DCF 52.42 Behavior management and control.

(1) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

(a) "Behavior management and control" means techniques, measures, interventions and procedures applied in a systematic fashion to prevent or interrupt a resident's behavior which threatens harm to the resident or others or to property and which promote positive behavioral or functional change fostering resident self-control.

(b) "Informed consent document" means a document signed by a resident's parent or guardian and legal custodian or under a court order or under another lawful authority which gives written informed consent for use of a locked unit for a resident based on the following:

1. Stated reasons why the intervention is necessary and why less restrictive alternatives are ineffective or inappropriate.
2. The behaviors needing modification.
3. The behavior outcomes desired.
4. The amount of time in each day and length of time in days or months the resident is expected to remain in the locked unit.
5. The time period for which the informed consent is effective.
6. The right to withdraw informed consent at any time verbally or in writing and possible consequences for the center and resident if consent is withdrawn.

(c) "Locked unit" means a ward or wing designated as a protective environment in which treatment and services are provided and which is secured by means of a key lock in a manner that prevents residents from leaving the unit at will. A facility locked for purposes of external security is not a locked unit provided that residents may exit at will.

(d) "Emergency safety intervention" means that a staff member physically intervenes with a resident when the resident's behavior presents an imminent danger of harm to self or others and physical restraint or physically enforced separation is necessary to contain the risk and keep the resident and others safe.

(e) "Physically enforced separation" means that a resident is temporarily physically removed to a time-out room or area including, where applicable, a locked unit. "Physically enforced separation" does not include sending a resident on the resident's own volition to the resident's room or another area for a cooling off period as part of a de-escalation technique.

(f) "Physical hold restraint" means that a resident is temporarily physically restrained by a staff member.

(g) "Time-out room" means a designated room used for temporarily holding a resident who is in physically enforced separation from other residents.

(b) Monitoring and review shall cover violation of house rules and their resulting consequences, the use of physical hold restraint and physically enforced separation in emergency safety intervention, the use of a locked unit when used to facilitate a resident's treatment plan under sub. (7) (a) 3., and all related center policies and procedures.

(3) CONDUCT OF RESIDENTS. A center shall have written policies and procedures covering the conduct expected of residents. The policies and procedures shall do all of the following:

1. A general description of acceptable and unacceptable conduct.
2. Curfew requirements.
3. A resident's individual freedoms when the resident is involved in recreational or school activities away from the center.
4. Consequences for a resident who violates a house rule.

Note: There is a difference between a patient right and a privilege. Deprivation of a privilege such as watching television, playing video games, going to the movies or involvement in some other recreational activity may be used as a disciplinary measure.

(g) Provide for distribution of the house rules to all staff and to all residents and their parents or guardians.

(4) PROHIBITED MEASURES. Center staff may not employ any cruel or humiliating measure such as any of the following:

(ae) A center staff member shall attempt other feasible alternatives to de-escalate a child and situation before using physical restraint or physically enforced separation.

(am) A center staff member may not use physical restraint or physically enforced separation as disciplinary action, for the convenience of center staff, or for therapeutic purposes.

Notwithstanding subd. 3. f., if a resident is biting himself or herself or other persons, a center staff member may use a finger in a vibrating motion to stimulate the resident's upper lip and cause the resident's mouth to open and may lean into the bite with the least amount of force necessary to open the resident's jaw.

(b) Use of physically enforced separation shall meet the following additional conditions:

1. The staff member using physically enforced separation of a resident shall review need for continued use every 10 minutes while the resident is in physically enforced separation and shall log the time of each review and the emotional status of the resident.

3. Except as otherwise provided for a locked unit under sub. (7) (a) 2. b., if a resident is authorized under subd. 2. to be in physically enforced separation for more than one hour and the physically enforced separation lasts for more than 2 hours, or if the resident experiences multiple episodes in a day which prompt use of physically enforced separation for a cumulative period of more than 2 hours during the day, center staff shall consider the need to arrange another more appropriate placement for the resident.

4. Physical hold restraint on a resident shall not be used to circumvent the requirement of the one hour limit for using a time-out room or a locked unit.

