February 24, 2022 - Offered by Representatives DRAKE, BOWEN, HAYWOOD, STUBBS, L. MYERS, BALDEH, MOORE OMOKUNDE, NEUBAUER, SPREITZER, HEBL, SUBECK, HESSELBEIN, VINING, BROSTOFF, CONSIDINE, EMERSON, B. MEYERS, OHNSTAD, ANDERSON, HONG, CONLEY, HINTZ, RIEMER, ANDRACA, MCGUIRE, SHANKLAND, SNODGRASS, S. RODRIGUEZ, SHELTON, POPE, VRUWINK, GOYKE, DOYLE, MILROY, ORTIZ-VELEZ, CABRERA and BILLINGS.

1     Relating to: proclaiming February 2022 as Black History Month.

2             Whereas, Black History Month provides a deliberate opportunity to reflect on 3     the common humanity underlying all people and to raise awareness and foster 4     respect for the heritage and contributions of people of African descent; and

5             Whereas, this year marks over 400 years since the arrival of enslaved Africans 6     in Virginia. The existence of Africans in North America can be traced back to 1525,
7     and through 1866 the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade is estimated to have ensnared 8     more than 12 million African people, with an estimated 10 million surviving the 9     unconscionable Middle Passage, landing in North America, the Caribbean, and 10    South America; and

11            Whereas, Wisconsin history first references African descendants in a speech
12    given in 1725 by a chief of the Illinois Indians, in which he said, “a negro belonging 13    to Monsieur de Boisbriant” at Green Bay; and

1           Whereas, on February 12, 1926, noted Harvard scholar and historian Dr.
2 Carter G. Woodson founded “Negro History Week,” and since then the United States
3 has recognized first Negro History Week and then Black History Month and 4 celebrated the ethnic and racial diversity that enriches and strengthens our nation; 5 and

6           Whereas, both enslaved and free people of African descent have participated in 7 every aspect of America’s effort to secure, protect, and advance the cause of freedom 8 and civil rights, and have stories that are an inspiration to all citizens, that reflect 9 the triumph of the human spirit, and that offer the hopes of everyday people to rise 10 above both prejudice and circumstance and to build lives of dignity; and

11           Whereas, people of African descent or African Americans have made
