

ORDER OF THE STATE OF WISCONSIN
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, DIVISION OF BANKING
ADOPTING RULES

- 1 The Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions, Division of Banking by this order repeals
2 and recreates ch. DFI—Bkg 74 relating to collection agencies.

Analysis Prepared by the Division of Banking

Statute(s) interpreted: ss. 218.04, 220.02(2) and 220.02(3), Stats.

Statutory authority: ss. 218.04(7)(d) and 227.11(2), Stats.

Related statute or rule: none.

Explanation of agency authority: Pursuant to ss. 218.04, 220.02(2) and 220.02(3), Stats., the department regulates collection agencies.

Summary of proposed rule: The objective of the rule is to repeal and recreate ch. DFI—Bkg 74 relating to collection agencies. The purpose of this rule is to update code provisions relating to collection agencies. Administrative code provisions regarding collection agencies have not been substantially revised or updated since 1965. In the proposed rule out-dated provisions are removed, minor technical changes are made, and the remaining provisions are streamlined to reflect current practices. These provisions regard definitions, office requirements, office relocations and material changes, agreements and acknowledgments, remittance statements, trust fund accounts, books and records, disclosure of rates in advertising, furnishing reports to creditor on written request, procedures for return or cancellation of accounts, general matters, annual reports, fair collection practice notices, use of aliases, unauthorized practice of law, oppressive and deceptive practices and use of data processing.

Summary of and preliminary comparison with existing or proposed federal regulation: there is no existing or proposed federal regulation addressing the matters set forth in the proposed rule with the exception of acts such as the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states: Michigan, Illinois and Indiana similarly regulates collection agencies. Iowa does not.

Summary of factual data and analytical methodologies: the department reviewed its regulatory practices and procedures, and met with industry groups to determine the necessary revisions.

Analysis and supporting documentation used to determine effect on small business: the rule revises or eliminates already existing requirements, and imposes no new substantial requirements or cost, thereby benefiting small business; therefore, the rule has no effect on small business.

Summary of Final Regulatory Flexibility Analysis: This proposed rule will have no adverse impact on small businesses.

Summary of Final Regulatory Flexibility Analysis: This proposed rule will have no adverse impact on small businesses.

Summary of Comments received by Legislative Review Committees: No comments were received.

38 such other business shall be kept separate from the books and records of the collection agency.

39 (b) A collection agency may share its licensed office with a practicing attorney if the attorney is 40 an employee of the collection agency. This chapter and s. 218.04, Stats., apply to an attorney 41 who shares office space under this paragraph.

42 (2) OFFICE HOURS. Every licensee shall maintain regular office hours on business days from 43 Monday through Friday and shall be open for business at least 3 hours each day between the 44 hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Whenever an office is not open for business at least 6 hours a 45 day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., a written notice shall be filed with the division
46 setting forth the schedule of office hours.

47 DFI-Bkg 74.03 Office relocations and other changes. (1) OFFICE RELOCATION. A 48 licensee shall submit to the division written notice of the licensee's contemplated change of its 49 place of business to another location inside or outside of the municipality in which it is licensed.
50 The notice shall be submitted 30 days or more prior to the date of the contemplated change.
51 Upon approval of the new location, the division shall issue an amended license, specifying the 52 date thereof and the new location.

53 (2) OTHER CHANGES. A licensee shall notify the division of any change to the information
54 provided in the licensee's renewal license application or provided in a previous notice of change
55 filed by the licensee with the division under this section. The notice shall be in writing and,
56 except in the case of a relocation, be received by the division within 10 days after the change.
57 The licensee shall provide any additional information, data, and records regarding the change to 58 the division within 20 days after the division requests the information, data or records. Any 59 change that is subject to the notice requirement shall be subject to the approval of the division.

60 In reviewing the change or relocation, the division shall apply the same criteria as the criteria for 61 approval of an original license application. Except in the case of a relocation, the division shall 62 determine the cost of investigating and processing the change. The licensee shall pay the 63 division's cost within 30 days after the division demands payment.

64 DFI-Bkg 74.04 Agreements and acknowledgments. (1) AGREEMENT WITH CREDITOR:

65 Prior to accepting accounts for collection from a creditor, the licensee shall enter into a written 66 agreement with the creditor. The agreement shall do all of the following:

67 (a) Be executed and dated by both parties.

