15           and reasonable hours for any of the following purposes:

16           SECTION 389p. 303.08 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

17           303.08 (2) Unless such privilege is expressly granted by the court or, in the case
18           of a person subject to a confinement sanction under s. ~~302.113 (8m)~~ or 302.114 (8m)
19           or 302.115, the department, the person is sentenced to ordinary confinement. A 20           prisoner, other than a person subject to a confinement sanction under s. ~~302.113 (8m)~~ 21           or 302.114 (8m) or 302.115, may petition the court for such privilege at the time of 22           sentence or thereafter, and in the discretion of the court may renew the prisoner's 23           petition. The court may withdraw the privilege at any time by order entered with 24           or without notice.

25           SECTION 389q. 303.08 (5) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

1           303.08 (5) (intro.) By order of the court or, for a person subject to a confinement
2           sanction under s. ~~302.113 (8m) or~~ 302.114 (8m) or 302.115, by order of the 3           department, the wages, salary and unemployment insurance and employment 4           training benefits received by prisoners shall be disbursed by the sheriff for the 5           following purposes, in the order stated:

6           SECTION 389r. 303.08 (6) of the statutes is amended to read:

7           303.08 (6) The department, for a person subject to a confinement sanction
8           under s. ~~302.113 (8m) or~~ 302.114 (8m) or 302.115, or the sentencing court, by order,
9           may authorize the sheriff to whom the prisoner is committed to arrange with another 10          sheriff for the employment or employment training of the prisoner in the other's 11          county, and while so employed or trained to be in the other's custody but in other 12          respects to be and continue subject to the commitment.

13          SECTION 389s. 303.08 (12) of the statutes is amended to read:

14          303.08 (12) In counties having a house of correction, any person violating the 15          privilege granted under sub. (1) may be transferred by the county jailer to the house
16          of correction for the remainder of the term of the person's sentence or, if applicable,
17          the remainder of the person's confinement sanction under s. ~~302.113 (8m) or~~ 302.114
18          (8m) or 302.115.

19          SECTION 389t. 304.06 (3) of the statutes is renumbered 304.06 (3) (a) and 20          amended to read:

21          304.06 (3) (a) Every paroled prisoner remains in the legal custody of the 22          department unless otherwise provided by the department.

23          (b) If the department alleges that any condition or rule of parole has been 24          violated by the prisoner, the department may take physical custody of the prisoner
25          for the investigation of the alleged violation. If the department is satisfied that any

1 condition or rule of parole has been violated it shall afford the prisoner such 2 administrative hearings as are required by law.

3 (c) Unless waived by the parolee, the final administrative hearing shall be held 4 before a hearing examiner from the division of hearings and appeals in the 5 department of administration who is licensed to practice law in this state. The 6 hearing examiner shall enter an order revoking or not revoking parole under par. (g).

7 (d) Upon request by either party, the administrator of the division of hearings
8 and appeals in the department of administration shall review the order.

9 (e) The hearing examiner may order that a deposition be taken by audiovisual 10 means and allow the use of a recorded deposition under s. 967.04 (7) to (10) in a 11 hearing under this subsection.

12 (f) If the parolee waives the final administrative hearing, the secretary of 13 corrections shall enter an order revoking or not revoking parole.

14 (g) If the hearing examiner, the administrator upon review, or the secretary in 15 the case of a waiver finds that the prisoner has violated the rules or conditions of 16 parole, the examiner, the administrator upon review, or the secretary in the case of 17 a waiver, may order the prisoner returned to prison to continue serving his or her 18 sentence, or to continue on parole. The hearing examiner, administrator, or 19 secretary may not revoke parole under this subsection unless one of the following
20 applies:

21 (h) If the prisoner claims or appears to be indigent, the department shall refer 22 the prisoner to the authority for indigency determinations specified under s. 977.07 23 (1).

24 SECTION 389u. 304.06 (3) (g) 1. to 5. of the statutes are created to read:

1           304.06 (3) (g) 1. The person has committed 3 or more independent violations
2 while released on parole.