5. A resident may be kept in physically enforced separation only by means of one of the following:

c. A time-out room where the staff member is in a position in the doorway to prevent the resident's leaving.

d. A staff member is in a position to prevent a resident from leaving a designated area.

e. A time-out room which does not use a key lock, pad lock or other lock of similar design and has a type of lock such as a dead bolt lock, magnetic door lock or lock which only requires the turn of a knob to unlock the door, where a staff member is located next to the time-out room door and has the means to unlock the door immediately, if necessary, and that otherwise meets the requirements of this section and chs. SPS 361 to 366, the Wisconsin Commercial Building Code.

f. In a locked unit that otherwise meets the requirements of this section and the provisions for use of locked units for emergency safety intervention under sub. (7) (a) 2.

1. Use of a locked unit is ordered by a physician, to protect the health of the resident or other residents.
2. Use of a locked unit is for purposes of ensuring physically enforced separation when intervening in an emergency safety situation involving the resident. Use of a locked unit to deal with an emergency safety situation may take place provided that the following conditions are met:

After review of the resident's condition, new written orders, where necessary, may be issued for up to 24 hours. The resident shall be released from the physically enforced separation as quickly as possible. In this subdivision paragraph, "as quickly as possible" means as soon as the resident is calm and no longer a danger to self or others.

c. Use is followed by a review of the need for development of goals and objectives in the resident's treatment plan to govern the use of locked unit physically enforced separation or to minimize or eliminate its need.

Subchapter VIII — Need Determination and License Application

DCF 52.61 Determination of need for additional beds. (1) AUTHORITY AND PURPOSE.

This section is promulgated pursuant to s. 48.60 (3), Stats., to regulate the establishment of new residential care centers for children and youth and to control the expansion of existing residential care centers in order to ensure an adequate number and variety of facilities to meet the needs of Wisconsin children who require out-of-home residential care and to prevent unnecessary expansion of residential care centers and the resulting increase in costs to Wisconsin citizens.

(2) TO WHOM THE RULES APPLY. This section applies to any new applicant for a license to operate a residential care center for children and youth and to existing residential care centers for children and youth wishing to expand the capacity of their facilities.

(3) DEFINITION. In this section, “applicant” means any person wishing to apply for a license to begin operation of a new residential care center for children and youth or any person wishing to expand the capacity of an existing residential care facility for children and youth. “Applicant” does not include a person who by reason of consolidation or other acquisition acquires control or ownership of beds when the consolidation or other acquisition results in no increase in or a reduction of the existing state-wide residential care center bed capacity.

(4) CERTIFICATION OF NEED REQUIREMENT. No person may apply for a license under s. DCF 52.62 (1) to operate a new residential care center for children and youth or for a license amendment under s. DCF 52.62 (3) to expand the bed capacity of an existing residential care center until the department has reviewed the need for the additional placement resources which would be created and has certified to the applicant in writing that a need exists for the proposed new placement resources.

(5) DEMONSTRATION OF NEED. To enable the department to make a determination of need for a new residential care center for children and youth or for additional beds at an existing residential care center for children and youth, the applicant shall submit all of the following documents and information to the department:

(a) A detailed plan for the operation of the proposed residential care center which includes all of the following:

1. The number, sex, and age range of the children to be served.
2. The type or types of needs or disabilities of children to be served.
3. The center staffing, including a list of full-time and part-time positions by job titles and numbers.
4. A description of the proposed program and treatment goals.
5. A proposed budget, including the current or projected per diem rate.
6. The location of the center and a drawing of the layout of the physical plant.

(b) A detailed written description of the methodology and findings which document the reasons why the unserved children under par. (a) cannot be served satisfactorily in less restrictive settings such as in their own homes with treatment services provided to the children and their families, in specialized treatment foster homes or in group homes.

(c) Documentation meeting the criteria in sub. (7) (a) 2. that existing Wisconsin residential care center placement resources are not adequate to meet the needs of Wisconsin children who require the type or types of care and treatment services the applicant proposes to provide. No beds occupied or to be occupied by children who are placed primarily for educational purposes may be considered in determining need under this section. Of the remaining beds, for purposes of determining need and establishing waiting lists, not more than 40% shall be considered available for out-of-state children.

(d) Information that supports the probability that a new or expanded center will be used by Wisconsin placement resources, and that an expanded center will attain and maintain an average monthly occupancy rate of 80% or more over the first 2 years of operation and that a new center will have an average monthly occupancy rate of not less than 80% at the end of the second year.

Note: The documents and information required by the Department to make a determination of need should be sent to the Bureau of Permanence and Out-of-Home Care, P.O. Box 8916, Madison, WI 53708.

