The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill draft was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Special Committee on Reporting of Child Abuse and Child Neglect. The draft makes the following changes to s. 48.981, the child abuse and neglect reporting law:

- Throughout s. 48.981, reorganizes provisions to break large paragraphs into separate paragraphs; adds titles to various provisions; consolidates provisions with duplicative language; and updates language to clarify meaning.
- Amends the definition of “agency” to provide that, for purposes of performing the duties specified in certain provisions of s. 48.981, “agency” includes a licensed child welfare agency under contract with a county department to perform investigations, in order to facilitate the use of the definition throughout the section.
- Renumbers definitions for “community placement”, “Indian unborn child”, and “member of the clergy”, to place them in the single paragraphs in which they appear within the section.
- In s. 48.981 (2) (bm), creates a definition of “abuse” by cross-reference so that the word “abuse” may be used throughout the paragraph without repeated references to its definition.
- In provisions authorizing any person to report suspected abuse or neglect of children and unborn children, removes the clause “, including an attorney”, from the phrases “any person not otherwise specified, including an attorney”, and “any person, not including an attorney”, to reduce redundancy.
- Amends the authority for interviewing children in absence of content to account for a ruling of the U.S. court of appeals for the seventh circuit in Doe v. Heck.
- Updates cross-references in s. 146.82 (2), stats., regarding the release of certain medical information, to account for a change in federal law.

1 SECTION 1. 48.236 (4) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 48.236 (4) (a) Inspect any reports and records relating to the child who is the subject
3 of the proceeding, the child’s family, and any other person residing in the same home as the
4 child that are relevant to the subject matter of the proceeding, including records discoverable

1 (2) (L). The order shall also require the custodian of any report or record specified in this
2 paragraph to permit the court-appointed special advocate to inspect the report or record on
3 presentation by the court-appointed special advocate of a copy of the order. A
4 court-appointed special advocate that obtains access to a report or record described in this
5 paragraph shall keep the information contained in the report or record confidential and may
6 disclose that information only to the court. If a court-appointed special advocate discloses
7 any information to the court under this paragraph, the court-appointed special advocate shall
8 also disclose that information to all parties to the proceeding. If a court-appointed special
9 advocate discloses information in violation of the confidentiality requirement specified in this
10 paragraph, the court-appointed special advocate is liable to any person damaged as a result
11 of that disclosure for such damages as may be proved and, notwithstanding s. 814.04 (1), for 12 such costs and reasonable actual attorney fees as may be incurred by the person damaged.

23 or the unborn child and the expectant mother of the unborn child, the intake worker shall 24 forward this recommendation to the district attorney, corporation counsel, or other official

1 under s. 48.09. If a petition is filed, the petition may include information received more than 2 60 days before filing the petition to establish a condition or pattern which, together with

4 the court. The court shall grant appropriate relief as provided in s. 48.315 (3) with respect to 5 any petition that is not referred or filed within the time periods specified in this subsection.
6 Failure to object to the fact that a petition is not requested within the time period specified in

10 SECTION 38. 48.981 (3) (c) 1. b. of the statutes is renumbered 48.981 (3g) (a) 2. and

4 ~~custodian or after obtaining a court order permitting the person to do so~~ to the extent permitted
5 under the 4th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Article I, Section 11 of the Wisconsin

NOTE: Amends the authority for interviewing children absent consent by limiting such authority to that permitted under the U.S. and Wisconsin Constitutions. This change responds to federal case law, such as the holding by the U.S. court of appeals for the seventh circuit in Doe v. Heck, 327 F.3d 492 (2003), that raises fourth amendment concerns regarding interviews conducted absent consent.

14 ~~or legal custodian in good faith selects and relies on prayer or other religious means for~~
15 ~~treatment of disease or for remedial care of the child. In making a determination that~~
16 ~~emotional damage has occurred, the county department or, in a county having a population~~
