PROPOSED ORDER

An order of the Real Estate Examining Board to consider an order to repeal chs. REEB 22 and 26; and amend ss. REEB 11.01 (intro.), 11.02 (intro.) 12.04 (1) (intro.), 12.04(2) (intro.) and 25.065 (1) and (Note), relating to apprentices and inactive licenses.

Analysis prepared by the Department of Safety and Professional Services.

ANALYSIS

Statutes interpreted: ss. 452.07 (1) and (1m), Stats.

Statutory authority: ss. 15.08 (5) (b), 227.11 (2), 452.07 (1m), and 452.12 (6) (a), Stats.

Explanation of agency authority: Examining boards are generally authorized by ss. 15.08 (5) (b) and 227.11 (2) (a), Stats., to promulgate rules for its own guidance and for guidance within the profession and to promulgate rules interpreting any statute enforced or administered by it. Under s. 452.07 (1m), Stats., the board shall advise the secretary on rulemaking relating to licensees and promulgate rules for the guidance of the real estate profession and define professional conduct and unethical practice. Section 452.12 (6) (a), Stats., sunset on October 31, 1995; it states that: “Any licensee, except a time-share salesperson registered under s. 452.025, may apply for registration as an inactive licensee on or before the license renewal date. This paragraph does not apply after October 31, 1995.”

Related statute or rule: Chapters REEB 1 to 26

Plain language analysis:

In response to Executive Order 61, the Real Estate Examining Board reviewed their rules, chapters REEB 1 to 26, and identified two areas that either no longer reflected contemporary industry practices or had sunset by state statutes.

While provided through statutory authority, s. 452.12 (6) (a), Stats., an individual may apply for registration as an apprentice under a supervisory broker. In this review, it was determined that such process in ch. REEB 22, apprentices, is no longer followed in practice. Real estate brokers have the opportunity to train future license applicants as unlicensed professionals and do so in a less formal mentoring role within the guidelines of the duties of a supervising broker. The Board, therefore, chose to eliminate this chapter in its entirety.

Regarding the review of ch. REEB 26, inactive licenses, it was found that although a process was in place for recognizing inactive licenses, the agency had only received one application in the past 18 months and that license has since expired. In addition, s. 452.12 (6) (a), Stats., provided for applications for inactive licenses, this section sunset on October 31, 1995. The Board, therefore, chose to eliminate this chapter in its entirety.

SECTION 1. This section proposes various amendments related chapters in the REEB series (chs. REEB 1 to 26). Specifically proposed is to delete references to chs. REEB 22 and 26, references in the renewal sections if the individual had the status of an inactive licensee and references to s. 452.12 (6), Stats., specific to inactive licensees

SECTION 2. This section proposes to repeal both chapters REEB 22, apprentices, and REEB 26, inactive licenses.

SECTION 3. This section defines the effective date of this rule once through the rulemaking process as specified in s. 277.11 (12).

Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulation:

The federal government does not mandate licenses for active or inactive real estate brokers or salespersons; nor are there laws regarding apprenticeships in the real estate profession.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

The following information is a result of an Internet-based search of the four adjacent states.

Illinois: The state of Illinois does not license or have requirements for application as a real estate apprentice. Illinois codes and law do not provide for an inactive license. [Title 68b: professions and occupations part 1450 real estate license act of 2000]

Iowa: The state of Iowa does not license or have requirements for application as a real estate apprentice. An inactive status in Iowa is required (only) when a salesperson is no longer employed by a broker or is in the process of transferring to another broker. [543B.33]

Michigan: The state of Michigan does not license or have requirements for application as a real estate apprentice. Michigan law does not provide for inactive real estate licenses. [ch. 339, Article 25 of Public Act 299 of 1980]

Minnesota: The state of Minnesota does not license or have requirements for application as a real estate apprentice. Nothing in these state rules provide for an inactive license status. [MN Statutes 82]

Summary of factual data and analytical methodologies:

In the past year, the board reviewed their rules and found that the training of unlicensed individuals was more beneficial to future license applicants and supervising brokers than the process outlined in ch. REEB 22, apprentices. Supervising brokers are provided with such duties in s. 452.12 (3), Stats.

Analysis and supporting documents used to determine effect on small business or in preparation of economic impact analysis:

The Real Estate Examining Board was the primary source for determining the potential impacts of both the technical and administrative elements of these rules. A responsibility of the Board is to bring forth any concerns they may be aware of or have with the current requirements and with rule changes, and any concerns for any potential economic impacts from the changes. In addition, staff was consulted to provide data on the number of inactive and apprentice licenses or requests.

Fiscal Estimate and Economic Impact Analysis:

The department is currently soliciting information and advice from businesses, local government units and individuals in order to prepare the Economic Impact Analysis.

Effect on small business:

These rules are not expected to impose additional costs or other impacts on a substantial number of small businesses because the primary effect of repealing the rules is the elimination of processes not currently followed in practice or providing benefit to the profession.
