

All persons with disabilities and their families shall be empowered

Disability Rights Wisconsin Vision Statement

to exercise and enjoy the full extent of their rights and to pursue ,, the greatest possible quality of life.

Mission

DRW challenges systems and society to achieve positive changes in the lives of people with disabilities and their families.

Core Values - the Dignity of the Person

Diversity

Accessibility

- Access to basic benefits and services
- · Working for a barrier free society for everyone

Independence

Autonomy and choice in individual life decisions

Inclusion

Living, working and attending school in the most integrated setting

Human Rights

- Protection from abuse and neglect in institutions and the community
- Ensuring equal opportunity to participate in all aspects of society

Liberation

- The right to move out of institutions and other segregated settings
- The right to be free from restraint, seclusion, detention, and forced chemical control.

DRW Ends Policies

People with disabilities will live and work in the most inclusive, integrated setting based on the person's informed choice, with services and supports they need.

DRW will ensure for everyone local access to quality community services and benefits which provide self- determination, consumer choice, individual design, independence and interaction within the entire community, and to the extent and duration of the person's needs. In the context of mental health, this includes adherence to recovery values.

People with disabilities will have a life free of abuse, neglect, harassment, and the denial of their legal rights in all aspects of life, including but not limited to institutions, home, community, schools, work places, and correctional facilities.

DRW Ends Policies (con.)

DRW's advocacy and other services will be provided to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities regardless of their geographic location within the state of Wisconsin.

Children and young adults with disabilities will have a free and appropriate education.

All barriers, physical or otherwise, which prevent the opportunities for full participation in community life by people with disabilities, will be eliminated.

Civil commitment will never be used when less restrictive alternatives are adequate to address the risk of harm to the consumer or others.

Guardianship and protective placement for people with disabilities shall be used only if it allows the person to live as safely and independently as possible in the most inclusive, integrated setting.

DRW will be diverse internally and will assure the provision of our services to people of minority status, including those of various races, cultural and ethnic heritages, genders, abilities, sexual orientations, ages, and religious traditions.

The rights of all individuals with disabilities will be protected under state and federal law in juvenile and adult correctional programs.

Persons with disabilities will have initial and ongoing access to public and private benefits for which they are eligible.