68 (b) Indicate whether the licensee is authorized to add interest, collection charges, or fees to the 69 accounts listed for collection and identify the interest rate, charge, or fee amount.

70 (c) Identify the licensee's rate of commission. The licensee may not charge a higher 71 commission rate on interest or other charges and fees collected than is charged on the principal 72 amount unless the agreement authorizes a higher commission rate. Licensee may not retain the 73 higher rate of charge until the principal amount listed as owing has been collected in full.

74 (d) List any other fees that the creditor may be charged.

75 (e) Not permit the collection agency to charge the creditor for returning any account to the 76 creditor.

77 (2) ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Upon receipt of any account for collection, the licensee shall 78 furnish the creditor or forwarder with an acknowledgment, a duplicate or copy of which shall be 79 kept in the office of the licensee. The acknowledgment shall list the accounts by name of debtor, 80 date the account was listed, and principal amount and other charges to be collected.

81 (3) An acknowledgement containing the information required by http://folio.legis.state.wi.us/cgi-

84 not be sent to the creditor or forwarder for each listing if the creditor or forwarder provides a 85 written statement indicating their desire not to receive the acknowledgment.

86 DFI-Bkg 74.05 Remittance statement. (1) REMITTANCE STATEMENT TO BE 87 FURNISHED EACH CREDITOR. Licensee shall provide a remittance statement and remit any 88 and all money due to any and all creditors or forwarders within 30 days from the close of the 89 month during which the collection was effected as provided in s. http://folio.legis.state.wi.us/cgi-

92 statement shall set forth all of the following:

- 93 (a) Date of remittance.
- 94 (b) Debtor's name.
- 95 (c) Date of collection and amount collected from each debtor which shall include interest and 96 other charges. Attorneys fees, court costs or suit fees if paid by or charged to the creditor and 97 non-sufficient fund fees assessed by the creditor shall be included as other charges. Fees 98 permitted and collected pursuant to s. DFI—Bkg 74.11(2) (b) to (d) shall not be included as 99 other charges.
- 100 (d) Distribution of money collected from each debtor including interest and non-sufficient fund 101 fees assessed by the creditor, if any, showing the amount due the licensee as commission and the 102 amount due the creditor or forwarder.

103 (2) DUPLICATE COPY OF REMITTANCE STATEMENT TO BE RETAINED BY 104 LICENSEE. A duplicate copy of each remittance statement furnished a creditor or forwarder 105 shall be available in the office of the licensee and shall be filed by the month in which it was 106 issued either alphabetically or by claimant number.

107 DFI-Bkg 74.06 Trust fund account. Each licensee shall deposit in a trust fund account in any 108 approved financial institution promptly after collection, sufficient funds to pay all moneys due or 109 owing all creditors or forwarders. The trust fund account shall be used only for this purpose. A 110 licensee may maintain trust funds in an interest bearing savings account or instrument provided it
111 is identified as a "trust account". Sufficient funds shall be maintained in the trust account or trust 112 accounts to pay all moneys due or owing all creditors or forwarders. Sufficient funds shall be 113 maintained in or made available to the trust checking account on which remittance checks or 114 electronic debits are drawn or made to pay all checks and debits when presented. The licensee 115 shall have sufficient documentation from the trust account or trust accounts available to make an 116 adequate examination.

117 DFI-Bkg 74.07 Books and records. (1) RECORDS TO BE MAINTAINED. Every licensee 118 shall maintain in the principal licensed office adequate records which shall include but not be 119 limited to all of the following:

- 120 (a) A daily collection record or cash receipt journal in which all collections are recorded and 121 allocated as to total collections, setting forth all of the following:
- 122 1. The amount credited to principal, interest, and other charges, such other charges to include 123 non-sufficient fund fees assessed by the creditor, any fees permitted and collected pursuant to s.
124 DFI—Bkg 74.11(2)(b) to (d), attorney's fees and court costs.
 - 125 2. The amount due creditors or forwarders.