(6) PUBLICATION OF NOTICE — PARTY STATUS. (a) Upon receipt of the documents and information listed in sub. (5), the department shall publish a class 2 notice under ch. 985, Stats., in the official state newspaper designated under s. 985.04, Stats., and in a newspaper likely to give notice in the area of the proposed center. The notice shall include a statement that the department has received an application for a certificate of need to operate a new residential care center or to expand the bed capacity of an existing residential care center. The notice shall also include the number of additional beds, the geographic area to be served, the types of young people to be accepted for care, the services to be provided and program objectives.

(b) The notice shall invite the submission of written comments, factual data and reasons why the application should be granted or denied from any person within 30 days after the publication of the notice. The notice shall advise persons submitting written comments to indicate their interest in the application and whether the individual commentator wants to be considered for party status in any later proceedings.

(7) NEED DETERMINATION. (a) Evaluation procedures. 1. The department shall review the applicant's documents and information for completeness and may ask the applicant for additional materials or information that the department considers necessary for evaluation purposes.

2. Except as provided under subd. 3., the administrator of the department's division of children and family services or his or her designee shall make the need determination decision based on the following criteria:

- a. The compatibility of the applicant's proposed plan of operation or expansion with the stated treatment goals for the program.
- b. The validity of the research methodology used to document need for the proposed program.
- c. The congruence of the conclusions reached in the applicant's needs research with department data on current county placement needs and available beds in existing residential care centers for children and youth providing similar services.
- d. The correctness of the applicant's contention that the proposed center is more appropriate than less restrictive care arrangements for children.
- e. The applicant's documentation supporting the argument that existing Wisconsin residential care centers for children and youth are not adequate to meet the needs of Wisconsin children who require the type or types of care and treatment services the applicant proposes to provide.

f. The applicant's documentation of the probability that the center, if expanded, will attain and maintain an average monthly occupancy rate of at least 80% for the first 2 years of operation or, if new, will attain an average monthly occupancy rate of at least 80% at the end of the second year of operation.

3. An application for expansion of an existing residential care center for children and youth by 3 or fewer additional beds shall be presumed to meet the criterion under subd. 2. d. unless at least one of the following is true:

a. The center submitted another application for expansion of bed capacity in the previous 2 years and that application was approved.

b. There is clear and convincing evidence that the criteria under subd. 2. have not been met.

(b) Notice of determination. 1. Within 90 calendar days after the date on which all required documents and information were received from an applicant, the department shall send written notice of its determination of need to the applicant and to anyone who commented under sub. (6) (b) on the application. The notice shall state the specific reason for the determination.

2. If the department determines that there is need for additional beds, the notice shall be accompanied by the department's certification that a need exists for the proposed new placement resources which entitles the person to apply for a license to operate a new center or to apply for an amended license that will permit the addition of beds at an existing center.

3. The duration of the approval under subd. 2. shall be limited to 18 months from the date that it is issued, except that the department may grant one 6–month extension if the approved applicant has a good reason for the delay in becoming operational and documents to the satisfaction of the department that it will be operational within that 6–month period. Any request for extension shall be filed before expiration of the initial 18–month period. If the proposed center is not operational during that 18–month time period, or the extended period, the need determination shall be considered invalid and the approval shall be cancelled. In this subdivision, “operational” means in regard to a new center that the center has been licensed under s. DCF 52.62 and that all approved beds meet requirements for operation, and in regard to expansion of an existing center that all additional beds meet requirements for operation and the center is licensed under s. DCF 52.62 to operate with the additional beds. An acceptable reason for an extension under this subdivision shall include unforeseen delay in obtaining adequate financing approval, in staffing or in construction.

(c) Appeal. 1. An applicant or a party adversely affected by a determination issued under par. (b) 1. may request an administrative hearing under s. 227.42, Stats., from the department of administration's division of hearings and appeals by submitting a written request for hearing to that office so that it arrives there within 30 days after the date of the notice under par. (b).

2. The standard of review for the hearing shall be whether the record contains the quantity and quality of evidence that a reasonable person could accept as adequate to support the decision.

Note: To request a hearing, submit the request to: Division of Hearings and Appeals, P.O. Box 7875, Madison, Wisconsin 53707–7875, or deliver it to the Division at 5005 University Ave., Room 201, Madison, WI.
