Dear Senator Marklein and Representative Born:

In accordance with Wis. Stat. § 51.06 (8), the Department of Health Services (DHS) is providing a Report on Transitions from Institutions. This year's report submission includes reporting for State Fiscal Years (SFY) 2022 and 2023.

The DHS transition programs have been successful, providing the opportunity for elderly individuals and people with physical and developmental disabilities to live in community-based settings, who otherwise would have resided in ICFs-IID and nursing facilities. Transitioned individuals historically participated in one of the DHS Medicaid Home and Community-Based Waiver Programs. With the statewide expansion of Family Care in 2018, many of the individual programs were discontinued. This report provides information on transitions from nursing homes to the community in SFYs 2022 and 2023 as part of enrolling in the Family Care program. Information from programs that have since been discontinued is included for historical context and to show the trends in nursing home transitions over time.

Please contact my office if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

SFYs 2022 and 2023 REPORTS on TRANSITIONS As required by Wis. Stat. § 51.06 (8)

The Department of Health Services (DHS) has been providing elders and people with physical and developmental disabilities residing in nursing facilities the opportunity to transition to community-based settings through a variety of programs since 2006. With the statewide expansion of Family Care in 2018, many of the individual programs were discontinued. This report provides information on transitions from nursing homes to the community in state fiscal years (SFYs) 2022 and 2023 as part of enrolling in the Family Care program. Information from programs that have since been discontinued is included for historical context and to show the trends in nursing home transitions over time.

The DHS transition programs have been highly successful over the years. In SFY 2022, 553 elderly people and people with physical and developmental disabilities transitioned to live in community settings, closer to family and friends and community activities. As shown in the summary table below, 352 (63.65%) transitions were for frail elders, 119 (21.52%) were for people with physical disabilities, and 82 (14.83%) were for people with developmental disabilities.

Community Transitions in SFY 2022
	Persons with Developmental Disabilities	Frail Elder	Persons with Physical Disabilities	Total
Transitions	82	352	119	553
% of Total	14.83%	63.65%	21.52%

In SFY 2023, there were 495 total transitions including 321 transitions for frail elders (64.85%), 112 (22.63%) for people with physical disabilities, and 62 (12.53%) for people with developmental disabilities.

Community Transitions in SFY 2023
	Persons with Developmental Disabilities	Frail Elder	Persons with Physical Disabilities	Total
Transitions	62	321	112	495
% of Total	12.53%	64.85%	22.63%

Movement from the legacy waiver programs (Community Options Program [COP] and Community Integration Program [CIP]) to the Family Care managed long term services and supports program has significantly altered the way people transition from institutional settings to the community. This report includes those transitions where a person was living in a nursing home and transitioned to the community as part of their enrollment in Family Care or another home and community-based program. It is also possible for a person enrolled in Family Care who is living in the community to enter a nursing home when necessary due to health conditions and remain enrolled in Family Care. Transitions that occur entirely within the Family Care program do not meet the definition for transitions used in this report and are not reflected in this data.

Since SFY 2006, 9,108 elders and people with physical and developmental disabilities have successfully transitioned from institutional settings. The quality of life for these 9,108 people has been enhanced through the opportunity to live in the community, be near family and friends, and more fully engaged in community activities. The table below displays transitions by target group and year:

*Starting in 2018, Target group is defined by the Adult Long Term Care Functional Screen tool. Therefore, numbers prior to 2018 are not comparable to 2018 and after. For more information, visit <https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/functionscreen/index.htm>.

Highlights of the transition initiative over the past 18 years (SFYs 2006-2023) include:

- 1,187 people with developmental disabilities moved to the community and participated in community activities that were not available to them when they resided in institutions.
- 5,653 frail elders who resided in nursing facilities chose to live in the community near their families and friends. Prior to this initiative, these people would have been on a waiting list for Medicaid home and community-based services waiver care and few would have had the opportunity to return to the community.
- 2,268 people with physical disabilities chose to live in the community where they are able to access community activities rather than live in nursing facilities.

People are being served in the community at a cost below that of institutional care, resulting in savings to the medical assistance programs of $11,617,043 and $12,181,057 for the people transitioned in SFYs 2022 and 2023 respectively.

In 2007, DHS was awarded a federal “Money Follows the Person” (MFP) grant to support rebalancing of the long-term care system through further relocations from institutions to the community. Starting October 2007 and continuing until service dollars are exhausted, the federal government pays a match rate that is higher than the standard Medicaid matching rate for the costs of certain relocated people during their first 365 days in the community. There were 79 brand new participants in MFP in SFY 2022 with 263 total participants. During SFY 2023, there were 130 brand new participants with 211 total participants.