- 126 3. The amount retained as commission or commission paid to forwardees.
- 127 4. Paid directs reported and paid direct commissions received.
- 128 5. The debtor's name.
- 129 6. The date of collection.
- 130 7. The creditor's name or a code that identifies the creditor.
- 131 (b) A ledger record consisting of asset and liability accounts including a continuous record of all
- 132 physical assets such as furniture, fixtures and office equipment.
- 133 (c) A ledger record of income and expenses.
- 134 (d) A record of each debtor's account shall be maintained consisting of all of the following:
- 135 1. The name and address of the debtor, creditor, forwarder and forwarder if the account has been
- 136 forwarded.
- 137 2. The original amount listed, the principal amount owing and, if available, the date of the last
- 138 credit or debit.
- 139 3. The amount of interest, cost of legal action instituted, or other charges, if any, and a
- 140 description thereof.
- 141 4. The amount and date of each payment made by the debtor allocating moneys paid to the
- 142 amount owing, interest, costs and other charges.
- 143 5. The current balance due.
- 144 (e) Check stubs or transaction registers that disclose all debits to the trust and operating
- 145 accounts. These stubs or transaction registers shall include all of the following:
- 146 1. The date of the check or electronic debit.
- 147 2. The name of the payee.
- 148 3. The amount of the check or electronic debit.

149 4. The check number, reference number or indication that there is no check number because 150 remittance was made electronically.

151 (f) A list of all outstanding trust accounts checks, sorted by account and the date the check was 152 written. The list shall include the date the check was written, the check number, the amount of 153 the check, and the payee.

154 (g) A master alphabetical listing by name and address of every creditor or forwarder with whom 155 the licensee engages in the business of collecting accounts.

156 (h) A record of all unused prepaid collection transmittals or listing forms sold, setting forth all 157 of the following:

158 1. Name and address of the client or purchaser.

159 2. Date, number or quantity and price of transmittals or listing forms sold each client or 160 purchaser.

161 3. Number and date client or purchaser used transmittals or listing forms.

162 (i) After the bank statement has been reconciled each month, cancelled checks together with 163 voided or unused checks, adequately explained, shall be filed in numerical order. The division
164 may approve records and procedures which vary from these requirements if adequate 165 information is available for examination purposes.

166 (2) RECEIPT REQUIREMENT. (a) Whenever a payment is received from a debtor, forwarder 167 or other person, a receipt showing the date the payment was received shall be prepared and 168 furnished to the debtor except when other positive evidence of a receipt is available.

169 (b) All manually prepared receipts shall be prepared at least in duplicate, be prenumbered by the 170 printer, be used in consecutive numerical order and be retained in numerical sequence in the 171 office.

172 (c) All receipts shall show the name and address of the licensee, the amount and date paid, the 173 name of the creditor or creditors, and the name or initials of the collector or person accepting the 174 payment.

175 DFI-Bkg 74.08 Disclosure of rates in advertising. If any mention of rates is made in any form
176 of advertising or on any form used by a licensee, the full rate or rates charged shall be stated as a 177 percentage or dollar amount. No collection agency shall advertise, print, display, publish, 178 distribute or broadcast or cause to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed or 179 broadcast, in any manner, any statement or representation with regard to collection agency rates 180 which is false, misleading, or deceptive, or which omits to state material information with 181 respect to collection agency rates to make the statements therein not false, misleading or 182 deceptive.

183 DFI-Bkg 74.09 Licensee shall furnish report to creditor on written request. Every licensee
184 shall furnish within 30 days after written request from the creditor or forwarder, a written report
185 upon accounts received from such creditor or forwarder. The report shall include for each 186 account the name of the debtor, the account number, the original amount of the account placed 187 for collection, the uncollected balance due and the date of last payment by the debtor.

188 DFI-Bkg 74.10 Procedure for return or cancellation of accounts. (1) CREDITOR MAY 189 REQUEST RETURN OF ACCOUNTS. (a) The written request of a creditor or forwarder for 190 the return of any account not in the actual process of collection shall be complied with by the 191 licensee in writing within a reasonable length of time, but not in any event to exceed 30 days; the 192 cancellation and return shall consist of listing the account by name of debtor, the original amount 193 of the account placed for collection, the uncollected balance due and the date of last payment by

194 the debtor. In addition, all valuable papers furnished by the creditor or forwarder in connection 195 with the account shall be returned.

