2. The relative caregiver does not inflict or tolerate infliction of abuse and does not neglect the child.

(b) A demonstrated interest in integrating the child into the relative caregiver's household and the ability to manage the stress of doing so.

(c) An adequate recognition of the child's strengths and needs consistent with the child's age and abilities.

(d) The ability to provide stable and appropriate care for the child, given the child's age, strengths, needs, and abilities.

(e) The ability and willingness to work with the child's parents, if the relative caregiver is applying for or receiving voluntary kinship care and does not have guardianship of the child under s. 48.9795, Stats., or a tribal private guardianship order.

(3) HISTORY OF BEHAVIORS. (a) The relative caregiver, employees, and adult residents do not have any final substantiated findings of child abuse or neglect that are likely to adversely affect the child or the relative caregiver's ability to care for the child.

(b) If the kinship care agency conducts a background check on a person subject to the background check under s. DCF 58.05 (1), the agency determines that the person does not have any patterns of criminal behavior, pending charges, or convictions that are likely to adversely affect the child or the relative caregiver's ability to care for the child.

(4) OTHER MINOR CHILD IN THE HOME. No minor child residing in the relative caregiver's home endangers the safety of another child.

(5) PHYSICAL ENVIRONMENT. The physical environment of the relative caregiver's home is safe for the child, including all of the following:

(a) The relative caregiver's home is constructed, arranged, and maintained in a manner that is safe.

(b) The relative caregiver's home has all of the following:

1. Furnishings and equipment necessary to adequately accommodate the child and other household members.

2. a. A safe and appropriate sleeping arrangement for the child.

b. If the child is under 12 months of age, the child sleeps alone in a crib, bassinet, or playpen.

(c) The relative caregiver considers the child's developmental level and ensures that materials and equipment that may be hazardous to the child are stored in areas not readily accessible to the child. Potentially hazardous materials and equipment may include weapons, ammunition, poisons, insecticides, flammable or combustible materials, alcohol, tobacco products, medications, power tools, detergents, and plastic bags.

(d) The relative caregiver makes every reasonable effort to correct any hazard to the safety of the child in the home.

Note: If the relative caregiver does not own the home, the relative caregiver's "reasonable effort to correct any hazard" includes asking the landlord to address safety concerns in the home.

(6) VOLUNTARY KINSHIP CARE ONLY. The kinship care agency determines all of the following conditions are met:

(a) Child's basic needs. The child needs to live with the relative caregiver because one or more of the following basic needs of the child can be better met by the relative caregiver than the child's parent or parents:

1. The need for adequate food, shelter, clothing, and education.

2. The need to be free from physical, sexual, or emotional injury, neglect, or exploitation.

3. The need for a safe or permanent family.

4. The need to develop physically, mentally, and emotionally to the child's potential.

(b) Parental consent. The kinship care agency determines that the child's custodial parent or parents have consented to the child living with the relative caregiver, except that no consent is required if the relative caregiver has guardianship of the child under s. 48.9795, Stats., or a tribal private guardianship order.

Register October 2020 No. 778, eff. 11-1-20; correction in (2) (e), (6) (b) made under s. 13.92 (4) (b) 7., Stats., and change of numbering of (5) (c), (d) made under s. 13.92 (4) (b) 1., Stats., Register October 2020 No. 778; CR 21-107: am. DCF 58.07 Need for protection or services. (1) KINSHIP CARE. When determining the eligibility of a relative caregiver to receive kinship care payments, the kinship care agency shall determine if any of the following conditions is met:

(a) Court order. The child has been placed with the relative caregiver by a court order under s. 48.13 or 938.13, Stats., or a substantially similar tribal court order.

(b) Voluntary kinship care. 1. If par. (a) does not apply, the kinship care agency determines any of the following:

a. The child meets one or more of the grounds or conditions under s. 48.13 or 938.13, Stats.

b. There is a reasonable probability that the child would be at risk of meeting one or more of the grounds or conditions under s. 48.13 or 938.13, Stats., if the child were to remain in the parent's home.

c. If the child is 18 years of age or over, there is a reasonable probability that the child would meet or be at risk of meeting one or more of the grounds or conditions under s. 48.13 or 938.13, Stats., if the child were under 18 years of age and in the parent's home.

2. The kinship care agency shall base a determination involving reasonable probability under subd. 1. b. or c. on any of the following:

a. The kinship care agency, court, or a tribal court has made a similar determination about the child or a sibling of the child within the previous 12 months.

b. Evidence of behavior by the child or a parent of the child that if increased in degree, could meet one or more of the grounds or conditions under s. 48.13 or 938.13, Stats.

c. A parent of the child has made threatening and credible statements that, if carried out, could meet one or more of the grounds or conditions under s. 48.13, Stats.

d. Information provided by the relative caregiver, a parent of the child, or any other credible person supports a determination that the circumstances in the child's home could result in the child being at risk of meeting one or more of the grounds or conditions under s. 48.13 or 938.13, Stats., if the child were to remain in the home.

(2) LONG-TERM KINSHIP CARE. When determining the eligibility of a relative caregiver to receive long-term kinship care payments, the kinship care agency shall require the relative caregiver to provide proof that the relative caregiver is the child's guardian under s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats.

History: CR 19-159: cr. Register October 2020 No. 778, eff. 11-1-20; CR 21-107: am. (1) (a), (2) Register June 2022 No. 798, eff. 7-1-22.

