RE: Voting Systems by County

DATE: November 10, 2004

At the October meeting of the Special Committee on Election Law Review, committee members inquired about the different types of voting systems used in the state. The enclosed document, prepared by staff of the State Elections Board in November 2003, identifies the various types of voting equipment in use throughout Wisconsin. According to Kevin Kennedy, Executive Director, State Elections Board, this information may be updated by the end of this year as surveys related to the November elections are returned by municipal clerks from throughout the state.
