

Small Business Profile: WISCONSIN

Entrepreneurs, innovators, and small businesses are key players in the economy of Wisconsin. They make up most of the employer firms in the state, and their contribution is indispensable. Their diverse composition and the spectrum of opportunities they offer are captured in this Small Business Profile, using the most current federal data available.

Number of Businesses. The state had an estimated total of 435,900 small businesses based on the most recent data.¹ Firms with employees numbered 127,714 in 2005, of which an estimated 98.0 percent or 125,160 were small firms (fewer than 500 employees). Self-employment (including incorporated) increased by 9.5 percent, from 311,994 in 2004 to 341,632 in 2005.² In 2004, non-employer firms increased by 4.6 percent and numbered 310,724. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau; U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics.)

Women-Owned Firms. Firms owned by women increased 17 percent between 1997 and 2002, from 89,284 to 104,170; they represented 26.5 percent of the state's total businesses in 2002. These firms (with and without paid employees) generated $17.6 billion in revenues in 2002. Of the total number of women-owned firms, 16.2 percent or 16,882 firms were employer firms. In 2005, self-employed women totaled 127,633, an increase of 38.1 percent from 2004, and they represented 37.4 percent of self-employed persons in the state. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

Minority-Owned Firms.³ In 2002, Asian-owned firms totaled 4,956 and generated $1.5 billion in receipts; Black-owned firms numbered 6,685 and generated $633 million in receipts; and Hispanic-owned businesses totaled 3,750 and created $975 million in receipts. American Indian- and Alaska Native-owned firms numbered 2,517, and they generated $420 million in receipts; the number of Native Hawaiian- and other Pacific Islander-owned firms was 104, and they generated $4 million in receipts in 2002. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

² The definition of self-employment has changed; as a result, statistics in the Small Business Profiles before 2004 are not comparable.

³ Minority owners may belong to more than one minority group, so adding the different groups will result in double counting.

Business Turnover. New employer businesses in 2005 were estimated at 13,656, which is 4.3 percent more than the previous year. Business bankruptcies increased by 10.5 percent, to 820 in 2005, while business terminations increased by 5.4 percent, to 13,397 during the same period. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration; Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts.)

Employment. There were 113,880 employer firms with fewer than 500 employees in 2003;⁴ they provided 1,284,904 jobs in the state. These firms represented 98.0 percent of the employer businesses in the state and employed 53.9 percent of the state's non-farm private sector workforce (Table 1). Between 2002 and 2003, total small business net new jobs amounted to 30,789 (Table 2). (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau, Statistics of U.S. Businesses.)

Small Business Income. Non-farm proprietors' income, which is a partial measure of small business income, increased by 7.5 percent to $11.5 billion in 2005. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce.)

Finance.⁵ Two important sources of small business financing are commercial banks and savings and loan institutions, which owners rely on for their financial needs. The total number of operating bank and savings bank branches in the state increased in 2005 (Table 3). A list of financial institutions in each state that make loans to small businesses has been compiled by the Office of Advocacy and is available at: www.sba.gov/advo/research/lending.html.