DCF 58.08 Agency procedures. (1) APPLICATION. (a) Complete application. A kinship care agency shall consider a relative caregiver's application for kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments to be complete when the agency has received all of the following from the relative caregiver:

1. All information required on the application form prescribed by the department under s. DCF 58.04 (1).

2. All information that a relative caregiver is required to provide for background checks under s. DCF 58.05 (3).

(b) Agency timeframe for determining eligibility. Except as provided under s. DCF 58.09, a kinship care agency shall approve or deny a relative caregiver's application within 45 days after receiving the complete application specified under par. (a).

Note: See s. DCF 58.05 (1) for the deadline for beginning background checks.

(c) Reapplication within 2 years. A kinship care agency may refuse to accept an application for kinship care or long-term kinship care from a relative caregiver that was determined ineligible for the same program within the previous 2 years if the agency determines that the reason for the previous denial or termination of payments has not changed.

(2) HEALTH INSURANCE. A kinship care agency shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide information on medical assistance to all relative caregivers during the initial eligibility determination process.

(b) Require that a relative caregiver that does not have private health insurance for the child apply for medical assistance for the child and assist the relative caregiver with applying if appropriate.

(c) Inform a relative caregiver that has private health insurance for the child that medical assistance may be available as a secondary health insurance.

(3) AGENCY ELIGIBILITY OR TERMINATION CRITERIA PROHIBITED. A kinship care agency may not create eligibility or termination criteria for kinship care or long-term kinship care that are in addition to the criteria in this chapter and s. 48.57 (3m), (3n), and (3p), Stats.

(4) BEST INTERESTS DETERMINATION. (a) Voluntary and long-term kinship care. When determining whether living with the relative caregiver is in the best interests of the child under s. DCF 58.06, the kinship care agency shall do all of the following:

1. Assess the ability of the relative caregiver to care for the child and the safety of the relative caregiver's home and do the following if applicable:

a. If a kinship care agency determines that a relative caregiver has a positive approach to parenting the child under s. DCF 58.06 (2) (a) 1., despite a parenting history that includes behaviors or actions that are contrary to the health, safety, or welfare of a child, the agency shall document the reasons for concern in the relative caregiver's parenting history and the agency's rationale for determining that the relative caregiver has a positive approach to parenting the child despite the parenting history.

b. If the relative caregiver does not have safe sleeping arrangements for the child as required under s. DCF 58.06 (5) (b) 2., the kinship care agency shall assist the relative caregiver with obtaining the needed crib or bed.

Note: The contract between the department and a county for the provision of child welfare services includes an allocation for kinship care assessments that may be used for relative caregiver needs, such as purchasing a needed crib or bed.

2. With an approach that is trauma-informed and age and developmentally appropriate, talk to each child for whom a relative caregiver is applying for or receiving kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments and discuss the child's needs.

3. When determining a relative caregiver's initial eligibility for kinship care or long-term kinship care, check for all of the following:

a. Child abuse or neglect investigations or final substantiated findings in any jurisdiction in Wisconsin in which the relative caregiver, adult residents, prospective adult residents, employees, and prospective employees reside or have resided within the previous 5 years.

b. Investigations or findings on a child abuse or neglect registry maintained by any jurisdiction outside Wisconsin in which the relative caregiver, adult residents, prospective adult residents, employees, or prospective employees reside or have resided within the previous 5 years.

4. When redetermining a relative caregiver's eligibility, make the checks specified under subd. 3. in any jurisdiction where the relative caregiver, adult resident, or employee reside or have resided since the most recent check by the kinship care agency.

(b) Voluntary kinship care; parental consent. 1. 'Request express consent for living arrangement.' When determining a relative caregiver's initial eligibility for voluntary kinship care when the relative caregiver is not the child's guardian, the kinship care agency shall make diligent efforts to contact the custodial parent or parents and request that the parent or parents sign a form prescribed by the department expressly consenting to the child living with the relative caregiver. The initial effort to contact the custodial parent or parents shall be by mail. The agency may subsequently attempt contact by phone, in person, or by electronic mail.

Note: DCF-F-5371, Voluntary Kinship Care Parental Approval, is available on the department's website at <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/forms>.

2. 'Express denial.' The kinship care agency shall determine that a relative caregiver is ineligible to receive voluntary kinship care and contact the local child protective services agency if the relative caregiver does not have guardianship of the child under s. 48.9795, Stats., or a tribal private guardianship order, and a custodial parent expressly denies consent for the child to live with the relative caregiver.

Note: In some circumstances, it may be appropriate for the relative caregiver to seek guardianship of the child.

3. 'Implied consent.' A kinship care agency may determine that consent by the child's custodial parent or parents for the child to live with the relative caregiver is implied if any of the following conditions is met:

a. The kinship care agency makes diligent efforts to contact the child's custodial parent or parents and does not receive a response from any of the child's custodial parents within 20 days after the agency's first attempt to contact the custodial parent or parents.

b. The child's custodial parent or parents respond to the kinship care agency in a manner that is not an express denial of consent for the child to live with the relative caregiver.

Note: The agency is seeking consent for the child to live with the relative caregiver. Parental consent for the relative caregiver to receive kinship care payments is not required. If a parent informs the agency that the parent does not want to pay child support, the agency should redirect the conversation toward obtaining consent for the living arrangement.

c. The child has 2 custodial parents, one custodial parent responds in a manner that is not an express denial of consent for the child to live with the relative caregiver, and the other custodial parent does not respond to the agency's diligent efforts to contact the parent within 20 days after the first attempt to contact the parent.

