12. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

This rule will not have an economic or fiscal impact on specific businesses, business sectors, public utility rate payers, local governmental units or the State's economy as a whole.

The Department of Safety and Professional Services will have a decrease in revenues as a result of the elimination of the examination requirement for new applicants for a professional counselor license. The estimated loss of revenues will be approximately $2,250 which is based on 30 new applicants per year at a cost of $75 per exam per applicant. The Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counseling and Social Work Examining Board does not have the statutory authority to require the examination for new applicants as this requirement is more restrictive than the requirements contained in the statutory provision.
