Psy 2.10 Supervised psychological experience.

Except as provided in s. Psy 2.013, an applicant for licensure as a psychologist shall complete at least 3,000 hours of supervised graduate-level experience in the practice of psychology under conditions satisfactory to the examining board and shall include all of the following:

(1) Evidence of the following supervised hours shall be provided:

(a) A completed internship of at least 1,500 hours after the completion of all doctoral level coursework. Completion of all doctoral level coursework means all required courses associated with the doctoral degree are completed, unless otherwise determined by the board or its designee.

(b) Additional 1,500 hours accrued by any of the following or combination of any of the following:

1. Any aggregated pre-internship hours completed after the first year of a doctoral program of study leading to a doctorate in psychology or its equivalent, or completed during the first year of such doctoral program of study if the applicant has completed a master's degree in psychology or its equivalent.

2. Any excess hours after the completion of the 1,500 hours during the internship under par. (a).

3. Hours accrued after the internship under par. (a) but accumulated before the conferral of the doctoral degree.

4. Hours acquired after the conferral of the doctoral degree.

(2) Clients shall be informed that the psychological trainee is receiving supervision and that the client's case will be discussed in the context of required supervision. The trainee must inform potential clients in writing of his or her trainee status and lack of license.

(3) A minimum of 25% of the experience required shall consist of face-to-face client contact.

(4) A total of 65% of the experience required shall consist of the face-to-face client contact required under sub. (3) and direct service for the purpose of providing psychological service. For the purposes of this subsection, direct service means those activities a psychologist performs that are directly related to providing psychological services to a client, including note and report writing, studying test results, case consultation, and reviewing published works relating to the client's needs.

(5) The primary supervisor shall be a licensed psychologist and shall have adequate training, knowledge, and skill to render competently any psychological service that a psychological trainee undertakes. The primary supervisor shall have post-licensure experience and shall have had training or experience in supervision of psychological work. Supervisors shall not be an immediate relative by blood or marriage.

(6) The supervisor's responsibilities include all of the following:

(a) Permit a trainee to engage in only psychological practice the supervisor can competently perform.

(b) Have sufficient knowledge of the trainee's clients to ensure effective service. This may include ongoing face-to-face contact with the client.

(c) Monitor the progress of the work on a regular basis.

(d) Determine the adequacy of the trainee's preparation for the tasks to be performed.

(e) Provide a written evaluation of the supervised experience. Prepared evaluations or reports of progress, including strengths and weakness, shall be written and discussed with the trainee on at least a semi annual basis and shall be made available to the board upon request.

(f) Be available or make appropriate provision for emergency consultation and intervention.

(g) Be legally and ethically responsible for the professional activities of the trainee.

(h) Be able to interrupt or stop the trainee from practicing in given cases.

(i) To terminate the supervised relationship if necessary.
