

Simple SearchAdvanced SearchJudgment SearchReportsFAQsLinksWisconsin Circuit Court Access (WCCA)Previous Return to List NextPrintable VersionState vs K*Milwaukee County Case Number 2003

All charges against K
no legal effect. K in this case have been dismissed. These charges were not prove . is presumed innocent.

Notice to employers: It may be a violation of state law to discriminate against a job applicant because of a conviction record. Generally speaking, an employer may refuse to hire an applicant on the basis of a conviction if the circumstances of the conviction substantially relate to the particular job. For more information, see Wisc Statute 111.335 and the Department of Workforce Development's Arrest and Conviction Records under the publication.

View Case DetailsPrevious Return to List NextPrintable Version