ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Fiscal Estimate & Economic Impact Analysis

14. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

State: None.

Local: The proposed rule creates clarity around the rules governing the licensure of individuals seeking a tier I, 3-year school district-sponsored license with stipulations. The effect of the proposed rule will ensure greater transparency for applicants seeking licensure with this pathway. The proposed rule does not change existing requirements for school districts surrounding supports for educators seeking licensure through this pathway. Therefore, there is no fiscal impact on local school districts as a result of the proposed rule.

15. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule

Implementing the proposed changes in the rule will create additional clarification and transparency for license applicants, specifically with respect to licensing requirements, licensing processes, and application timelines for the tier I, 3-year school district-sponsored license with stipulations. Without a rule change, the department will be required to implement rules for educator licensure as they currently exist in PI 34 and applicants for licensure with this pathway may face unclear guidance on license requirements as a result.

16. Long-Range Implications of Implementing the Rule

The proposed rule clarifies ch. PI 34 with respect to the licensing requirements, licensing processes, and application timelines for applicants for tier I, 3-year school district-sponsored licensure with stipulations.

17. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government

Under 34 CFR § 300.156(c)(2)(i)(C), teachers who are not fully licensed are prohibited from teaching special education students for more than three years.

18. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

There are no comparable rules governing school district-sponsored licensure in adjacent states.
