusion of a statement on the card that the signature can be used to determine representation without an election, that: "The certification of a labor organization as the research assistants' representative based on a card majority is new and unique in state labor relations." This is factually incorrect. Seventeen states have card check representation procedures, and one, New York, has had them since the passage of the Wagner Act. The last representation election among state employees in the State of Wisconsin was years ago; and the last one involving any UW employees was more than a decade ago. It is doubtful that any RA's have an erroneous opinion about the significance of the card based upon their understanding of prior labor relations representation procedures in Wisconsin. Research Assistants can be reasonably expected to require the employer and the labor organizations to explain to them the significance of signing a card. Again the labor organizations' interest is to keep these card as simple and as clear as possible.	Regarding requiring a card statement about the use that may be made of the card, we have required that cards contain a statement that reads, "I understand that such representation may be based upon a majority of authorization cards without an election." We think that language best promotes informed employee choice by simply conveying the card majority concept free of additional potentially confusing legal terminology. (see ss. ERC 29.02 (3) (b) 3. and (3) (c))

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL CLEARINGHOUSE REPORT

CLEARINGHOUSE RULE 10-019
Comments dated March 9, 2010
[NOTE: All citations to "Manual" in the comments below are to the Administrative Rules Procedures Manual, prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau and the Legislative Council Staff, dated September 2008.]
2. Form, Style and Placement in Administrative Code
a. In the introductory clause, the rule sections treated by the proposed rule should be specifically identified, and a comma should be inserted before "relating." [so 1.02 (1), Manual.] b. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, a change to s. ERC 50.04 (4) is described under the subsection titled "Changes Specific to Particular Chapters." However, s. ERC 50.04 (4) does not appear in the proposed rule. c. In the rule preface comparison of the rule with rules in adjacent states, the crossreference in the answer to question 7 appears to be incorrect.

d. The rule text should be paginated.
e. The SECTIONS in the proposed rule should be arranged in the numerical order of the rule section treated in each SECTION. For example, the treatments in SECTIONS 16 to 21 should be placed after the treatment in SECTION 26, and the treatments in SECTIONS 22 to 25 should be placed after the treatment in SECTION 27. [s. 1.04 (1), Manual.]
f. In SECTION I, it appears that the following rule sections are included in the treatment but do not include "procedures" in their text: ss. ERC 9.10, 25.05, and 26.10.
g. In SECTION 3, the text of the rule should begin with "ERC 8.01 Scope." Similarly, the text in SECTION 7 should begin with "ERC 10.06 (5) SIGNATURE FACSIMILE." SECTIONS 3 to 25 should be reviewed for correcting this problem, where appropriate.
h. In SECTIONS 3 and 21, the period at the end of each section should not be underscored; they are in the text of the current rule; [so 1.06, Manual.]
i. The agency should review SECTIONS 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16,22, and 24 to ensure that the text of the proposed rule sections accurately reflects the text in the current rule. For example, many of the current rule sections treated in the above-referenced SECTIONS contain commas and additional text that are not reflected in the proposed rule.
j. In SECTION 19, "at" on the first line should not be underscored; it is in the text of the current rule. [so 1.06, Manual.]
k. In SECTION 22, " and state and UW system faculty and academic staff " should replace " and state and UW system faculty and academic staff. " [The comma should be underscored; s. 1.06, Manual.]
l. In SECTION 24, "arbitration" should be underscored. [s; 1.06, Manual.]
m. In s. ERC 29.04 (2), the introductory material should be renumbered as par. (a) and the remaining paragraphs should be renumbered accordingly. [See also s. ERC 29.06 (2).]
n. In SECTION 27, the title of s. ERC 34.07 does not match the title in the chapter introduction.
o. In SECTION 27, the text in s. ERC 34.08 should not be underscored. [s. 1.06, Manual.]
p. In s. ERC 60.02, the word "should" should be replaced by the word "shall."
q. In s. ERC 60.04, the word "given" should be inserted after the phrase "have the meaning as."
r. In SECTION 29, s. ERC 61.07 should not contain a subsection because subsections should only be created when at least two subsections are created. [so 1.03 (1), Manual.]
s. In the effective date section, does the agency want the effective date to be July 1, 2010, or the first day of the month following publication? The agency should clarify this.

