Referred to Committee on Government Operations, Accountability, and Transparency.

1 AN ACT to amend 20.865 (1) (a), 20.865 (1) (g), 20.865 (1) (q) and 227.40 (4) (a)
2 of the statutes; relating to: challenges to the validity of administrative rules
3 and making an appropriation.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the validity of an administrative rule may be challenged in an action for declaratory judgment or in certain other judicial proceedings when material therein. This bill requires a court, if the court declares a rule invalid, to award the party asserting the invalidity of the rule reasonable attorney fees and costs.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
