

Wisconsin Legislative Council Symposia Series on Workforce Housing

Week 3: The Cost of Workforce Housing Development

Join us for a discussion about why housing costs continue to rise, including detailed examples of potential projects and how consumer demands, regulatory hurdles, and raw material costs lead to higher housing costs.

Pat Kaster, Owner/Broker River City Realtors, Inc., has been working in the real estate industry since 1967, and has been a licensed broker since 1971. Pat's expertise is in residential land development and new construction. She has handled the development and sale of subdivisions in Brown and Outagamie Counties, including all design aspects and governmental approval meetings. Developments include everything from R-1 Residential, condominium, apartment, duplex, conservation by design, and a 55 years and older residential development. She became involved in the REALTORS Association both at the local and state level, serving as president for the REALTORS Association of NE Wisconsin in 2004, and on the Wisconsin REALTORS Association Board of Directors since 2007, including serving on various committees. She is also serving as the Federal Political Coordinator for the National Association of REALTORS. Pat has earned the ALC Accredited Land Consultant, CCIM Certified Commercial Investment Broker, and the GMB Graduate Master Builder through the Wisconsin Home Builders Association, among other designations.