(5) CHILD SAFETY. (a) Child protective services. A kinship care agency that has reasonable cause to suspect that the child has been abused or neglected or has been threatened with abuse or neglect and that abuse or neglect will occur shall report the facts and circumstances contributing to the suspicion to the local child protective services agency under s. 48.981 (2), Stats.

(b) Court. 1. 'Guardian; not in best interests.' If a kinship care agency has concerns about whether it continues to be in a child's best interests to live with a relative caregiver that has been appointed the child's guardian under s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats., or under s. 48.9795, Stats., or a tribal private guardianship order, the kinship care agency shall inform the court that appointed the guardianship.

2. ‘Parent in home; long-term kinship care.’ If a child’s parent resides with the child and the relative caregiver that is the child’s guardian under s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats., for more than 30 days, the kinship care agency shall inform the court that appointed the guardianship.

Note: Guardianships under s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats., are the result of a previous action under ch. 48, Stats., or substantially similar tribal law, in which child safety may have been an issue. Therefore, it is imperative that the kinship care agency responds accordingly when the agency becomes aware of a situation that circumvents the guardianship.

(6) CHILD AGE 18 OR OVER. A kinship care agency may contact the school that a child 18 years of age or over is attending to verify the documentation submitted by the relative caregiver under s. DCF 58.04 (2) (h).

(7) ADDITIONAL CHILD WITHIN 6 MONTHS. If a relative caregiver applies for kinship care or long-term kinship care for a child that moves into the relative caregiver’s home within 6 months after the kinship care agency determined that the relative caregiver is eligible for kinship care or long-term kinship care for a different child, all of the following apply:

(a) The kinship care agency shall direct the relative caregiver to complete only the child-specific portions of the application under s. DCF 58.04 (1).

(b) The kinship care agency is not required to conduct new background checks under s. DCF 58.05.

(c) In determining whether living with the relative caregiver is in the best interests of the child under s. DCF 58.06, the kinship care agency may use information obtained for the agency’s most recent determinations under s. DCF 58.06 (2) to (4) for the other children.

(d) At the earliest date that an eligibility redetermination is required under s. DCF 58.10 (3) for the care of any child in the relative caregiver’s home, the kinship care agency shall redetermine the relative caregiver’s eligibility for all children in the home for whom the relative caregiver is receiving kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments.

(8) DETERMINATION. (a) A kinship care agency shall determine whether a relative caregiver is eligible to receive kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments and send the relative caregiver a written notice of the decision on a form prescribed by the department.

(b) A notice denying or terminating a relative caregiver’s eligibility shall include the reasons for the denial or termination and a summary of appeal rights under s. DCF 58.11 and s. 48.57 (3m) (f), (3n) (f), and (3p) (h) or (hm), Stats., as applicable.

(c) A notice terminating eligibility shall inform the relative caregiver that payments will continue until a review or hearing decision is issued if the relative caregiver submits a request for a review or hearing as specified under s. DCF 58.11 within 10 days after the date of the notice. Any payments issued while the review or hearing is pending may be recovered by the kinship care agency if the agency’s determination is upheld.

Note: DCF-F-5370-E, Kinship Care Eligibility Determination, is available on the department’s website at <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/forms>.

(9) PAYMENT. (a) Kinship care payments. After a kinship care agency has determined that a relative caregiver is eligible to receive kinship care payments, the agency shall issue payments that begin as follows:

1. For a child that was placed in the relative caregiver’s home under a court order or a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement, the later of the following:

a. The date the child was placed in the relative caregiver’s home under a court order or a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement.

b. Ninety days prior to the date the kinship care agency received the relative caregiver’s application information under sub. (1) (a).

2. For voluntary kinship care, the date on which the kinship care agency received the relative caregiver’s application information under sub. (1) (a), unless the relative caregiver is placed on a waiting list under sub. (11).

(b) Long-term kinship care payments. After a kinship care agency has determined that a relative caregiver is eligible to receive long-term kinship care payments, the agency shall issue payments that begin the later of the following:

1. The date the relative caregiver was appointed to be the child’s guardian under s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats.

2. Ninety days prior to the date the kinship care agency received the relative caregiver’s application information under sub. (1) (a).

(10) WAITING PROHIBITED. (a) Waiting list prohibited. A kinship care agency may not place any of the following relative caregivers on a waiting list:

1. ‘Long-term kinship care.’ A relative caregiver that has been determined eligible for long-term kinship care payments.

2. ‘Kinship care with court-ordered placement.’ A relative caregiver that has been determined eligible for kinship care payments if the child was placed with the relative caregiver under a court order or a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement and a child welfare agency has placement and care responsibility for the child.

3. ‘Type of relative caregiving changes to voluntary.’ A relative caregiver whose type of relative caregiving under s. DCF 58.03 changes to voluntary under s. DCF 58.03 (2) while the relative caregiver is receiving kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments.

(b) Continued payment by previous agency until funding available. 1. Subject to subs. 2. and 3., a kinship care agency shall continue to make kinship care payments to a relative caregiver receiving voluntary kinship care payments from the agency if the relative caregiver moves to an area of the state served by another kinship care agency that has a waiting list.

2. The kinship care agency serving the area of the relative caregiver’s new residence under subd. 1. shall place the relative caregiver’s name at the top of the agency’s waiting list.

3. The kinship care agency serving the area where the relative caregiver is residing shall begin making the kinship care payments to the relative caregiver when the agency’s contract with the department is renewed or amended or the agency otherwise has kinship care funding available to make the payments.