196 (b) A creditor may waive its right to have returned to it the valuable papers that were furnished to 197 the licensee when the account was listed. Such waiver must be in writing, be dated on or after 198 the date the creditor requests the return of its accounts under par. (a), and must be maintained in 199 the office of the agency.

200 (2) CANCELLATION AND RETURN OF ACCOUNTS AND VALUABLE PAPERS UPON
201 TERMINATION OF LICENSE. Whenever the license of a collection agency is terminated, all 202 accounts and any valuable papers which have been given to the agency in connection with any 203 accounts placed with it for collection shall be returned to the person placing the account for 204 collection within 5 days of the termination of the license unless upon written application an 205 extension of time is granted by the division. All agreements between the collection agency and 206 the creditor or forwarder are automatically cancelled as of the date on which the license is 207 terminated. All debtor payments received after the date on which the license is terminated shall 208 be immediately forwarded in full to the applicable creditor without the collection agency
209 retaining any fee or commission. If any of the accounts that have been placed for collection are 210 in the hands of attorneys at the time of the termination of the license, such attorneys shall 211 immediately be notified by the collection agency to thereafter correspond, remit and be solely 212 responsible to the person placing the accounts with the collection agency unless the creditor has 213 authorized a successor or other licensee to continue to collect the accounts. In the case of death
214 of the sole owner or a partner, all accounts shall be returned within a reasonable period of time, 215 but in any event not to exceed 120 days.

285 (2) FEES. (a) Except as set forth in pars. (b) to (e) and s. DFI—Bkg 74.11(8), a licensee may not 286 charge the debtor any fee, handling charge, mileage costs or other out-of-pocket expenses
287 incurred in the collection of an account. In no case may a licensee divide a debtor's payment to 288 increase the fees. The fees permitted under par. (d) may only be assessed if the fee is disclosed 289 to the debtor prior to the transaction being processed and the debtor is not required to make 290 payment via the method described therein.

291 (b) Actual charges assessed by a financial institution on a check returned to the licensee for any 292 reason may be added to the account of the debtor provided the charge is not the result of a 293 licensee prematurely depositing a post-dated check.

294 (c) Actual charges assessed by a financial institution on an Automated Clearing House 295 transaction reversed for any reason may be added to the account of the debtor provided the 296 charge is not the result of a licensee debiting the debtor's account prematurely, for an incorrect
297 amount, or without proper authorization.

298 (d) A fee not to exceed the lesser of $25 or 3% of the payment amount, not including the fee,
299 may be added to the account of the debtor when the debtor makes a payment using a credit card.

300 (e) A licensee may serve process on a debtor and may assess a charge for service of process costs
301 not exceeding those assessed by the sheriff of the county in which process is served.

302 (3) EVIDENCES OF INDEBTEDNESS SIGNED BY DEBTOR. Any note, mortgage or other 303 instrument which the licensee may have the debtor sign shall be payable to the order of the 304 creditor or jointly to the order of the creditor and the collection agency. All such instruments 305 shall be completely filled in as to terms and conditions at the time the instrument is signed. If

306 the instrument is made payable only to the order of the licensee, the licensee shall then remit on 307 the account to the creditor the same as if it had been paid in full.

308 (4) APPLICATION OF FUNDS WHERE THERE IS A DEBTOR-CREDITOR

309 RELATIONSHIP. If a creditor has a debtor-creditor relationship with a licensee where the 310 person, as a creditor has listed accounts with the licensee for collection and where the person
311 also has accounts listed with the licensee by other creditors against the person for collection,
312 collections effected for the person as a creditor may not be applied on accounts that the person
313 owes unless the licensee has a written authorization on file setting forth how the moneys
314 collected are to be applied. A receipt and a remittance statement shall be issued in connection 315 with debtor-creditor accounts so that the person as the debtor has a complete record of how 316 moneys collected on the person's behalf as a creditor have been applied.

317 (5) AUTHORIZATION TO CONSOLIDATE. An authorization to consolidate under s.
318 218.04(9j), Stats., shall be in writing and shall include all of the following:

319 (a) The authorization of the creditor.

320 (b) The name of the licensee.

321 (c) The name of the debtor.

