(4) Subject to sub. (5), the Board of Regents, an institution, or a district board may issue to graduating students tickets for an in-person commencement ceremony and limit attendance at the ceremony to those individuals holding tickets if the Board of Regents, institution, or district board issues at least as many tickets to each graduating student as the student has parents or guardians.

(5) This section does not preclude the Board of Regents, an institution, a district board, or a law enforcement agency from enforcing any restraining order or other administrative or court order against a graduating student's parent or guardian applicable to the parent or guardian's presence at the commencement ceremony.".