(11) WAITING LIST POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTARY KINSHIP CARE. (a) Policy. Each kinship care agency shall develop a waiting list policy for relative caregivers that have been determined eligible to receive voluntary kinship care payments at a time when the kinship care agency’s allocation for kinship care payments is insufficient to begin the payments. A kinship care agency’s waiting list policy shall include all of the following:

1. The priority order in which the agency will move relative caregivers off the waiting list to begin making the kinship care payments. The kinship care agency may establish priorities based any of the following criteria:

a. The order in which applications are received.

b. The lack of stability in the living arrangement if a payment is not made.

c. The level or urgency of the child’s need under s. DCF 58.06 (5) (a).

d. If the child is under the guardianship of the relative caregiver by a statutory provision other than s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats.

2. The criteria and procedures for granting an exception to the priorities established under subd. 1., if the agency grants exceptions.

3. Whether the agency provides a retroactive payment for all or part of the time period that a relative caregiver is on the waiting list.

(b) Agency submittal. Each kinship care agency shall submit the agency's waiting list policy under par. (a) to the department by January 1, 2021, and following any change to the agency's waiting list policy.

(c) Authorization. A kinship care agency may establish a waiting list for newly-eligible relative caregivers if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The kinship care agency's allocation for kinship care payments in the current fiscal year will be fully expended by payments to existing relative caregivers.

2. The kinship care agency notifies the department that the agency expects to be placing newly-eligible relative caregivers on the waiting list for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Note: Notice should be submitted to Kinship Care Program Coordinator, DCF/DSP, P.O. Box 8916, Madison, WI 53708-8916.

(d) Funding available. When a kinship care agency has sufficient funds to begin kinship care payments to a relative caregiver that the agency placed on a waiting list, the kinship care agency shall do all of the following:

1. Notify the relative caregiver in writing that funding is available and request that the relative caregiver contact the agency if the relative caregiver continues to be interested in and eligible for kinship care payments.

2. Begin payments to the relative caregiver for the time period beginning no later than the first day of the month beginning after the date that the relative caregiver contacted the kinship care agency to express continued interest in and eligibility for kinship care payments.

(12) DOCUMENTATION. (a) Eligibility decisions. 1. Within 5 working days after making any decision related to a kinship care agency's determination, redetermination, or review of a relative caregiver's eligibility for kinship care or long-term kinship care, a kinship care agency that has access to the department's child welfare automation system shall enter any information related to the decision and any supporting documentation in the child welfare automation system.

Note: The department's child welfare automation system is eWiSACWIS.

2. A kinship care agency that does not have access to the department's child welfare automation system shall document eligibility decisions by completing the form prescribed by the department and obtaining and retaining supporting documentation as necessary.

Note: Tribal kinship care agencies do not have access to eWiSACWIS. DCF-F-5370-E, Kinship Care Eligibility Determination, is available on the department's website at <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/forms>.

(b) Status. A kinship care agency shall enter documentation of any of the following in the department's child welfare automation system or the department's automated kinship care tracking system within 5 working days after any of the following events:

1. A relative caregiver is placed on waiting list.
2. Kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments to a relative caregiver begin or end.
3. A relative caregiver files an appeal of an agency decision under s. DCF 58.11.

(c) Documentation transfer to or from a tribal agency. A kinship care agency shall transfer documentation regarding a relative caregiver's eligibility for kinship care or long-term kinship care to another kinship care agency if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The relative caregiver is receiving kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments and moves with the child to an area of the state served by another kinship care agency.

2. The kinship care agency serving the area of either the relative caregiver's old residence or new residence does not have access to the department's child welfare automation system.

(13) LONG-TERM KINSHIP CARE AGREEMENT. A kinship care agency that determines that a relative caregiver is eligible to receive long-term kinship care payments shall enter into a written agreement with the relative caregiver using a form prescribed by the department. Under the written agreement, the relative caregiver agrees to provide care and maintenance for the child and the kinship care agency agrees to provide long-term kinship care payments to the relative caregiver until the date of a change in circumstances specified in s. 48.57 (3n) (am) 6., Stats., or the date on which the long-term guardianship under a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats., terminates.

Note: DCF-F-CFS2190-E, Long-Term Kinship Care Agreement, is available on the department's website at <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/forms>.

(14) CHANGE IN TYPE OF RELATIVE CAREGIVING. (a) Following a change in a relative caregiver's type of relative caregiving as specified under s. DCF 58.03, the kinship care agency shall determine if the relative caregiver's eligibility for kinship care or long-term kinship care has changed.

(b) If the relative caregiver's eligibility for kinship care or long-term kinship care changes due to a change in the type of relative caregiving under s. DCF 58.03, the kinship care agency shall use information about the relative caregiver and child previously obtained to the extent appropriate to document the relative caregiver's eligibility following the change in the type of relative caregiving. The kinship care agency may require additional information and actions only as necessary for the eligibility determination and may not require a relative caregiver to complete a new application under s. DCF 58.04 (1).

Note: For other provisions affecting a change in the type of relative caregiving, see s. DCF 58.06 (1) (c) 2. and sub. (10) (a) 3.

There are only minor differences in the eligibility criteria for kinship care and long-term kinship care. If a relative caregiver receiving kinship care payments is appointed the child's guardian under s. 48.977, Stats., or a tribal court order that is substantially similar to an order under s. 48.977, Stats., the kinship care agency and relative caregiver will enter an agreement under sub. (13) and the kinship care agency will update the program type to long-term kinship care.

(15) DIRECTOR'S DESIGNEE. (a) The director may designate an individual to fulfill the director's responsibilities under ss. DCF 58.05 (7) and 58.11 (1) if the individual is a manager in the kinship care agency and does not directly supervise the agency staff that make eligibility determinations for kinship care or long-term kinship care.