322 (d) The amount of the account the licensee proposes to consolidate.

323 (e) If the creditor has listed with the licensee more than one account for the debtor, an account
324 number, date of service or other brief description of the account.

325 (f) A statement as to how the amount of each payment received for a combined account will be 326 apportioned to the creditors.

327 (g) If payments will be apportioned pursuant to the discretion of either the licensee or the 328 attorney of record, a statement indicating the discretion to apportion.

329 (6) COLLECTION NOTICES. (a) Except as provided in paras. (b) and (c), every collection
330 notice mailed or delivered by a licensee shall contain the collection agency's licensed name, 331 mailing address, and telephone number, both as part of the letterhead and on the portion of the 332 collection notice designed to be returned to the agency with the debtor's communication or 333 payment.

334 (b) A collection notice mailed in the creditor's name does not need to disclose the collection
335 agency's licensed name, mailing address or telephone number.

336 (c) A collection notice mailed in the collection agency's name does not need to disclose the 337 collection agency's telephone number if the collection notice includes the creditor's telephone 338 number and directs the debtor to contact the creditor at the creditor's telephone number.

339 (7) PAID OR SETTLED IN FULL RECEIPTS. After a debt has been paid or settled in full, and 340 upon written request by the debtor, a collection agency shall provide to the debtor a written 341 statement or receipt that the debt has been paid or settled in full. Such statement shall be 342 provided within ten business days after request by the debtor and shall be provided free of 343 charge.

344 (8) PAYMENT HISTORIES. For any account that has not been paid or settled in full and for 345 any account that has been paid or settled in full within 24 months of the request, a collection 346 agency shall provide the debtor with a written statement of the debtor's payments for as long as 347 the collection agency has had the account. The statement shall be provided to the debtor within 348 ten business days after the debtor makes a written request. The statement shall include the 349 debtor's name, the creditor's name, the amounts paid, the dates on which payments were 350 received, the allocation of money to principal, interest, court costs, attorney fees, and other fee or 351 costs, if applicable, and the current balance due. Account statements shall be provided upon

352 request without charge once during any twelve (12) month period. If additional statements are 353 requested, they shall be provided upon payment of a fee not to exceed $5.00 per statement.

354 (9) OVERPAYMENTS BY CONSUMERS. If a consumer's account is overpaid, and there are 355 no other accounts for that consumer listed with the collection agency, the collection agency is 356 not required to issue a refund of the overpayment to the consumer if the amount of the 357 overpayment is $5 or less. If there is another account for that consumer listed with the collection 358 agency, the collection agency shall, regardless of the amount, either refund the overpayment to 359 the consumer or apply the overpayment to the other account. If a refund is required, it shall be 360 made within 30 days from the close of the month during which the payment was received.

361 DFI-Bkg 74.12 Annual report. With the exception of the balance sheet and income statement, 362 all portions of the annual report required by s. 218.04(10)(a), Stats., shall be completed as of the 363 close of business on December 31 in the year for which the annual report is furnished. The 364 licensee may, if written authorization has been granted to the licensee by the division, file a
365 balance sheet and income statement for a date prior to December 31, but not before September 366 30 in the year for which the report is furnished.

367 DFI-Bkg 74.13 Fair collection practice notice. (1) Unless the initial communication is written 368 and contains the following notice or the debtor has paid the debt, a licensee shall send the debtor
369 the following notice within 5 days after the initial communication with a debtor: "This collection
370 agency is licensed by the Division of Banking, P.O. Box 7876, Madison, Wisconsin 53707."

371 This notice shall be in at least 8 point type and shall be typed or printed on either a collection
372 notice or on the validation of any debt directed to the debtor by the licensee pursuant to Section
373 809 of the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

380 DFI-Bkg 74.14 Use of alias. In any oral or written communication with a debtor, any collector
381 or solicitor may use a separate alias. Such alias shall include a first and last name and shall be 382 registered with and approved by the division prior to use. No collector or solicitor may have 383 more than one alias. No change of alias may be authorized unless good cause is shown.

