The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: Under current law, in an action affecting the family, such as a divorce or action to determine paternity, in which legal custody or physical placement is contested, a parent seeking sole or joint legal custody or periods of physical placement must file a parenting plan with the court before any pretrial conference. In general, a parent who does not file a parenting plan before the pretrial conference waives the right to object to the other party's parenting plan. A parenting plan must provide information relating to issues such as the legal custody or physical placement the parent is seeking; where the parent lives and intends to live; the parent's hours of employment; the plan for where the child will attend school; child care arrangements; decision-making relating to the child; and any proposed child support or maintenance.

Also, under current law, in an action affecting the family in which it appears that legal custody is contested, the court must refer the parties to the director of family court services for possible mediation.

BILL

This bill requires the clerk of court to provide parties that have a minor child with a copy of the statute relating to parenting plans when they file a petition or receive a summons for an action affecting the family. The bill also provides that a mediator must review the nonfinancial provisions of the parenting plan at the initial session of mediation.

The bill requires parties to file a parenting plan with the court within 60 days after the court waives the requirement that the parties attend mediation or within 60 days after the mediator notifies the court that the parties have not reached an agreement, unless the court orders otherwise.