(b) If a director designates an individual under par. (a), the kinship care agency shall submit the name of the designee and the designee's position in the agency to the department each January.

Note: Submit notice of a designee to the Kinship Care Program Coordinator, DCF/DSP, P.O. Box 8916, Madison, WI 53708-8916.

(16) OVERPAYMENTS. (a) A kinship care agency may recover an overpayment of kinship care or long-term kinship care from a relative caregiver by any of the following means:

1. Reducing the amount of relative caregiver's monthly kinship care payment or long-term kinship care payment by an amount agreed to by the relative caregiver and the kinship care agency.
2. Requesting payment within a specified time period.
3. Negotiating a payment plan.

(b) 1. A county department of social services under s. 46.22, Stats., a county department of human services under s. 46.23, Stats., or a tribal agency that recovers an overpayment under this section due to the county department's or tribal agency's efforts may retain the amount recovered.

2. Funds retained under subd. 1. may only be spent on the county department's or tribal agency's kinship care or long-term kinship care program.

3. If the county department or tribal agency has not spent the retained funds under subd. 1. by the end of the contract period, the department shall recover the funds through the contracting process.

(17) FEDERAL REPORTING REQUIREMENTS. Each kinship care agency shall provide information to the department necessary for compliance with federal data collection and reporting requirements under 45 CFR part 265, as determined by the department.

Note: Agency responsibilities will be specified in the county and tribal contracts with the department.

DCF 58.09 Special provisions for court-ordered kinship care and long-term kinship care. (1) PAYMENTS

PENDING DECISION ON FOSTER CARE APPLICATION. In this section: Subject to subs. (2) and (3), a kinship care agency may make kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments to a relative caregiver that is providing care and maintenance for a child who is placed in the home of the relative caregiver under a court order or a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement until the earlier of the following:

(a) The date that is 60 days after the date on which the kinship care agency received the complete application of the relative caregiver for a license to operate a foster home under ss. DCF 58.04 (1) and 58.08 (1) (a).

(b) The date on which the application for a license to operate a foster home is approved or denied or the relative caregiver is otherwise determined to be ineligible for licensure, if the application is approved or denied or the relative caregiver is otherwise determined to be ineligible for licensure within those 60 days.

(2) PAYMENT EXTENSION IF NO-FAULT DELAY. If the application for a license to operate a foster home is not approved or denied or the relative caregiver is not otherwise determined to be ineligible for licensure within 60 days after the date on which the kinship care agency received the completed application under s. DCF 58.08 (1) for any reason other than an act or omission of the relative caregiver, the kinship care agency may make payments until the earlier of the following:

(a) Four months after the date on which the kinship care agency received the completed application under s. DCF 58.08 (1) (a).

(b) The date on which the application is approved or denied or the relative caregiver is otherwise determined to be ineligible for licensure if the application is approved or denied or the relative caregiver is otherwise determined to be ineligible for licensure within those 4 months.

(3) COURT APPROVES CONTINUED PLACEMENT IN RELATIVE CAREGIVER'S HOME. Notwithstanding that a relative caregiver's application for a license to operate a foster home is denied or the relative caregiver is otherwise determined to be ineligible for licensure, the kinship care agency may make payments to a relative caregiver for as long as all other requirements to receive kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments, as applicable, are met if the court orders the child to remain in the relative caregiver's home based on all of the following information if submitted to the court by the kinship care agency:

(a) Information that the kinship care agency gathered for the background check required under s. 48.57 (3p), Stats., and s. DCF 58.05.

(b) The kinship care agency's assessment of the ability of the relative caregiver to care for the child and safety of the relative caregiver's home under ss. DCF 58.06 and 58.08 (4) (a).

(c) A recommendation by the kinship care agency that the child remain in the home of the relative caregiver.

2. The form under subd. 1. shall also direct the relative caregiver to contact the kinship care agency to schedule a time for the agency to visit the relative caregiver's home if the relative caregiver is receiving voluntary kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments.

Note: DCF-F-5369-E, Kinship Care Request for Information to Determine Continued Eligibility, is available on the department's website at <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/forms>.

(c) Voluntary and long-term kinship care; home visit. If the relative caregiver is receiving voluntary kinship care payments or long-term kinship care payments, the kinship care agency shall visit the relative caregiver's home and determine whether living with the relative caregiver continues to be in the best interests of the child under s. a. At least 45 days before the child's 18th birthday, verify that the child welfare agency that has placement and care responsibility of the child has entered the information that is necessary to determine the relative caregiver's continued eligibility into the department's child welfare automation system. If the necessary information has not been entered, the kinship care agency shall contact the child welfare agency.

b. At least 30 days before the child's 18th birthday, determine if eligibility will continue when the child turns 18 years old and send the notice of decision on a form prescribed by the department.

2. A kinship care agency that does not have access to the department's child welfare automation system shall use the procedures in par. (b) to determine if eligibility is expected to continue when the child turns 18 years old and the relative caregiver is receiving kinship care payments on behalf of a child that was placed in the relative's home under a court order or a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement.

DCF 58.11 Appeal rights. (1) KINSHIP CARE; DIRECTOR REVIEW OF BACKGROUND CHECK DENIAL. (a) Request for review.

