

2025 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 34

April 25, 2025 - Introduced by Senators JAMES, PFAFF, DASSLER-ALFHEIM, L. JOHNSON, KEYESKI, RATCLIFF, ROYS, SPREITZER, TESTIN and WALL, cosponsored by Representatives VANDERMEER, BILLINGS, DITTRICH, CLANCY, DESMIDT, DOYLE, DUCHOW, GUNDRUM, J. JACOBSON, JOERS, JOHNSON, KITCHENS, KRUG, KURTZ, MADISON, MIRESSE, MURSAU, ORTIZ-VELEZ, PALMERI, PHELPS, ROE, SINICKI, SPAUDE, STUBBS and SUBECK. Referred to Committee on Senate Organization.

<ul> <li>Amendments of 1974 (H.R. 17045), into law on January 4, 1975, creating th</li> <li>federal child support program as we know it today; and</li> <li>Whereas, President Ford recognized the importance of child support at th</li> <li>time, calling it "a major piece of domestic legislation and a significant step forwar</li> <li>in Federal-State relations"; and</li> <li>Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by th</li> <li>Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child suppor</li> <li>agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and</li> <li>Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs is</li> </ul>	1	Relating to: honoring the 50th anniversary of the child support program.
<ul> <li>federal child support program as we know it today; and</li> <li>Whereas, President Ford recognized the importance of child support at th</li> <li>time, calling it "a major piece of domestic legislation and a significant step forwar</li> <li>in Federal-State relations"; and</li> <li>Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by th</li> <li>Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child suppor</li> <li>agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and</li> <li>Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs is</li> <li>the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the</li> </ul>	2	Whereas, President Gerald R. Ford Jr. signed the Social Services
5 Whereas, President Ford recognized the importance of child support at th 6 time, calling it "a major piece of domestic legislation and a significant step forwar 7 in Federal-State relations"; and 8 Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by th 9 Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child suppor 10 agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and 11 Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs is 12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed th	3	Amendments of 1974 (H.R. 17045), into law on January 4, 1975, creating the
<ul> <li>time, calling it "a major piece of domestic legislation and a significant step forwar</li> <li>in Federal-State relations"; and</li> <li>Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by th</li> <li>Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child support</li> <li>agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and</li> <li>Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs if</li> <li>the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the</li> </ul>	4	federal child support program as we know it today; and
7 in Federal-State relations"; and 8 Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by th 9 Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child support 10 agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and 11 Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs is 12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the	5	Whereas, President Ford recognized the importance of child support at the
8 Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by th 9 Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child support 10 agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and 11 Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs if 12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed th	6	time, calling it "a major piece of domestic legislation and a significant step forward
<ul> <li>9 Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child support</li> <li>10 agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and</li> <li>11 Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs if</li> <li>12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the</li> </ul>	7	in Federal-State relations"; and
10 agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and 11 Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs i 12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the	8	Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is administered by the
11 Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs i 12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed th	9	Department of Children and Families and operated by 71 county child support
12 the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed th	10	agencies and nine tribal child support agencies; and
	11	Whereas, child support is one of the most effective anti-poverty programs in
13 poverty gap by an average of 44 percent; and	12	the nation, and analysis of Wisconsin data shows that child support closed the
	13	poverty gap by an average of 44 percent; and

1	Whereas, in fiscal year 2023, the Wisconsin child support program served
2	341,000 children and collected $841 million in economic support; and
3	Whereas, by collaborating with their communities, county, state, and tribal
4	child support agencies and programs serve children and families by providing
5	needs-specific resources to assist families while encouraging family self-sufficiency;
6	and
7	Whereas, over the past half century, the child support program has evolved to
8	include initiatives that connect parents to important services—including 9	employment training and treatment courts—so the parents can develop strong and 10	healthy relationships with their children; and
11	Whereas, Wisconsin has hundreds of hard-working child support
12	professionals who help fathers establish legal rights to their children, establish and
13	enforce support orders, and secure private health insurance for children; and
14	Whereas, Wisconsin's child support program is a national leader, ranking
15	third in the nation for the collection and distribution of current support; now,
16	therefore, be it
17	Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of 18	the Wisconsin Legislature honor January 4, 2025, as the 50th Anniversary of the
19	child support program and commend the county, state, and tribal agency staff
20	members who work to promote financial security for Wisconsin children and 21	families.

- 2 -

22

(END)