3           2. The condition that the person violated was a condition that the person not
4 contact any specified individual.

5           3. The person was required to register as a sex offender under s. 301.45.

6           4. When the person violated the condition of parole, the person also allegedly 7 committed a crime.

8           5. The person failed to report or make himself or herself available for 9 supervision for a period of more than 60 consecutive days.

10          SECTION 389v. 304.06 (3g) of the statutes is repealed.

11          SECTION 389w. 304.072 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 forfeiture and order other alternatives under this section; or the court may suspend
2 any license issued under ch. 29 for not less than 30 days nor more than 5 years, or 3 suspend the juvenile's operating privilege, as defined in s. 340.01 (40), for not more
4 than 2 years. If the court suspends any license under this subsection, the clerk of the 5 court shall immediately take possession of the suspended license if issued under ch.
6 29 or, if the license is issued under ch. 343, the court may take possession of, and if
7 possession is taken, shall destroy, the license. The court shall forward to the 8 department ~~which~~ that issued the license a notice of suspension stating that the 9 suspension is for failure to pay a forfeiture imposed by the court, together with any 10 license issued under ch. 29 of which the court takes possession. If the forfeiture is 11 paid during the period of suspension, the suspension shall be reduced to the time 12 period ~~which~~ that has already elapsed and the court shall immediately notify the 13 department, which shall then, if the license is issued under ch. 29, return the license
14 to the juvenile. Any recovery under this subsection shall be reduced by the amount
15 recovered as a forfeiture for the same act under s. 938.45 (1r) (b).

16 SECTION 416h. 938.343 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

17 938.343 (2) FORFEITURE. Impose a forfeiture not to exceed the maximum 18 forfeiture that may be imposed on an adult for committing that violation or, if the 19 violation is only applicable to ~~a person under 18 years of age~~ juveniles, $50. The 20 order shall include a finding that the juvenile alone is financially able to pay and 21 shall allow up to 12 months for the payment. If a juvenile fails to pay the forfeiture,
22 the court may suspend any license issued under ch. 29 or suspend the juvenile's
23 operating privilege, as defined in s. 340.01 (40), for not more than 2 years. The court 24 shall immediately take possession of the suspended license if issued under ch. 29 or, 25 if the license is issued under ch. 343, the court may take possession of, and if

1 possession is taken, shall destroy, the license. The court shall forward to the 2 department ~~which~~ that issued the license the notice of suspension stating that the
3 suspension is for failure to pay a forfeiture imposed by the court, together with any
4 license issued under ch. 29 of which the court takes possession. If the forfeiture is 5 paid during the period of suspension, the court shall immediately notify the 6 department, which shall, if the license is issued under ch. 29, return the license to 7 the person. Any recovery under this subsection shall be reduced by the amount
8 recovered as a forfeiture for the same act under s. 938.45 (1r) (b).

9 SECTION 416i. 938.344 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

10 938.344 (3) PROSECUTION IN ADULT COURT. If the juvenile alleged to have 11 committed the violation is within 3 months of ~~his or her 17th birthday~~ becoming an 12 adult, the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter and ch. 48 may,
13 at the request of the district attorney or on its own motion, dismiss the citation 14 without prejudice and refer the matter to the district attorney for prosecution under 15 s. 125.07 (4). The juvenile is entitled to a hearing only on the issue of his or her age.
16 This subsection does not apply to violations under s. 961.573 (2), 961.574 (2), or 17 961.575 (2) or a local ordinance that strictly conforms to one of those statutes.

18 SECTION 416j. 938.35 (1m) of the statutes is amended to read:

19 938.35 (1m) FUTURE CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS BARRED. Disposition by the court
20 assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter and ch. 48 of any allegation
21 under s. 938.12 or 938.13 (12) shall bar any future proceeding on the same matter
22 in criminal court when the juvenile ~~attains 17 years of age~~ becomes an adult. This 23 subsection does not affect proceedings in criminal court that have been transferred 24 under s. 938.18.