1. A relative caregiver applying for or receiving kinship care payments may submit a request for review by the director of the kinship care agency if the relative caregiver receives a written notice of any of the following:

a. Kinship care payments are denied or terminated because the background check of the relative caregiver indicates a conviction or imposition of a penalty specified under s. 48.57 (3p) (g), Stats., and s. DCF 58.05 (6).

b. The background check of a prospective adult resident, adult resident, prospective employee, or employee indicates a conviction or imposition of a penalty specified under s. 48.57 (3p) (g), Stats., and s. DCF 58.05 (6), and kinship care payments will be denied or terminated if the relative caregiver permits the prospective adult resident to reside in the relative caregiver's home, continues to permit the adult resident to reside in the relative caregiver's home, employs the prospective employee, or continues to employ the employee.

2. A relative caregiver's request for review shall be addressed to the director and submitted to the kinship care agency in the manner specified in the notice no later than 45 days after the date of the notice under subd. 1.

3. The kinship care agency shall continue kinship care payments to a relative caregiver if the relative caregiver submits a request for review by the director within 10 days after the date of a notice of termination, pending the director's written notice of determination under par. (c) and, if the relative caregiver submits a request for a hearing under sub. (2) within 10 days after the date of the director's written notice of determination under par. (c), the hearing decision.

(b) Standard for review. Within 30 days after the kinship care agency receives the relative caregiver's request for review under par. (a), the director shall determine if the conviction record on which the denial, termination, prospective denial, or prospective termination was based includes any arrests, convictions, or penalties that are likely to adversely affect the child or the ability of the relative caregiver to care for the child. In reviewing the conviction record, the director shall consider all of the following factors:

1. The length of time between the date of the arrest, conviction, or imposition of the penalty and the date of the review.

2. The nature of the alleged violation, violation, or penalty and how that alleged violation, violation, or penalty affects the ability of the relative caregiver to care for the child.

3. Whether making an exception to the denial would be in the best interests of the child.

(c) Director's determination. Within 10 working days after making the determination under par. (b), the kinship care agency shall send the relative caregiver a written notice of the director's determination and a summary of the relative caregiver's right to a hearing under sub. (2) and s. 48.57 (3m) (f) and (g), Stats.

Note: A relative caregiver applying for or receiving long-term kinship care is not eligible for a review by the director because the director makes background check determinations for long-term kinship care under s. DCF 58.05 (7).

(2) REQUEST FOR HEARING. (a) Notice of agency action. A relative caregiver may submit a request for a hearing to the division of hearings and appeals in the manner specified in the notice no later than 45 days after the date of a notice from the kinship care agency of any of the following:

3. A determination by a director, after reviewing the conviction record of a prospective adult resident, adult resident, prospective employee, or employee under sub. (1), that kinship care payments will be denied or terminated if the relative caregiver does any of the following:

a. Permits the prospective adult resident, or continues to permit the adult resident, to reside in the relative caregiver's home.

b. Employs the prospective employee or continues to employ the employee.

4. A denial or termination of long-term kinship care payments based on the background check of the relative caregiver under s. DCF 58.05 (7).

5. A determination by a director, based on the background check of a prospective adult resident, adult resident, prospective employee, or employee, that long-term kinship care payments will be denied or terminated if the relative caregiver does as provided under subd. 3. a. or b.

6. A determination under s. DCF 58.06 (3) that it is not in the best interests of the child for the relative caregiver to do any of the following:

a. Permit a prospective adult resident to reside, or continue to permit an adult resident to reside, in the relative caregiver's home.

b. Employ a prospective employee or continue to employ an employee.

7. The relative caregiver received the first written notice of an overpayment.

(b) Failure to act on application. If the kinship care agency fails to act on a relative caregiver's complete application as specified under s. DCF 58.08 (1) (a), the relative caregiver may submit a request for a hearing to the division of hearings and appeals no later than 45 days after the date of the deadline for the kinship care agency to process the application under s. DCF 58.08 (1) (b).

Note: A request for a hearing may be mailed to Division of Hearings and Appeals, P.O. Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875; faxed to (608) 264-9885; or delivered to 4822 Madison Yards Way, Madison, WI 53705.

(c) No division of hearings and appeals hearing right. A relative caregiver may not be granted a hearing with the division of hearings and appeals if any of the following conditions is met:

1. The relative caregiver is applying for or receiving kinship care payments, the kinship care agency sent the relative caregiver the notice specified under sub. (1) (a) 1., and any of the following:

a. The relative caregiver has not requested a review by the director under sub. (1).

b. The relative caregiver requested a review by the director under sub. (1), the director has not sent a notice of the determination, and the time allowed for the director to send the notice of the determination has not expired.

2. The kinship care agency determined that the person was ineligible for kinship care or long-term kinship care within the previous 2 years, and the reason for the denial or termination has not changed.

Note: For kinship care, the procedures for a hearing with the Division of Hearings and Appeals are under s. 48.57 (3m) (g), Stats. For long-term kinship care, the procedures for a hearing with the Division of Hearings and Appeals are under s. 48.57 (3n) (g), Stats.

DCF 58.12 Procedures for requesting an exemption for good cause to the requirement for cooperation in securing child support. (1) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

(a) "Emotional harm" means that the child or relative caregiver is emotionally impaired to an extent that substantially affects the child's or relative caregiver's functioning.

(b) "Serious nature" means:

1. In reference to a relative caregiver, that the physical or emotional impairment is or will affect the relative caregiver's capacity to care for the child.

2. In reference to a child, that the physical or emotional impairment is or will affect the child's emotional, mental, or physical functioning.

(2) RIGHT TO REQUEST GOOD CAUSE EXEMPTION. A relative caregiver may request a good cause exemption from the requirement under s. DCF 58.04 (2) (e) to cooperate with the kinship care agency in referring the child's parent or parents to the child support agency.

