PART I

NO RECOMMENDATION

The Special Committee on Health Care Reform Implementation has permanently adjourned. The Special Committee makes no recommendation.

The Special Committee held four meetings in 2010, during which it heard testimony from state and national experts on federal health care reform implementation and learned about health care exchanges that have been implemented in Utah and Massachusetts; discussed options for creating a state health insurance exchange for Wisconsin; and reviewed a preliminary bill draft to create a Wisconsin exchange. Appendix 1 is a letter from the Joint Legislative Council Co-Chairs explaining the decision to adjourn the committee.

PART II

COMMITTEE ACTIVITY

Assignment

The Joint Legislative Council established the Special Committee on Health Care Reform Implementation and appointed the co-chairs by a May 7, 2010 mail ballot. The committee was directed to study and make recommendations on what changes should be made to Wisconsin's statutes and administrative rules in response to recently enacted federal health care reform legislation. The committee was directed to study all aspects of the federal legislation that affect Wisconsin including insurance market reforms, coverage for uninsured persons, preventive care, taxation, quality improvement, and health workforce issues.

Membership of the Special Committee was appointed by June 30, 2010 and January 27, 2011 mail ballots. The final committee membership consisted of two Senators, three Representatives, and 16 public members. A list of committee members is included as Appendix 3 to this report.

Summary of Meetings

The Special Committee held four meetings on the following dates:

August 19, 2010
September 21, 2010
November 9, 2010
December 13, 2010

At the August 19, 2010 meeting, the Special Committee heard presentations from Secretary Karen Timberlake and staff, Department of Health Services (DHS) and Commissioner Sean Dilweg and staff, Office of the Commissioner of Insurance (OCI) on the activities of the Office of Health Care Reform (OHCR). Alan Weil, the Executive Director of the National Academy for State Health Policy (NASHP), said that NASHP convened a steering committee of state health policy leaders and asked for their feedback on the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) implementation on the state level. He described key elements for state policymakers to keep in mind. Amie Goldman, CEO, Health Insurance Risk-Sharing Plan (HIRSP), provided a brief history and description of HIRSP. She also described HIRSP's contract to operate the federal temporary federal risk pool until the end of 2013. The committee heard from Alice Torti of Madison, the owner of Great Big Pictures, Inc. Ms. Torti provided testimony regarding her experience with procuring health insurance for her company's employees. Finally, Bob Connolly described his experience as a small business owner providing health insurance to his employees, and his efforts to try to mitigate the large annual premium increases by pursuing the establishment of a health care purchasing cooperative through "Common Ground," an alliance of small businesses, congregations, unions, schools, and neighborhood associations.

At the September 21, 2010 meeting, Bill Oemichen, President and CEO, Cooperative Network, gave an overview of how health cooperatives operate and the important role they play in Wisconsin. Next, David Stella, Secretary; Lisa Ellinger, Deputy Administrator, Division of Insurance Services; and Bill Kox, Director, Health Benefits and Insurance Plans Bureau; Department of Employee Trust Funds (ETF), gave an overview of ETF health insurance plans, scope, governance structure, and administration. Jon Kingsdale, Ph.D., Kingsdale and Associates, LLC., former Executive Director, Massachusetts Health Connector, appeared via conference call to describe some of the lessons learned in setting up the Massachusetts exchange. David Jackson, Director, Utah Health Exchange, described the Utah Health Exchange, a private sector health care solution facilitated by the state. Finally, Rachel Currans-Sheehan, Executive Assistant, DHS, and Craig Steele, Project Manager, OHCR, discussed the exchange planning grant and the request for comments from the federal Department of Health and Human Services regarding the major factors states should consider in designing exchanges. Following these presentations, the committee discussed Memo No. 1, Health Benefits Exchanges in Selected States and Under Federal Health Care Reform. The committee discussed the need for guiding principles and provided input on the structure and governance of a health exchange. Members were requested to submit ideas for guiding principles and the structure and governance of the exchange to staff, who compiled this information for the November meeting.

At the November 9, 2010 meeting, the Special Committee reviewed Memo No. 3, Guiding Principles for Committee Discussion. The committee debated the scope of the work that the committee should undertake given the changes in the majority leadership for Wisconsin's Legislature and the Governor on January 3, 2011. The committee approved a motion that the committee recommend a framework for the guiding principles of the health exchange as follows: (1) maintain a pluralistic marketplace, for a robust private insurance market in the state; (2) create a governance structure for the health exchange that is independent and insulated from the political process, but is publicly accountable through measures such as being subject to the open records law, audits, and regular reporting to the Legislature; and (3) promote value and transparency within the health care system, with a focus on cost-efficiency, quality, access, and prevention.

At the December 13, 2010 meeting, the Special Committee reviewed a bill draft that established a Wisconsin Health Exchange Authority, modeled on the HIRSP Authority structure, with the same inclusions and exclusions to particular state agency requirements. The bill draft incorporated all of the federal requirements for an exchange pursuant to the federal PPACA. The committee reviewed the draft's legislative findings, which incorporated the guiding principles upon which the committee found consensus at the November meeting, and amended some of the principles. The committee also discussed the governing body of the exchange as presented in the draft, and recommended changes to membership categories, as well as to the size of the governing body.

A meeting scheduled for January 10, 2011, was cancelled by the newly designated co-chairpersons of the committee, Senator Alberta Darling and Representative Pat Strachota. Subsequently, Senator Mary Lazich and Representative Joan Ballweg, the Co-Chairs of the Legislative Council, in a letter dated September 26, 2011, disbanded the committee (see Appendix 1).

Members of the Special Committee on Health Care Reform Implementation

Dear:

We have reviewed the activity of the various special committees appointed by the previous Joint Legislative Council. Many of these committees completed their assignments earlier this year and have forwarded their final reports to us. The Special Committee on Health Care Reform Implementation has been awaiting further action. The committee co-chairs have recommended no further committee meetings.

Thank you for your service on the committee. The work you did will help in the process that Wisconsin uses to develop a health care exchange. Going forward, the Legislature will be working with the Governor and the various stakeholders to create a Wisconsin answer to this issue.

Your participation in this committee has played a valuable role in the collection of vast amounts of good information that will be consulted as this issue continues to be reviewed and addressed by state government. While the committee will not conduct further meetings, the information assembled will be retained.

We greatly appreciate your assistance to the Wisconsin Legislature and service to the people of Wisconsin.

Sincerely,

Senator Mary Lazich, Co-Chair
Joint Legislative Council