25 SECTION 416k. 938.355 (4) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

1           938.355 (4) (b) Except as provided in s. 938.368, an order under s. 938.34 (4d)
2 or (4m) made before the juvenile attains 18 years of age may apply for up to 2 years
3 after the date on which the order is granted or until the juvenile's ~~18th~~ 19th birthday,
4 whichever is earlier, unless the court specifies a shorter period of time or the court
5 terminates the order sooner. If the order does not specify a termination date, it shall 6 apply for one year after the date on which the order is granted or until the juvenile's
7 ~~18th~~ 19th birthday, whichever is earlier, unless the court terminates the order
8 sooner. Except as provided in s. 938.368, an order under s. 938.34 (4h) made before 9 the juvenile attains 18 years of age shall apply for 5 years after the date on which the 10 order is granted, if the juvenile is adjudicated delinquent for committing a violation
11 of s. 943.10 (2) or for committing an act that would be punishable as a Class B or C 12 felony if committed by an adult, or until the juvenile reaches 25 years of age, if the 13 juvenile is adjudicated delinquent for committing an act that would be punishable 14 as a Class A felony if committed by an adult. Except as provided in s. 938.368, an 15 extension of an order under s. 938.34 (4d), (4h), (4m), or (4n) made before the juvenile 16 ~~attains 17 years of age~~ becomes an adult shall terminate at the end of one year after 17 the date on which the order is granted unless the court specifies a shorter period of 18 time or the court terminates the order sooner. No extension under s. 938.365 of an 19 original dispositional order under s. 938.34 (4d), (4h), (4m), or (4n) may be granted 20 for a juvenile who is ~~17 years of age or older when~~ becomes an adult by the time the 21 original dispositional order terminates.

22           SECTION 416L. 938.355 (4m) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

23           938.355 (4m) (a) A juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent under s. 48.12,
24 1993 stats., or s. 938.12 may, on ~~attaining 17 years of age~~ becoming an adult, petition
25 the court to expunge the court's record of the juvenile's adjudication. Subject to par.

1 (b), the court may expunge the record if the court determines that the juvenile has 2 satisfactorily complied with the conditions of his or her dispositional order and that 3 the juvenile will benefit from, and society will not be harmed by, the expungement.

4 SECTION 416m. 938.39 of the statutes is amended to read:

5 938.39 Disposition by court bars criminal proceeding. Disposition by the 6 court of any violation of state law within its jurisdiction under s. 938.12 bars any 7 future criminal proceeding on the same matter in circuit court when the juvenile 8 reaches the age of 17 becomes an adult. This section does not affect criminal 9 proceedings in circuit court that were transferred under s. 938.18.

10 SECTION 416n. Subchapter IX (title) of chapter 938 [precedes 938.44] of the 11 statutes is amended to read:

12 CHAPTER 938

13 SUBCHAPTER IX

14 JURISDICTION OVER PERSONS 17

15 OR OLDER ADULTS

16 SECTION 416o. 938.44 of the statutes is amended to read:

17 938.44 Jurisdiction over persons ~~17 or older~~ adults. The court has 18 jurisdiction over persons ~~17 years of age or older~~ adults as provided under ss. 938.355
19 (4), 938.357 (6), 938.365 (5), and 938.45 and as otherwise specified in this chapter.

20 SECTION 416p. 938.45 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

21 938.45 (1) (a) If in the hearing of a case of a juvenile alleged to be delinquent 22 under s. 938.12 or in need of protection or services under s. 938.13 it appears that any 23 person ~~17 years of age or older~~ adult has been guilty of contributing to, encouraging, 24 or tending to cause by any act or omission, ~~such~~ that condition of the juvenile, the 25 court may make orders with respect to the conduct of that person in his or her

1 relationship to the juvenile, including orders relating to determining the ability of 2 the person to provide for the maintenance or care of the juvenile and directing when,
3 how, and from where funds for the maintenance or care shall be paid.