(3) CLAIMING GOOD CAUSE. (a) Notice. 1. A kinship care agency shall notify the relative caregiver of the opportunity to claim a good cause exemption in the application for kinship care or long-term kinship care.

2. The notice shall describe the right to refuse to cooperate for good cause in securing child support and shall advise the relative caregiver of all of the following:

a. The potential benefits the child may derive from securing child support.

b. That cooperation in securing child support is a condition of eligibility for kinship care and long-term kinship care.

c. That good cause for refusing to cooperate may be claimed and if the kinship care agency finds that there is good cause, the relative caregiver will be excused from the cooperation requirement.

(b) Claim. 1. A relative caregiver may claim good cause in application form prescribed by the department under s. DCF 58.04 (1). The good cause information in the application shall describe the circumstances that support a good cause claim and how a claim should be documented.

2. The information on good cause in the application shall include that the kinship care agency directs the child support agency to proceed to attempt to secure child support without the participation of the relative caregiver.

3. The relative caregiver shall sign and date the good cause claim to initiate the claim.

4. Within 2 days after the date on which the relative caregiver signs the good cause claim under subd. 3., the kinship care agency shall notify the child support agency that the relative caregiver has filed a good cause claim and instruct the child support agency to either not initiate or to suspend activities to secure child support until the claim is determined.

(c) Burden on relative caregiver to establish good cause circumstances. A relative caregiver who refuses to cooperate in securing child support and who claims good cause for refusing to cooperate has the burden of establishing good cause, except as provided in subs. (5) (c) and (11) (a).

(4) GOOD CAUSE CIRCUMSTANCES. The kinship care agency shall determine whether requiring cooperation is contrary to the best interests of the child or the relative caregiver. An exemption may be granted only for one of the following reasons:

(a) The relative caregiver's cooperation can be reasonably anticipated to result in any of the following:

1. Physical harm of a serious nature to the child or to the relative caregiver.

2. Emotional harm of a serious nature to the child or the relative caregiver.

(b) One of the following circumstances exists and it can be reasonably anticipated that proceeding to secure child support would be detrimental to the child:

1. The child was conceived as the result of incest or sexual assault.

2. A petition for adoption of the child has been filed with a court.

3. The parent or parents are being assisted by a social services agency in deciding whether to terminate parental rights and the discussions have not gone on for more than 3 months.

(5) DETERMINATION OF GOOD CAUSE. (a) Within 45 days from the date a claim is signed, the kinship care agency shall determine if there is good cause for a relative caregiver to refuse to cooperate in securing child support. The 45-day period may be extended by the kinship care agency upon written notice to the relative caregiver if the kinship care agency documents that additional time is needed for any of the following reasons:

1. Information needed to verify the claim cannot be obtained by the kinship care agency within 45 days.

2. Supporting evidence was not submitted by the relative caregiver within 20 days as required under sub. (10) (a).

(b) The kinship care agency's determination on whether good cause exists shall be reviewed and signed by a supervisor in the agency.

(c) If there is no evidence or verifiable information available which suggests otherwise, the kinship care agency shall conclude that a refusal to cooperate was a case of cooperation to the fullest extent possible.

(d) The kinship care agency shall place all of the following in the relative caregiver's case record:

1. The agency's final determination on the relative caregiver's good cause claim and the reasons for the determination.

2. All evidence submitted in support of the claim.

(e) Written notice of the final determination shall be given to the relative caregiver and to the child support agency. If the kinship care agency determines that good cause does not exist, the relative caregiver may, within 45 days from the date of the notification, do one of the following:

1. Withdraw the claim and cooperate.

2. Exclude any affected child from the application or case.

3. Withdraw the application or request that the case be closed.

4. Request a hearing under s. DCF 58.11 (2).

(f) A denial or termination of kinship care or long-term kinship care shall remain in effect until there is cooperation or until cooperation is no longer an issue.

(6) APPROVING OR CONTINUING PAYMENTS. If the relative caregiver is cooperating with the kinship care agency in furnishing evidence and information for a determination on good cause, the kinship care agency may not deny, delay, reduce, or discontinue a kinship care or long-term kinship care payment, pending the determination, provided that all other eligibility criteria are met.

(7) PARTICIPATION OF THE CHILD SUPPORT AGENCY. (a) The kinship care agency shall allow the child support agency to review and comment on the findings of the kinship care agency and shall consider the child support agency's recommendations prior to the final determination on good cause by the kinship care agency.

(b) The child support agency may participate in any hearing resulting from a good cause determination.

(c) The final decision on good cause shall be made by the kinship care agency.

(8) EVIDENCE. An initial good cause claim shall be based on evidence in existence at the time of the claim. There is no limitation on the age of the evidence. Once a final decision, including any hearing, is made on the claim, any subsequent claim shall have new evidence as its basis. Any of the following types of evidence may be used in determining good cause:

(a) Birth certificates or medical or law enforcement records that indicate that the child may have been conceived as a result of incest or sexual assault.

(b) Court documents or other records that indicate that a petition for the adoption of the child has been filed with a court.

(c) Court, medical, criminal, child protective services, social services, psychological, school or law enforcement records that indicate that a parent might inflict physical or emotional harm on the child or on the relative caregiver.

(d) Medical records indicating the emotional health history and present emotional health status of the relative caregiver or the child, or a written statement from a mental health professional indicating a diagnosis or prognosis concerning the emotional health of the relative caregiver or the child.

