Governor Evers' proposed budget provides a comprehensive strategy to break the decade-long impasse in the transportation funding debate. Many of these same concepts were unanimously endorsed by the state's bi-partisan Transportation Finance and Policy Commission in 2011. Wisconsin is finally positioned to make needed investment in our state's transportation network. Our public safety and mobility, economic growth and our quality of life depends on it. It's time to fix our roads. — WISDOT Secretary-designate Craig Thompson #WisDOT Mobility Funding