4 SECTION 416q. 938.45 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

5 938.45 (3) PROSECUTION OF ADULT CONTRIBUTING TO DELINQUENCY OF JUVENILE.
6 If it appears at a court hearing that any person ~~17 years of age or older~~ adult has 7 violated s. 948.40, the court shall refer the record to the district attorney. This 8 subsection does not prohibit prosecution of violations of s. 948.40 without the prior 9 reference by the court to the district attorney.

10 SECTION 416r. 938.48 (4m) (title) of the statutes is amended to read:

11 938.48 (4m) (title) CONTINUING CARE AND SERVICES FOR JUVENILES ~~OVER 17~~ WHO

4           973.01 (2) (d) 4. For a Class D, E, F, or G felony, the term of extended 5 supervision may not exceed 5 years.

6           SECTION 417e. 973.01 (3g) of the statutes is repealed.

7           SECTION 417f. 973.01 (5m) of the statutes is created to read:

8           973.01 (5m) EARLY DISCHARGE FROM EXTENDED SUPERVISION. (a) In this 9 subsection, “qualifying offense” means a crime other than a violation of ch. 940 or s.
10 948.02, 948.025, 948.03, 948.05, 948.051, 948.055, 948.06, 948.07, 948.075, 948.08,
11 948.085, or 948.095.

12           (b) The court may modify the person’s sentence by reducing the term of 13 extended supervision and may order early discharge of the person from the sentence
14 if all of the following apply:

15           1. The department petitions the court to discharge the person from extended 16 supervision for a qualifying offense.

17           2. The person has completed 3 years or 50 percent of his or her term of extended 18 supervision for the qualifying offense, whichever is less.

19           3. The person has satisfied all conditions of extended supervision that were set 20 by the sentencing court for the qualifying offense.

21           4. The person has satisfied all rules and conditions of supervision that were set 22 by the department for the qualifying offense.

23           5. The person has fulfilled all financial obligations to his or her victims.

24           6. The person is not required to register under s. 301.45.

1 (c) If a person is serving more than one sentence, early discharge under par. (b)
2 applies only to the terms of extended supervision imposed for qualifying offenses.

3 (d) 1. In this paragraph, "victim" has the meaning given in s. 950.02 (4).

4 2. When a court receives a petition under par. (b) 1., the clerk of the circuit court
5 shall send a notice of hearing to the victim of the crime committed by the person 6 serving the term of extended supervision, if the victim has submitted a card under 7 subd. 3. requesting notification. The notice shall inform the victim that he or she may 8 appear at any hearing scheduled under par. (b) and shall inform the victim of the 9 manner in which he or she may provide a statement concerning the early discharge
10 from extended supervision. The clerk of the circuit court shall make a reasonable 11 attempt to send the notice of hearing to the last-known address of the victim, 12 postmarked at least 10 days before the date of the hearing.

13 3. The director of state courts shall design and prepare cards for a victim to send 14 to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which the person serving the term 15 of extended supervision was convicted and sentenced. The cards shall have space for 16 a victim to provide his or her name and address, the name of the applicable person
17 serving a term of extended supervision, and any other information that the director 18 of state courts determines is necessary. The director of state courts shall provide the 19 cards, without charge, to clerks of circuit court. Clerks of circuit court shall provide 20 the cards, without charge, to victims. Victims may send completed cards to the clerk
21 of the circuit court for the county in which the person serving a term of extended
22 supervision was convicted and sentenced. All court records or portions of records
23 that relate to mailing addresses of victims are not subject to inspection or copying
24 under s. 19.35 (1).

25 SECTION 417g. 973.01 (8) (a) 6. of the statutes is created to read:

1           973.01 (8) (a) 6. The conditions under which the court may reduce the term of 2 the person's extended supervision under sub. (5m).

3           SECTION 417h. 973.01 (8) (ag) of the statutes is amended to read:

4           973.01 (8) (ag) ~~If the The court provides under sub. (3g) that shall inform the~~
5 ~~person is eligible to participate in of the availability of the earned release program~~
6 ~~under s. 302.05 (3), the court shall also inform the person of the provisions of s. 302.05~~
7 ~~(3) (e).~~

22           973.10 (2) (bm) 1. Probation may not be revoked unless one of the following
23 applies:

24           a. The person committed 3 or more independent violations while on probation.