(e) A written statement from a public or private social services agency that the parent is being assisted by that agency to determine whether or not to terminate parental rights.

(f) Sworn statements from persons other than the parent or the relative caregiver with knowledge of the circumstance on which the good cause claim is based.

(g) Any other supporting or corroborative evidence.

(9) SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR PROOF OF GOOD CAUSE. (a) Emotional harm. If a good cause claim is based on emotional harm to the relative caregiver or to the child, the kinship care agency shall consider all of the following:

1. Present emotional state of the person subject to emotional harm.
2. Emotional health history of the person subject to emotional harm.
3. Intensity and probable duration of the emotional harm.
4. Degree of cooperation to be required.
5. Extent of involvement of the child or the relative caregiver in the establishment of the support enforcement activity to be undertaken.

(b) Physical harm. If a good cause claim is based on anticipated physical harm and no evidence is submitted, the kinship care agency shall conduct an investigation.

(c) Incest or sexual assault. If a good cause claim is based on the relative caregiver's statement that the child was conceived as a result of incest or sexual assault, but this is not documented, the claim may be reviewed as one based on emotional harm.

(10) GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR PROOF OF GOOD CAUSE. (a) The relative caregiver who claims good cause shall provide supporting evidence within 20 days from the day the claim is signed. The kinship care agency worker may, with supervisory approval, determine that more time is necessary because of difficulty in obtaining certain evidence.

(b) There shall be at least one document of evidence, in addition to any sworn statements from the relative caregiver, for proof of good cause. The relative caregiver shall be encouraged to provide as many types of evidence as possible. The kinship care agency shall offer assistance in obtaining necessary evidence.

(c) When sufficient evidence to substantiate a good cause claim has not been submitted, the kinship care agency shall do all of the following:

1. Notify the relative caregiver that additional evidence is required and specify that evidence.
2. Advise the relative caregiver on how to obtain the evidence.
3. Make a reasonable effort to obtain specific documents that are not reasonably attainable by the relative caregiver without assistance.

(d) If after having been notified that additional evidence is required, the relative caregiver continues to refuse to cooperate or the evidence obtained does not establish good cause, the kinship care agency shall then notify the relative caregiver that if no further action is taken within 45 days from the date of the notification, good cause will not be found and that the relative caregiver may do any of the following:

1. Withdraw the claim and cooperate.
2. Exclude affected children from the application or case.
3. Withdraw the application or request that the case be closed.
4. Request a hearing under s. DCF 58.11 (2).

(e) If the 45-day period under par. (d) has expired and no action as specified in par. (d) has occurred, the kinship care agency shall deny the application for, or close the case of, any affected child.

(11) INVESTIGATION OF GOOD CAUSE CLAIM. (a) The kinship care agency shall conduct an investigation of any good cause claim based on anticipated physical harm, both when the claim is credible without supporting evidence and when supporting evidence is not available. Good cause shall be found when both the relative caregiver's statement and the investigation satisfy the kinship care agency that the relative caregiver has good cause.

(b) The kinship care agency may also investigate any good cause claim when the relative caregiver's statement, together with the corroborative evidence, does not provide a sufficient basis for a determination.

(c) Neither the kinship care agency nor the child support agency shall, in the course of any investigation, contact the parent from whom support would be sought without first notifying the relative caregiver in writing of the intention to do so. The relative caregiver may, within 45-days from the date of the notification, do any of the following:

1. Present additional supporting or corroborative evidence or information so that contact with the parent is unnecessary.
2. Exclude an affected child from the application or case.
3. Withdraw the application or request that the case be closed.
4. Request a hearing under s. DCF 58.11 (2).

(d) When the 45-day period under par. (c) has expired and no action as specified in par. (c) has occurred, the kinship care agency shall deny the application for, or close the case of, any affected child.

(12) NOTICE OF GOOD CAUSE FINDING. (a) Notice to the child support agency. The kinship care agency shall notify the child support agency in writing of the final determination whether good cause is found or is not found and, if found, whether or not the child support agency should proceed to secure child support without participation of the relative caregiver.

(b) When good cause is found. When good cause is found, the kinship care agency shall do one of the following, as appropriate:

1. Direct the child support agency to suspend all further case activities if it is determined that the child support agency's action, even without participation of the relative caregiver, can be reasonably anticipated to result in physical or emotional harm to the child or the relative caregiver.

2. a. Advise the child support agency to proceed without the participation of the relative caregiver if the child support agency's action can reasonably be anticipated to not result in physical or emotional harm to the child or the relative caregiver.

b. The kinship care agency shall notify the relative caregiver immediately of its intended recommendation to the child support agency under subd. 2. a., but shall delay notice to the child support agency for 45 days from the date on which the kinship care agency gave notice to the relative caregiver to allow the relative caregiver time to exclude any affected child from the application or case, to withdraw the application or request that the case be closed, or to request a hearing.

c. The kinship care agency's recommendation under subd. 2. a. to the child support agency shall be in writing and shall contain the kinship care agency's findings and the basis for its determination. A copy of the written recommendation shall be included in the relative caregiver's case record.

(c) When good cause is not found. When good cause is not found, the kinship care agency shall do all of the following:

1. Provide written notice to the relative caregiver.
2. Wait 45 days before taking further action. If after the 45 days, the relative caregiver still refuses to cooperate and has not excluded the affected child or withdrawn the application or requested that the case be closed, the kinship care agency shall deny the application for any affected child or close the case. If the application is denied or the case is closed for not cooperating in securing child support, the kinship care agency shall inform the relative caregiver, in writing, of the right to a hearing under s. DCF
