$\begin{array}{c} LRB\text{--}5621/1 \\ CMH\text{:emw} \end{array}$

2023 ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION 105

January 19, 2024 - Introduced by Representatives Wittke, Schutt, Tusler, Plumer, Rozar, Schmidt, Rettinger, Melotik, Allen, Penterman, Dittrich, Duchow, Gustafson, Murphy, Callahan, Green and O'Connor, cosponsored by Senators Tomczyk, Wanggaard, Bradley and Felzkowski. Referred to Committee on Rules.

1	Relating to: declaring the week of January 21 to 27, 2024, School Choice Week and
2	recognizing the right of parents to select the best educational path for their
3	children.
4	Whereas, National School Choice Week informs, inspires, and empowers
5	parents to discover the K-12 education options available to their children, while
6	generating widespread public awareness of the importance of opportunity in $K\!-\!12$
7	education; and
8	Whereas, Wisconsin's pioneering school choice program was launched in
9	Milwaukee in 1990 to offer scholarships to low-income students wishing to attend
10	a private school; and
11	Whereas, the Milwaukee Parental Choice Program was the first of its kind in
12	the United States and has since grown to educate more than 29,000 students in 130
13	schools; and
14	Whereas, the Wisconsin Legislature expanded school choice to Racine in 2011,
15	statewide in 2013, and to the special needs scholarships in 2015; and

24

25

1	Whereas, the Racine Parental Choice Program educates more than 4,000
2	students in 35 schools, the Special Needs Scholarship Program educates more than
3	2,700 students in 160 schools, and the statewide choice program educates over
4	19,000 students in 330 schools; and
5	Whereas, over 124,000 students attend private schools in Wisconsin, and
6	approximately 44 percent of private school students receive a state-supported
7	scholarship via the four Wisconsin parental choice programs; and
8	Whereas, nearly 50,000 students attend charter schools in Wisconsin,
9	including public, virtual, and independent charter options; and
10	Whereas, parents across Wisconsin choose public school open enrollment, with
11	over 71,000 students statewide transferring from one public school district to
12	another; and
13	Whereas, nearly 30,000 Wisconsin students are homeschooled; and
1314	Whereas, nearly 30,000 Wisconsin students are homeschooled; and Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident
14	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident
14 15	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident public school, while the remaining 28 percent choose a different option based on what
14 15 16	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident public school, while the remaining 28 percent choose a different option based on what works best for each child and family; and
14151617	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident public school, while the remaining 28 percent choose a different option based on what works best for each child and family; and Whereas, choice schools see significant success in student achievement and are
14 15 16 17 18	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident public school, while the remaining 28 percent choose a different option based on what works best for each child and family; and Whereas, choice schools see significant success in student achievement and are regularly lauded as innovators in education; and
14 15 16 17 18 19	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident public school, while the remaining 28 percent choose a different option based on what works best for each child and family; and Whereas, choice schools see significant success in student achievement and are regularly lauded as innovators in education; and Whereas, all of these options provide parents with more educational
14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Whereas, 72 percent of Wisconsin parents enroll their children in their resident public school, while the remaining 28 percent choose a different option based on what works best for each child and family; and Whereas, choice schools see significant success in student achievement and are regularly lauded as innovators in education; and Whereas, all of these options provide parents with more educational opportunities and a variety of pathways to consider; now, therefore, be it

(END)

options available to them in our great state.