1           b. The condition that the person violated was a condition that the person not
2 contact any specified individual.

3           c. The person was required to register as a sex offender under s. 301.45.

4           d. When the person violated the condition of probation, the person also 5 allegedly committed a crime.

6           e. The person failed to report or make himself or herself available for 7 supervision for a period of more than 60 consecutive days.

8           SECTION 417L. 973.10 (2s) of the statutes is repealed.

9           SECTION 417m. 973.15 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

10           973.15 (5) A convicted offender who is made available to another jurisdiction 11 under ch. 976 or in any other lawful manner shall be credited with service of his or 12 her Wisconsin sentence or commitment under the terms of s. ss. 973.155 and 973.156
13 for the duration of custody in the other jurisdiction.

14           SECTION 417n. 973.156 of the statutes is created to read:

15           973.156 Earned compliance credit. (1) In this section, “qualifying offense”
16 means a crime other than a violation of ch. 940 or s. 948.02, 948.025, 948.03, 948.05,
17 948.051, 948.055, 948.06, 948.07, 948.075, 948.08, 948.085, or 948.095.

18           (2) Upon the revocation of extended supervision under s. 302.113 (9) or parole 19 under s. 302.11 (7), a person shall be given earned compliance credit toward the 20 service of his or her sentence for a qualifying offense for each day that the person 21 spent on extended supervision or parole without violating a condition or rule of 22 extended supervision or parole prior to the violation that resulted in the revocation.
23 A person may not be given earned compliance credit for any time between the date
24 of the most recent violation and the date of the revocation.

1           (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person who is required to register under 2 s. 301.45.

3           (4) If a person is serving more than one sentence, earned compliance credit 4 under sub. (2) is earned only for the time spent on extended supervision or parole for 5 qualifying offenses.

6           (5) The amount of the credit under sub. (2) shall be calculated and applied by 7 the appropriate reviewing authority under s. 302.11 (7) (am) or 302.113 (9) (am) 1.”.

10           973.01 (3) NOT APPLICABLE TO LIFE SENTENCES. If a person is being sentenced for 11 a felony that is punishable by life imprisonment, he or she is not subject to this 12 section but shall be sentenced under s. 973.014 (1g) or (3).

13           SECTION 417em. 973.01 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

14           973.01 (4) NO GOOD TIME; EXTENSION OR REDUCTION OF TERM OF IMPRISONMENT. A 15 person sentenced to a bifurcated sentence under sub. (1) shall serve the term of 16 confinement in prison portion of the sentence without reduction for good behavior.
17 The term of confinement in prison portion is subject to extension under s. 302.113 (3)
18 and, if applicable, to reduction under s. 302.045 (3m), 302.05 (3) (c) 2. a., 302.113 (9g), 19 973.018, 973.195 (1r), or 973.198.

20           SECTION 417hm. 973.014 (1) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

21           973.014 (1) (intro.) Except as provided in sub. (2) or (3), when a court sentences
22 a person to life imprisonment for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1988, but 23 before December 31, 1999, the court shall make a parole eligibility determination
24 regarding the person and choose one of the following options:

1           SECTION 417hn. 973.014 (1g) (a) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:
2           973.014 (1g) (a) (intro.) Except as provided in sub. (2) or (3), when a court
3 sentences a person to life imprisonment for a crime committed on or after December
4 31, 1999, the court shall make an extended supervision eligibility date determination
5 regarding the person and choose one of the following options:

6           SECTION 417ho. 973.014 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

7           973.014 (3) (a) In this subsection, “youthful offender” means a person who 8 committed an offense before the person attained the age of 18 years.

9           (b) When a court sentences a youthful offender to life imprisonment for a crime
10 committed on or after July 1, 1988, but before December 31, 1999, the court shall set
11 a date on which the youthful offender is eligible for parole.

