

2025 ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION 34

April 23, 2025 - Introduced by Representatives VANDERMEER, BILLINGS, DITTRICH, CLANCY, DESMIDT, DOYLE, DUCHOW, GUNDRUM, J. JACOBSON, JOERS, JOHNSON, KITCHENS, KRUG, KURTZ, MADISON, MIRESSE, MURSAU, ORTIZ-VELEZ, PALMERI, PHELPS, ROE, SINICKI, SPAUDE, STUBBS and SUBECK, cosponsored by Senators JAMES, PFAFF, DASSLER-ALFHEIM, L. JOHNSON, KEYESKI, RATCLIFF, ROYS, SPREITZER, TESTIN and WALL. Referred to Committee on Rules.

1	Relating to: honoring the 50th anniversary of the child support program.
2	Whereas, President Gerald R. Ford Jr. signed the Social Services
3	Amendments of 1974 (H.R. 17045), into law on January 4, 1975, creating the 4	federal child support program as we know it today; and
5	Whereas, President Ford recognized the importance of child support at the 6	time, calling it "a major piece of domestic legislation and a significant step forward
7	in Federal-State relations"; and
8	Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by the
9	Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child support
10	agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and
11	Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs in 12	the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the 13	poverty gap by an average of 44 percent; and

1	Whereas, in fiscal year 2023, the Wisconsin child support program served
2	341,000 children and collected $841 million in economic support; and
3	Whereas, by collaborating with their communities, county, state, and tribal 4	child support agencies and programs serve children and families by providing
5	needs-specific resources to assist families while encouraging family self-sufficiency;
6	and
7	Whereas, over the past half century, the child support program has evolved to
8	include initiatives that connect parents to important services—including 9	employment training and treatment courts—so the parents can develop strong and 10	healthy relationships with their children; and
11	Whereas, Wisconsin has hundreds of hard-working child support
12	professionals who help fathers establish legal rights to their children, establish and 13	enforce support orders, and secure private health insurance for children; and
14	Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is a national leader, ranking
15	third in the nation for the collection and distribution of current support; now,
16	therefore, be it
17	Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the members of 18	the Wisconsin Legislature honor January 4, 2025, as the 50th Anniversary of the
19	child support program and commend the county, state, and tribal agency staff
20	members who work to promote financial security for Wisconsin children and 21	families.
