- 10          two-thirds of the members, to grant the relief, in whole or in part, requested by the
- 11          complainant; refer the matter to the attorney general or district attorney, as provided

1 under this section; or to extend the period for resolving the complaint, the 2 commission shall dismiss the complaint.”.

3 6. Page 4, line 14: after that line insert:

4 “(am) The commission shall resolve each complaint received by the commission 5 under s. 5.06 no later than 60 days after receiving the complaint unless the members 6 of the commission, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members, approve 7 extending the time for resolving the complaint by an additional period of 60 days.
8 The commission may adopt more than one 60-day extension under this paragraph.
9 During the 60-day period, and any extension of that period, the commission shall 10 determine, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members, whether to grant the 11 relief, in whole or in part, requested by the complainant or to extend the time for 12 resolving the complaint by an additional period of 60 days. If the commission fails 13 to determine, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members, to grant the relief, 14 in whole or in part, requested by the complainant or to extend the period for resolving 15 the complaint, the commission shall dismiss the complaint.”.