12           (c) When a court sentences a youthful offender to life imprisonment for a crime
13 committed on or after December 31, 1999, the court shall set a date on which the 14 youthful offender is eligible for release to extended supervision.

15           (d) When sentencing a youthful offender to life imprisonment under par. (b) or 16 (c), the court shall inform the youthful offender of the procedure for petitioning for 17 a sentence adjustment under s. 973.018.

18           (e) When sentencing a youthful offender to life imprisonment under par. (b) or 19 (c), the court shall consider, in addition to all other relevant factors, all of the 20 following:

21           1. That, because children are less criminally culpable and more amenable to 22 reform, youthful offenders are constitutionally different from adults for the purposes
23 of sentencing.

24           2. That the sentencing goals of deterrence, retribution, and incapacitation are 25 secondary to the goal of rehabilitation when sentencing youthful offenders.

1           3. That unless the state proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the youthful
2 offender is permanently incorrigible and is therefore unable to be rehabilitated,
3 youthful offenders must have a meaningful opportunity to obtain release from prison
4 based on maturity and rehabilitation.

5           SECTION 417hp. 973.017 (2c) of the statutes is created to read:

6           973.017 (2c) MITIGATION FOR YOUTH. When making a sentencing decision for a 7 person who had not attained the age of 18 years at the time the crime was committed,
8 the court shall consider all of the following mitigating factors:

9           (a) That, because children are less criminally culpable and more amenable to 10 reform, youthful offenders are constitutionally different from adults for the purposes
11 of sentencing.

12           (b) That the sentencing goals of deterrence, retribution, and incapacitation are 13 secondary to the goal of rehabilitation when sentencing youthful offenders.

14           (c) That unless the state proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the youthful
15 offender is permanently incorrigible and is therefore unable to be rehabilitated,
16 youthful offenders must have a meaningful opportunity to obtain release from prison
17 based on maturity and rehabilitation.

18           SECTION 417hq. 973.018 of the statutes is created to read:

19           973.018 Sentence adjustment for youthful offenders. (1) DEFINITION. In 20 this section, “youthful offender” has the meaning given in s. 973.014 (3) (a).

21           (2) SENTENCE ADJUSTMENT; FACTORS. A court may reduce a term of 22 imprisonment, including life imprisonment under s. 973.014 (3), for a youthful 23 offender who has served 15 years of his or her term of imprisonment if the court finds 24 that the interests of justice warrant a reduction. In making its determination, the 25 court shall consider all of the following:

1 (a) The sentencing factors set forth in ss. 973.014 (3) (e) and 973.017 (2c).

2 (b) The youthful offender's subsequent growth, behavior, and rehabilitation
3 while incarcerated.

4 (3) PETITION FOR SENTENCE ADJUSTMENT. (a) One year before the youthful 5 offender becomes eligible for a sentence adjustment under this section, the 6 department shall provide written notice of the eligibility to the qualifying youthful 7 offender, the sentencing court, the district attorney for the county in which the 8 youthful offender was sentenced, and the state public defender. Notice under this 9 paragraph shall include notice of the youthful offender's right to counsel and notice 10 that if the youthful offender believes that he or she cannot afford an attorney, the 11 youthful offender may ask the state public defender to represent him or her.

12 (b) A youthful offender has a right to counsel in the sentence adjustment
13 proceedings under this section. The right to counsel begins at the service of notice 14 under par. (a).

15 (c) After service of notice under par. (a) and upon request by the youthful 16 offender or the youthful offender's attorney, the court shall make documents from the 17 sentencing hearing available to the youthful offender or his or her attorney, including 18 the presentence investigation report in accordance with s. 972.15 (4m) and the 19 transcript from the sentencing hearing.

20 (d) A qualifying youthful offender may file a petition for a sentence adjustment
21 under this section. The petitioner shall file the petition and any affidavits and other 22 written support for the petition in the sentencing court no more than 90 days before 23 the youthful offender's eligibility date. A copy of the petition shall be served on the 24 district attorney in the county in which the youthful offender was sentenced.