Age and Length of Stay Prior to Transition

DHS provides elders and people with physical and developmental disabilities residing in nursing facilities the opportunity to relocate to community-based living arrangements as part of their care plans in the Family Care, Family Care Partnership, and Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) programs. People being cared for in nursing homes have a choice to remain in their current setting in Medicaid fee-for-service or enroll in a waiver long term care program such as Family Care, Family Care Partnership, PACE, or Include, Respect, I Self-Direct (IRIS). If they enroll in one of those long term care programs, the person can choose whether to stay in their nursing home or move to the community when their care needs can be met at home, in an apartment, or in an assisted living setting.

The following tables display transitioned members by age and length of stay in a nursing home prior to transition for SFYs 2022 and 2023:

Nature of Living Arrangement

The following tables show the living arrangement for people transitioned in SFYs 2022 and 2023. In both state fiscal years, the largest number of people transitioned to a home or apartment setting, and the second largest transition was to a CBRF. During SFY 2022, 271 (49.01%) people moved to a home or apartment, and 198 (35.80%) people moved to a CBRF. In SFY 2023, 322 (65.05%) people moved to a home or apartment, and 133 (26.87%) people moved to a CBRF.

Appendix A provides information about the living arrangements for people relocated by the program under which they were served.

Costs Under the Medicaid Program

Medicaid costs were calculated for both the period when the person was in an institution and the period when the person was living in the community to determine the net Medicaid cost of the transition programs. The analysis examined the following two components: (a) the institutional or Medicaid home and community-based services waiver costs; and (b) other Medicaid (MA) costs, termed MA Card Costs, which include the Medicaid costs for personal care services, therapeutic services, and all other MA services. This provides a comprehensive presentation of the person's Medicaid costs in each setting.

In 2021, DHS instituted a risk corridor in the Family Care and Family Care Partnership programs. The final risk corridor recoupments and payments would modify cost comparisons, but the final risk corridor results are not available at the time of this report. Final risk corridor results are typically available 18 months after the end of the Family Care contract period. Based on the presently available risk corridor results for CY 2021, the daily rate impact of the risk corridor is $2.01.

As summarized in the table below, in SFY 2022, the average daily cost in the nursing facility for people before they transitioned under managed long term care was $230.80. In contrast, the average daily cost in the community after transition for these same people was $106.36. Community transitions under managed long term care were cost effective, producing an average daily savings of $124.44, representing a 53.92% cost reduction.

For SFY 2023, the average daily cost in the nursing facility for people before they transitioned under managed long term care was $250.62. In contrast, the average daily cost in the community after transition for these same people was $113.87. Community transitions under managed long term care were cost effective, producing an average daily savings of $136.75, representing a 54.56% cost reduction.

Notes

1. All Medicaid costs are based on paid claims as reported in interChange.
2. Family Care, Partnership, and PACE costs are based on the capitation payments paid to the managed care organization on behalf of the member.

As shown in the table below, the total MA cost in SFY 2022 of serving the 553 people who transitioned to the community under Family Care, Family Care Partnership, or PACE during the period they lived in their new community settings was approximately $9.9 million. If these people had remained in their institutional settings during this time period instead, their MA cost of services would have been approximately $21.5 million for SFY 2022. Due to the difference between institutional and community costs, Family Care produced total savings of more than $11.6 million in SFY 2022.

Estimated Total SFY 2022 Costs

Similarly, the table below shows the total MA cost in SFY 2023 of serving the 495 people who transitioned to the community under Family Care, Family Care Partnership, or PACE during the period they lived in their new community settings was approximately $10.1 million. If these people had remained in their institutional settings during this time period instead, their MA cost of services would have been approximately $22.3 million for SFY 2023. Due to the difference between institutional and community costs, Family Care produced total savings of more than $12.1 million in SFY 2023.

Impact on Health and Safety

Medicaid Home and Community-Based Services Waiver Quality Assurance

Assuring the health and safety of frail elders and people with developmental and physical disabilities is a paramount goal of DHS whether people live in an institution or in the community. The Family Care, Family Care Partnership, or PACE programs operate under federally approved plans through the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, which include extensive risk assessment and mitigation, as well as quality assurance and improvement protocols intended to ensure health and safety for participants.

