ORDER OF THE STATE OF WISCONSIN
OFFICE OF THE STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER
ADOPTING RULES
(Chaps. 51 and 55 Eligibility and Reimbursement)

The Wisconsin State Public Defender Board proposes an order to amend PD 2.03 (1), (3), (5), 3.01, 6.01, 6.02 (1), and 6.08 and to create PD 6.025 (4) and 6.055, relating to representation by the state public defender of persons detained under chapters 51 or 55 or subject to involuntary administration of psychotropic medication without a predetermination of financial eligibility.

Statutes Interpreted

Sections 51.60, 51.605, 55.105, 55.107, 977.075 (1g), (4), 977.085(3), Stats.

Statutory Authority

Sections 51.60, 51.605, 55.105, 55.107, 977.02 (2m), (3), (4m) and (4r), and 977.075, Stats.

Explanation of Agency Authority

Section 977.02 (2m) allows the state public defender board to promulgate rules regarding eligibility for legal services for persons who are entitled to be represented by counsel without a determination of indigency. Sections 977.02 (4m) and 977.075 allow for the state public defender board to establish rules setting the maximum amount a person subject to sec. 51.605 or 55.107 must pay as reimbursement for legal services. Section 977.02 (4r) allows the state public defender board to promulgate rules that establish procedures to provide the department of administration with any information concerning collection of payments.

Related Statute or Rule

The proposed rules implement statutory changes relating to the appointment of counsel without a determination of indigency and the payment for representation in chapter 51 and 55 cases. Similar statutes include ss. 48.23 (4) and 938.23 (4) relating to the appointment of counsel in juvenile cases without a determination of indigency. Other similar statutes and rules related to the payment for representation in chapter 48 and 938 cases include ss. 48.275, 938.275 and 977.075 and chapter PD 6.

Plain Language Analysis

The proposed rules implement the 2007 Act 20 statutory changes that became effective July 1, 2008, affecting the state public defender's office in proceedings under chapters 51 and 55, Stats.. The specific actions proposed include:

- Removing the requirement of financial eligibility by the state public defender before legal counsel is appointed for chapter 51 and 55 clients
- Removing the prepayment options for chapter 51 and 55 case types
- Creating a new rule for reimbursement rates for chapter 51 and 55 case types

- Requiring a report be provided to the joint committee on finance and the department of administration regarding the collection of payments ordered under chapter 51 and 55

2007 Wisconsin Act 20 removed the requirement that persons subject to civil commitment or chapter 55 proceedings complete a pre-representation indigency evaluation and required the state public defender to appoint counsel without a determination of indigency. At the conclusion of the proceeding, the circuit court may inquire as to the person's ability to reimburse the state for the cost of representation. The court may require the state public defender to conduct a determination of indigency and report the results of that determination to the court. If the court determines that the individual is able to make reimbursement for the costs of representation, the court may order the person to reimburse the state an amount not to exceed the maximum amount established by the public defender board, currently established in Wisconsin Administrative Code PD 6.01.

Any reimbursement is made to the clerk of courts for the county where the proceedings took place. The clerk of each county deposits 25% of the reimbursement payments to the county treasury and transmits the remaining 75% to the Secretary of the Department of Administration to be credited in the state public defender's private bar and investigator reimbursement appropriation. The clerks of court for each county are required to report to the state public defender by January 31 the total amount of court-ordered reimbursements under chapters 51 and 55 for the previous calendar year. The effective date of these statutory provisions is July 1, 2008.

Summary of, and Comparison with, Existing or Proposed Federal Regulations

There are no existing or proposed federal regulations that address the activities of the proposed rules.

Comparisons with Rules in Adjacent States

For all states adjacent to Wisconsin, if neither the respondent nor others provide counsel for a civil commitment hearing, the court appoints counsel for the respondent. To compensate the attorneys for their services in the states of Minnesota, Iowa, and Illinois, the court enters an order directing the county to pay the entire fee or such an amount as the respondent is unable to pay. In Michigan, the court compensates appointed counsel from court funds in an amount that is reasonable and is based upon time and expenses.

Summary of Factual Data and Analytical Methodologies

The proposed rules implement statutory changes that went into effect on July 1, 2008.