1           (e) Upon receipt of a petition under par. (d), the district attorney shall notify 2 any victims of the crime in accordance with s. 950.04 (1v) (gm).

3           (4) HEARING. (a) The court shall hold a hearing within 120 days of a petition
4 filed under sub. (3) (d), unless all parties agree to an extension for the hearing date.

5           (b) The court shall consider relevant information, including expert testimony
6 and other information about the youthful offender's participation in any available 7 educational, vocational, volunteer, community service, or other programs, the 8 youthful offender's work reports and psychological evaluations, and the youthful 9 offender's major violations of institutional rules, if any.

10          (c) The youthful offender has the right to attend the hearing, the right to be 11 represented by counsel, and the right to testify, present evidence, and cross-examine 12 witnesses.

13          (d) The victim shall be given the opportunity to provide a statement concerning 14 sentencing in accordance with s. 950.04 (1v) (m).

15          (e) A hearing under this subsection shall be recorded.

16          (f) The decision of the court on a petition under sub. (3) is a final adjudication
17 subject to appeal under s. 809.30.

18          (5) ORDER. If the court finds that the interests of justice warrant a sentence 19 adjustment, the court may amend the judgment of conviction according to one of the 20 following:

21          (a) If the youthful offender is serving a sentence for a crime committed before 22 December 31, 1999, reduce the parole eligibility date and modify the conditions of 23 parole. The court may also reduce the sentence, but shall provide for at least 3 years 24 of parole supervision after release from prison.

1           (b) Upon request by the youthful offender, for a crime committed before
2           December 31, 1999, convert an indeterminate sentence to a bifurcated sentence
3           under s. 973.01 or 973.014 (1g). If the court converts the indeterminate sentence to 4           a bifurcated sentence, the court shall set a date for release to extended supervision
5           under s. 302.113 that is no later than the original parole eligibility date. The court
6           may also modify the conditions of parole or extended supervision.

7           (c) For a crime committed on or after December 31, 1999, reduce the term of 8           confinement in prison and modify the conditions of extended supervision. The court
9           may also reduce the total length of the bifurcated sentence. Notwithstanding s.
10          973.01 (2) (d), the court shall provide for at least 3 years of extended supervision
11          under s. 302.113.

12          (d) For a life sentence without the possibility of parole or release to extended
13          supervision under s. 973.014 (1) (c) or (1g) (a) 3., convert the sentence to a life
14          sentence with the possibility of parole or release to extended supervision and set a 15          date for parole eligibility or release to extended supervision and conditions for parole
16          or extended supervision accordingly.

17          (6) SUBSEQUENT PETITIONS. A youthful offender is eligible to file a subsequent 18          petition under sub. (3) no earlier than 5 years after a hearing is held under sub. (4), 19          unless the court sets an earlier date. A youthful offender may file no more than 5 20          petitions under sub. (3) during his or her sentence.

21          (7) SENTENCE MODIFICATION ON OTHER GROUNDS. Nothing in this section limits
22          the youthful offender's right to resentencing, sentence adjustment, or sentence
23          modification on other grounds, including under s. 302.113 (9g) or 302.114.

24          SECTION 417Lm. 973.15 (2m) (a) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

1           973.15 (2m) (a) 1. “Determinate sentence” means a bifurcated sentence
2 imposed under s. 973.01 or a life sentence under which a person is eligible for release
3 to extended supervision under s. 973.014 (1g) (a) 1. or 2. or (3) (c).

4           SECTION 417o. 977.05 (4) (i) 10. of the statutes is created to read:

5           977.05 (4) (i) 10. Cases involving youthful offenders under s. 973.018 (3).