384 Collectors or solicitors employed by a licensee may not use the same alias. A licensee may 385 forward printed collection notices to a debtor which are

391 DFI-Bkg 74.15 Unauthorized practice of law. (1) Except as set forth in sub. (2), no collector 392 or other employee of a licensee may in attempting to collect an account, engage in the practice of 393 law. This includes but is not limited to the preparation of a summons or complaint or the 394 appearance on behalf of any creditor, except when called as a witness by the plaintiff's attorney 395 in open court, before any court including the clerk of any small claims court in an action on the 396 debt or in garnishment proceedings. It is not considered the practice of law for an employee of a

397 licensee to prepare a summons or complaint under the direction of an attorney which will 398 subsequently be signed and filed by the plaintiff's attorney. This section does not prohibit the 399 appearance of an owner or officer of a licensed collection agency in court for the purpose of 400 obtaining judgment on a debt owed to the licensee directly.

401 (2) Sub. (1) does not apply to an attorney who is an employee of the collection agency.

402 DFI-Bkg 74.16 Oppressive and deceptive practices prohibited. A licensee shall not engage in 403 any oppressive or deceptive practices. In attempting to collect an alleged account, bill or other 404 indebtedness, a licensee shall not do any of the following:

405 (1) Use or threaten force or violence to cause physical harm to the person, dependents or 406 property of a debtor.

407 (2) Threaten criminal prosecution.

408 (3) Disclose or threaten to disclose information adversely affecting the debtor's reputation for 409 credit worthiness with knowledge or reason to know that the information is false.

410 (4) Initiate or threaten to initiate communication with the debtor's employer prior to obtaining 411 final judgment against the debtor, except as permitted by statute. This subsection does not 412 prohibit a debt collector from communicating with the debtor's employer solely to verify
413 employment status or earnings or where an employer has an established debt counseling service
414 or procedure.

415 (5) Contact a debtor by telephone following a request or demand by the debtor that such 416 collection efforts cease.

417 (6) Disclose or threaten to disclose to a person other than the debtor or the debtor's spouse 418 information affecting the debtor's reputation, whether or not for credit worthiness, with

419 knowledge or reason to know that the other person does not have a legitimate business need for 420 the information.

421 (7) Disclose or threaten to disclose information concerning the existence of a debt known to be 422 reasonably disputed by the debtor without disclosing the fact that the debtor disputes the debt.

423 (8) Communicate with the debtor or a person related to the debtor with such frequency or at such 424 unusual hours or in such a manner as can reasonably be expected to threaten or harass the debtor.

425 (9) Engage in other conduct which can reasonably be expected to threaten or harass the debtor or 426 a person related to the debtor including conduct which violates the Federal Fair Debt Collection
427 Practices Act.

428 (10) Use obscene, profane or threatening language in communicating with the debtor or a person 429 related to the debtor.

430 (11) Claim or attempt to threaten to enforce a right with knowledge or reason to know that the 431 right does not exist.

432 (12) Use a communication which simulates legal or judicial process or which gives the 433 appearance of being authorized, issued or approved by a government, governmental agency or 434 attorney-at-law when it is not or any bogus letter ostensibly addressed to any governmental 435 authority or attorney.

436 (13) Threaten action against the debtor unless like action is taken in regular course or is intended 437 with respect to the particular debt.

438 (14) Mutilate any check or other writing tendered by a debtor before forwarding it or returning it 439 to the customer.

440 (15) Enlist the aid of a neighbor or other third party to request that the debtor contact the licensee
441 except a person who resides with the debtor or a third party with whom the debtor has authorized

442 the licensee to place such requests. This subsection does not apply to a call back message left at 443 the debtor's place of employment which is limited to the licensee's telephone number and the 444 collector's name.

445 (16) Make collect telephone calls to debtors.

446 DFI-Bkg 74.17 Use of data processing. (1) SYSTEMS APPROVAL. The division may 447 approve data processing records and procedures which vary from the requirements of this 448 chapter if adequate information is available for examination purposes.

449 (2) SYSTEMS BACK-UP. Back-up of data entries is to be made on a daily basis and back-up of 450 all records on the system is to be made once each week. All systems back-up tapes or disks are 451 to be stored for safe keeping at a site away from the office of the licensee. The records being 452 maintained shall be verifiable at time of examination.

453 Effective date. This rule takes effect as provided in s. 227.22 (2) (intro.), Stats.