All participants have highly individualized support and service plans that promote person-centered outcomes, informed choices, and community participation, in addition to addressing health and safety needs. Care management staff are required to have contact with participants at regular intervals, including face-to-face visits, to ensure that services and supports are being delivered as required and to address new needs that might arise. For persons relocating from institutions, a visit will occur shortly after the move to the community to assess the adequacy of the support and service plan and identify any issues that occurred after the move.

For all participants, ongoing assessments are methodically completed and updated. In Family Care, care planning is carried out by an interdisciplinary team, which includes a nurse. When unmet needs are identified, the care plan is modified. In addition to home and community based waiver services and supports, people also receive community health services, such as physician and dental visits, hospital care, personal care in their home, and pharmacy.

DHS requires Family Care managed care organizations to have a system to ensure participants are adequately protected from physical, verbal, and sexual abuse, as well as maltreatment, neglect, financial exploitation and violation of their rights under law. DHS also requires these entities to have mechanisms for reporting incidents to DHS and effective response systems.

DHS uses state staff or contractors to monitor compliance with program requirements. This oversight uses a variety of sources, such as case records, satisfaction surveys, and visits with program participants.

Regulatory Oversight

The Division of Quality Assurance conducts regular on-site surveys of licensed three- to four-bed adult family homes and community-based residential facilities using state guidelines and standards. Managed care organizations are responsible for ensuring high-quality services and environments for people living in smaller settings. Residential and day-service providers also have procedures that maintain each person's health and safety. They interact with each person on a constant basis, monitor medical conditions, provide structured social and environmental situations, and give sufficient supports to people with special needs.

DHS oversees these programs and service delivery systems by having staff throughout the state conduct several types of activities, including random unannounced visits, in-depth annual plan review, and ongoing dialogue with all stakeholders (including consumers and their families and guardians). DHS issues guidelines and establishes policies and procedures whenever necessary to address gaps that are identified or suspected.

Actual or suspected events

Any actual or suspected event that threatens the health or safety of an individual is investigated and reviewed by each provider and managed care organization. Managed care organizations are required to report all such instances to state quality assurance staff or contractors, who, depending on the nature and seriousness of the report, may investigate or involve others, such as police or the judicial system.

All deaths in licensed or certified settings are reported to and scrutinized by the State to identify negative trends associated with providers, managed care organizations, or the approaches that are used by the service delivery system with the intent of preventing further instances. Concerns are then shared with appropriate entities that are required to make systemic improvements or take corrective actions to create a constant cycle of improvement. Instances of abuse or neglect are remedied swiftly and access to necessary medical services is closely monitored.

Involvement of Guardians or Family Members

Counties are required to prepare a plan for home or community-based care for all people residing in ICFs-IID and nursing homes who are at a developmental disability level of care. For ICFs-IIDs other than the state centers, these plans are part of the statutorily required annual court review, known as the Watts review, to determine the most integrated setting appropriate to the person's needs. Counties involve guardians in the preparation of these plans and state law requires that the county provide a copy of the plan to the guardian prior to the Watts review.

When a person is relocated from a state center or other ICFs-IID or nursing home facility, the plan for a person's care is signed by the guardian indicating their acceptance of the plan.

Most elderly people and people with physical disabilities relocated under Family Care do not have guardians. However, in cases where people do have guardians, the guardians are involved in the efforts to relocate or divert people from institutions.

For persons who are competent to make their own decisions, family members are involved to the extent preferred by the individual participant. DHS does not keep a record of family involvement in care planning for people who are competent to make their own decisions.

Staff turnover

Appendices B and C provide calendar year 2021 and 2022 staff turnover rates for facilities for individuals with intellectual disabilities and nursing facilities. Staff turnover rates are provided for both full- and part-time staff for three professions: registered nurses (RNs), licensed practical nurses (LPNs), and nursing assistants (NAs).

The staff turnover rate was calculated by the Division of Quality Assurance based on information submitted in response to their 2021 Annual Staffing Surveys. In this survey each nursing home and ICF-IID provided information about the number of full-time and part-time RNs, LPNs, and NAs hired in 2021 and 2022. Each nursing home and ICF-IID also provided the total number of full-time and part-time RNs, LPNs, and NAs employed as of December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively, and their length of service. The staff turnover rate for each category was calculated by dividing the number of new employees hired in 2021 and 2022 in that category (e.g., full-time RNs) by the total number of employees in that category on December 31, 2021 and 2022, respectively. For example, if a nursing home hired two full-time RNs in 2021 and had eight full-time RNs as of December 31, 2021, the full-time RN turnover rate was calculated as 25%.