6           SECTION 417p. 978.07 (1) (c) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

7           978.07 (1) (c) 1. Any case record of a felony punishable by life imprisonment
8 or a related case, after the defendant’s parole eligibility date under s. 304.06 (1) or 9 973.014 (1) or (3) (b) or date of eligibility for release to extended supervision under 10 s. 973.014 (1g) (a) 1. or 2. or (3) (c), whichever is applicable, or 50 years after the 11 commencement of the action, whichever occurs later. If there is no parole eligibility 12 date or no date for release to extended supervision, the district attorney may destroy 13 the case record after the defendant’s death.”

24          “SECTION 9108. Nonstatutory provisions; Corrections.

1           (1e) EARNED RELEASE PROGRAM; REPORT. No later than the first day of the 12th 2 month beginning after the effective date of this subsection, the department of 3 corrections shall submit a report to the chief clerk of each house of the legislature for 4 distribution to the appropriate standing committees under s. 13.172 (3). The 5 department shall report on the aging and elderly population of inmates in Wisconsin 6 prisons, the costs of health care and other accommodations for that population, and 7 trends and projections for the aging and elderly population and associated costs. The 8 department shall also report on the feasibility, including costs and projected savings, 9 of establishing and operating a state run facility for elderly inmates, the feasibility
10 for adopting electronic monitoring as an alternative to incarceration for elderly 11 inmates, and the possibility for eligibility for medical assistance for individuals who 12 would qualify for alternatives to incarceration.

13           (2e) EARNED RELEASE PROGRAM; RULES. The department of corrections shall 14 update its administrative rules to implement earned release for completion of a 15 vocational readiness training program under s. 302.05 (3), including specification of 16 the eligibility criteria for persons sentenced before the effective date of this 17 subsection to participate in the program.

18           (3e) CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION. No later than July 1, 2022, the department of 19 corrections shall review the efficacy of its standard conditions and rules of 20 supervision, and shall provide a report to the governor, the chief clerk of each house 21 of the legislature for distribution to the appropriate standing committees in the 22 manner provided under s. 13.172 (3), and the director of state courts. The report shall 23 include the number of violations reported for each condition and rule and a 24 comparison of the department of correction's standard conditions and rules of 25 supervision to conditions and rules of supervision in other states.

1           (4e) EARNED COMPLIANCE CREDIT. A person who is serving a sentence for a 2 violation other than a crime specified in ch. 940 or s. 948.02, 948.025, 948.03, 948.05, 3 948.051, 948.055, 948.06, 948.07, 948.075, 948.08, 948.085, or 948.095 and who is in 4 custody upon revocation of extended supervision or parole on the effective date of this 5 subsection may petition the department to be given credit under s. 973.156. Upon 6 proper verification of the facts alleged in the petition, s. 973.156 shall be applied
7 retroactively to the person. If the department is unable to determine whether credit 8 should be given, or otherwise refuses to award retroactive credit, the person may 9 petition the sentencing court for relief. This subsection applies regardless of the date
10 the person was sentenced. A person who is required to register under s. 301.45 is not 11 eligible to receive credit under this subsection.

12           (5e) REPORTS ON RISK ASSESSMENT AND TRAINING.

13           (a) The department of corrections shall conduct a review of the department's 14 evidence-based risk assessment tool and shall submit a report to the governor, the 15 chief clerk of each house of the legislature for distribution to the appropriate 16 standing committees in the manner provided under s. 13.172 (3), and the director of 17 state courts no later than the first day of the 12th month beginning after the effective
18 date of this paragraph. The department shall include in the report a review of the 19 available alternatives to the current risk assessment tool and the costs and savings 20 that would result from the use of alternatives. The department shall include in its 21 review the efficacy of an evidence-based risk assessment tool that uses ongoing or 22 recurring evaluations of an individual's ability to meet the conditions of supervision.

23           (b) The department of corrections shall conduct a review of the department's 24 training of community supervision officers and shall submit a report to the governor,
25 the chief clerk of each house of the legislature for distribution to the appropriate

1 standing committees in the manner provided under s. 13.172 (3), and the director of
2 state courts no later than the first day of the 12th month beginning after the effective
3 date of this paragraph. The department shall include in its report an evaluation of 4 best practices and outcomes of training models used in other states.”.