4. Adequacy of References to Related Statutes, Rules and Forms
a. In the statutes interpreted section of the rule summary, a period should follow any reference to a subdivision or subdivision paragraph. For example, "s. 111.02 (7) (a) 4." should replace "s. 111.02 (7) (a) 4." [See s. 1.03 (1) (c), Manual.] In addition, "Stats." should be inserted at the end of the series of statutory references in the introductory clause. [so 1.07 (2), Manual.]
b. In the statutes interpreted section of the rule summary, should "111.92 (1) (a)" replace "111.91 (1)(a)"?
c. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, "ch. 111, Stats." should replace "Chapter 111, Stats." in the first paragraph. [s. 1.07 (2), Manual.]
d. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, "s. 111.02 (7m) and (9m), Stats." should replace "ss. 111.02 (7m) and (9m), Stats." in the first paragraph under the subsection titled "Changes Specific to Particular Chapters." [so 1.07, Manual.]
e. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, "s. 111.81 (17m), Stats." should replace "s. 111.81 (7m), Stats;" in the fourth paragraph under the subsection titled "Changes Specific to Particular Chapters."
f. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, "s. ERC 29.02 (5) (b)" should replace "s. ERC 29.02 (4) (b)" in the eighth paragraph under the subsection titled "Changes Specific to Particular Chapters."
g. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, "Chapter ERC 40" should replace "Chapters ERC 40" and "ch. ERC 50" should replace "50" in the second-to-last paragraph in the subsection titled "Changes Specific to Particular Chapters." [See also the second-to-last page of the other states comparison; s. 1.07, Manual.]
h. In SECTION 27, "s. ERC 34.18" should replace "s. ERC 34.18 (1)" in s. ERC 34.10 (1).
i. In SECTION 27, "s." should be inserted before "ERC 32.17" in s. ERC 34.17. [s. 1.07, Manual.]
j. In SECTION 28, references to ch. ERC 60 should instead reference "this chapter." [so 1.07, Manual.]
k. In SECTION 28, "chs. ERC 40 and 50" should replace "chs. 40 and 50" in s. ERC 60.01. [so 1.07, Manual.]
l. In SECTION 29, "s." should be inserted before "111.98 (5), Stats." in s. ERC 61.01. [so 1.07, Manual.] The same comment applies to s. ERC 63.01 in SECTION 31; s. ERC 64.01 in SECTION 32; s. ERC 65.01 in SECTION 33; and s. ERC 67.01 in SECTION 35.
m. Section ERC 66.02 (3) references a form provided by the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission. The requirements of s. 227.14 (3), Stats., should be met.

5. Clarity. Grammar. Punctuation and Use of Plain Language
a. In the plain language analysis of the rule summary, "to" should be inserted between "changes" and "Subchapters I, IV and V" in the first paragraph.
b. In the place where comments are to be submitted section of the rule summary, the "0" in the phone number following "608" should be replaced with a hyphen.
c. In the title to ch. ERC 8 and in s. ERC 8.01, the appropriate phrase with respect to daycare providers is "an employer of a day care provider under s. 111.02 (7) (a) 4., Stats." In the chapter title, the notations "s." and "(a)" both should be in lowercase.
d. In s. ERC 29.01, the word "shall" should be replaced by the word "does."
e. In SECTION 26, "and" should replace "but" in s. ERC 29.02 (,3) (e).
f. In SECTION 26, "(e)" should replace "e)" in s. ERC 29.02 (4) (e). [so 1.03 (1) (c), Manual.]
g. Section ERC 29.05 (1) refers to "eight days," while s. ERC 29.07 (3) (b) refers to "10 calendar days." Contrasting the two provisions, a reader might conclude that the reference in s. ERC 29.05 (1) is to business days. The normal practice in statutory drafting is that a reference to days refers to calendar days and that a specific reference to business days will be used when necessary.
h. In SECTION 27, "chapter" should replace "chapter" in s. ERC 34.07.
i. In SECTION 28, a period should be inserted at the end of the text in s. ERC 60.06.
j. In SECTION 34, "agreement" should be inserted between "fair-share" and "may" in s. ERC 66.02 (2) (b).
k. In SECTION 34, references to maintenance of membership agreements should be removed in ss. ERC 66.02 (2) (b) and 66.10 (2) (a).
l. In SECTION 34, "2" should replace "two" in s. ERC 66.02 (3).
m. In SECTION 36, a period should be inserted at the end of the text in s. ERC 68.09.

RESPONSE TO LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS

The Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission has adopted all of the Legislative Council Staff recommendations in the table above, except for those listed in the table below.

2. Form, Style and Placement in Administrative
---	--

Code
h. In SECTION 27, "s. ERC 34.18" should replace "s. ERC 34.18 (1)" in s. ERC 34.10 (1).	This correction became unnecessary because proposed ch. ERC 34 has been eliminated and incorporated into existing ch. ERC 32.
i. In SECTION 27, "s." should be inserted before "ERC 32.17" in s. ERC 34.17. [s. 1.07, Manual.]	This correction became unnecessary because proposed ch. ERC 34 has been eliminated and incorporated into existing ch. ERC 32.
n. In SECTION 27, the title of s. ERC 34.07 does not match the title in the chapter introduction.	This correction became unnecessary because proposed ch. ERC 34 has been eliminated and incorporated into existing ch. ERC 32.
o. In SECTION 27, the text in s. ERC 34.08 should not be underscored. [s. 1.06, Manual.]	This correction became unnecessary because proposed ch. ERC 34 has been eliminated and incorporated into existing ch. ERC 32.
4. Adequacy of References to Related Statutes. Rules and Forms
j. In SECTION 28, references to ch. ERC 60 should instead reference "this chapter." [so 1.07, Manual.]	j. We have not adopted this proposed change. To change "60" to "this chapter" in any of the five instances in proposed s. ERC 60.01 would be unnecessarily confusing to the reader. To avoid that confusion, we have retained the treatment paralleling that used in ss. ERC 1.01, 10.01 and 20.01.
5. Clarity. Grammar. Punctuation and Use of Plain Language
h. In SECTION 27, "chapter" should replace "chaapter" in s. ERC 34.07.	This correction became unnecessary because proposed ch. ERC 34 has been eliminated and incorporated into existing ch. ERC 32.
